Plus One Pregnancy Guidance Center Baby Bottle Fundraiser : Look for bottles in the church entrances. The drive will go up until Father’s Day. And get this: Both KC Councils are going to match the parish donations up to $500.00! Thank you KC’s! I think this is a good cause. Please match the KC’s in generosity!

“Bishop’s Charity Fishing Tournaments:” The 27th annual tournaments are on June 6th in Big Stone City and June 13th in Pierre. All proceeds go to support seminarian education. Questions: Call (605) 988-3765.

Hand County Right to Life: The next meeting is Tuesday, June 7th, 7:00pm at St. Ann’s. Please come!

Regarding Memorial Day and Mass: There will be no Mass on Memorial Day this year. None at either church. None at either cemetery. I will be with family this year.

Related: Any special displays and decorations placed in either cemetery must be removed by the Monday after Memorial Day—that is—June 6th. After that, stuff will be removed by the folks who mow the lawns. Thanks!

First Friday and First Saturday—June 3rd and 4th. On First Friday I will offer Mass at 10:00am at the CTV in Miller. (Courtyard Villa.) On Saturday, I will offer Mass at 9:00am and 5:00pm at St. Ann’s. Going to Mass on the First Friday and First Saturday of the month is a good devotion. Combine it with monthly Confession. I used to offer two Masses on First Friday. I would do so again if enough people asked for it. ???

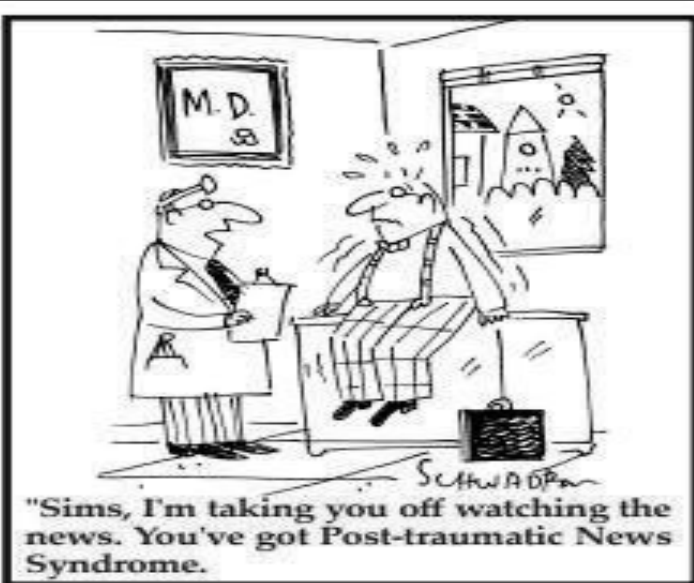

Congratulations to this week’s 500 Club winner:

The Back Page

So... Thirty-five years of Priesthood.

My first assignment was at Holy Family Parish in Mitchell. From there I went to Sacred Heart Parish in Yankton. From Yankton I went on to St. Dominic Parish in Canton. St. Edward's in Worthing was linked with St. Dominic's. Canton was my first assignment as Pastor.

From there I went up to Bowdle, Roscoe and Hosmer. I lived in Bowdle. I will always remember the time someone called me asking if I wanted to go with them for pizza. I said fine, but where were we going to go for pizza? There were no pizza places in Bowdle. They told me they were going to Aberdeen. I expressed surprise, since Aberdeen was an hour away from Bowdle. The folks pointed out that that is what you do when you live out in these parts. So, we drove all the way to Aberdeen, had pizza at the Pizza Hut, and then drove back to Bowdle, as if it was only a drive across town. Not strange really, but it seemed so then.

After Bowdle, I went to St. Peter's in Platte and St. Ann's in Geddes. Then on to Parkston. Then Yankton again—this time to St. Ben's. Then to Howard, Ramona and Epiphany, and now to here, coming in 2017.

Gonna start my 6th year here in July.

When I mention that to folks, some say "Oh... Seems like you have been here longer." Hmm... What to make of that... Well anyway, yes, gonna be starting my 6th year. Please keep me in your prayers, as I do you.

On a different note, it seems every time I turn around I hear of another person needing prayers cuz of some illness, disease, surgery, whatever. So many to pray for! Please be mindful of the folks named on the bulletin cover and on the prayer chain. Amen!

And finally, this. You know how the world just seems to get rottener and rottener? Well, been thinking. The world might be getting rottener, because folks aren't getting any gooder! (Gooder?) Folks, if we ain't changing, the world ain't changing. Simple, really.

Driving through Alabama, a man was listening to a country preacher on the car radio. The preacher, with a country "twang," admitted that he had trouble with drugs when he was young.

"My Momma drug me to church every Sunday," he said. -Columnist Smiley Anders
