From Your Pastor:

Rev. Thomas Fitzpatrick
Pastor

Spring is coming, an unstoppable force. It became evident these last few weeks with the geese and birds flying north, the battle between warm air and the frigid, and lately, the lot of obviously egg-laden robins perched on tree branches. We have the capacity to read the signs of the times, and to place them within the context of time and history itself. Hopefully, we are able to see all of these within the Providence of God as well, in terms of Salvation History and our own individual call to holiness in relationship with God.

Mass Schedule

Wednesday: 8:00 AM
Friday: 8:00 AM
Saturday (vigil): 5:00 PM
Sunday: 7:30 AM
9:00 AM

Stations of the Cross

Friday: Stations only 6:45 AM

Confession Schedule

Friday: During Holy Hour
Saturday: 4:00-4:40 PM
Sunday: 6:45-7:15 AM
8:25-8:45 AM

The Old Testament is replete with God communicating to His people through wonderful works, improbable rescues, the pleadings through the Prophets, and promises of what will be if His ways are heeded. Today, our first reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah shows forth another facet of God's power and love: the way in which He communicates to us at the very core of our Being, the human soul.

Confession in the Justin Larson Family Room
(northwest corner of the parish hall)

Sacramental Preparation

Baptism

By Appointment. Call the parish office.

Marriage

Arrangements to be made with the priest at least six months in advance.

All too often, we hear about our 'power within'. Unfortunately, this self-reliant boast is presented as something either to be found, or merely exercised by following a method that never seems to mention God. Our faith is not based on knowing about God then deciding whether He is necessary for a happy life or even needed in the first place, it is about simply knowing Him in the ways He communicates to us through Creation itself, nature, history and the promptings He gives us through the gift of His presence in our souls.

Office Hours

Mon-Thu 8:30 AM-5:00 PM
Fri 8:30 AM-3:00 PM

His teaching par excellence is Christ Himself, particularly as we place His sacrifice and victimhood within the context of history itself and see that it is not merely human nature slogging through time, but God-with-Us, giving life and purpose in all and through all. God's ways are not contrarian; rather, they are absolutely connatural to human nature as our Creator.

Christ has drawn all to Himself. It is we who ought not to repel Him by the mistake of self-reliance or forming Him in our image. Holiness and virtue is an act that emanates from desire. It is evident that God places the desire for goodness and truth in every human heart, and these qualities are shaped and pruned by listening to this 'power within' which is nothing less than God Himself. As we press on towards Holy Week let us be intent on how God has written His love on our hearts, so we may use it to find peace, direction, and happiness for ourselves.

Liturgy Guide - Fifth Sunday of Lent, March 21, 2021

Welcome to St. Nicholas! Thank you for joining us in the celebration of the Holy Mass. Please take your bulletin home with you at the end of Mass.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Fifth Sunday of Lent cf. Palm 43 (42):1-2

Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless. From the deceitful and cunning rescue me, for you, O God, are my strength.

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

COLLECT - OPENING PRAYER

By your help, we beseech you, Lord our God, may we walk eagerly in that same charity with which, out of love for the world, your Son handed himself over to death. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen

FIRST READING Jeremiah 31:31-34 (35B)

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt; for they broke my covenant, and I had to show myself their master, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD. I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the LORD. All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD, for I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13, 14-15

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

- ◆ Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; in the greatness of your compassion wipe out my offense. Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me. R.
- ◆ A clean heart create for me, O God, and a steadfast spirit renew within me. Cast me not out from your presence, and your Holy Spirit take not from me. R.
- ◆ Give me back the joy of your salvation, and a willing spirit sustain in me. I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners shall return to you. R.

SECOND READING Hebrews 5:7-9

In the days when Christ Jesus was in the flesh, he offered prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered; and when he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION John 12:26 Please Stand

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

- ◆ Whoever serves me must follow me, says the Lord; and where I am, there also will my servant be.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

GOSPEL

The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (12:20-33)

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me.

"I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it and will glorify it again." The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself." He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER (Prayer of the Faithful)

Please Stand

◆ Let us pray to the Lord.

R. Lord, hear our prayer. (after each petition)

THE COMMUNION RITE

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.	Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON - Fifth Sunday of Lent

John 12:24

Amen, Amen I say to you: Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains a single grain. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION - Fifth Sunday of Lent

We pray, almighty God, that we may always be counted among the members of Christ, in whose Body and Blood we have communion. Who lives and reigns for ever and ever. R. Amen

and Healing" - A Candlelight Celebration
Saturday, April 10th - 8:00 PM

Please join us for our upcoming Gift of Hope fundraising event, benefiting Catholic Family Services, on Duluth Avenue in front of the Cathedral of St. Joseph. This will be an outdoor candlelight vigil, "Lighting the Path to Hope and Healing", bringing people of our diocese together to hear inspirational messages from Bishop Donald DeGrood and CFS Exec Director Emily Leedom, along with praise and worship music. A moment of remembrance will take place to honor long-time CFS Director, Dr Marcie Moran, who passed away January 21. During these difficult times in our world, we all have special intentions we would like to pray over. Let us come together as individuals, families and faith groups to support one another. Gift of Hope candles and luminaries will be pre-sold and ceremonially lit during this event. Proceeds from these sales benefit the Gift of Hope Endowment Fund. Your participation supports: Camp Sydney (a youth grief camp), support groups for separated & divorced, grief support groups, counseling for high school students and teachers, pornography education & prevention, healing retreats, natural family planning and much more! We will be pre-selling the candles and luminaries. If you are unable to attend the event in person, we will light and display them on your behalf. Lenten Regulations

Fast & Abstinence Rules: ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY are days of FAST and ABSTINENCE which means no meat and only one FULL meal—no eating between meals. Liquids are allowed. This pertains to those from age 18-59.

All Fridays of Lent are days of ABSTINENCE (no meat) for ages 14 onward. There is no obligation to fast the other days of Lent, but voluntary acts of penance and self-denial are recommended. Remember, the 40 days of Lent for fasting and giving up do not include Sundays which are days of rest, leisure, and joy in the Lord. The Christian faithful are to do penance through prayer, fasting, abstinence and by exercising works of piety and charity. The obligation does not apply to those whose health or ability to work would be seriously affected. People in doubt about fast or abstinence should consult their pastor.

Easter Duty Obligation: Catholics are bound by the obligation of receiving Holy Communion at least once a year. This precept should be fulfilled during the Easter Season (Ash Wednesday—Pentecost). Catholics are also bound to confess serious sin at least once a year, but this is not limited to the Lenten/Easter season and more frequent confession is necessary in case of mortal sin.
