Odds are you've got a Christmas list going by now — gift ideas for everyone from your nephew to your goddaughter to your mailman. But what about the birthday boy? What's the gift Jesus gets from you this Christmas?

If you've ever read the Book of Leviticus, you know all about the sacrifices God asks of the Israelites, referred to in the reading from Hebrews today. Leviticus can be a chore to read — a little repetitive, a little intimidating. There's a lot of very specific actions that God asks His Chosen People to complete to make up for whatever they have done wrong. In essence, it's a bit of a wish list for gifts.

But it's a wish list that can really confuse you. What's God going to do with a cereal offering? The kidneys of an animal? If you look closely, what God is doing here is beautiful. He's customized his wish list to only those things He knows the Israelites can give. It's God saying, in what amounts to theological baby-talk for folks who barely know of Him and His ways, exactly how they could be stewards. "Do this, but don't do that. If you do that, do this and you will find My mercy."

Our guide to stewardship — the Gospels of Christ — is less precise because by the time of Christ, God's people have grown in understanding of love and mercy and relationship with the divine. Through Christ, we find out that God's real wish list didn't really consist of cereal offerings and the kidneys of various animals. It's far simpler, but luckily, it's something we still have on-hand. All He wants is our whole heart.

FROM THE PASTOR

Wow, it's hard to believe that the holy and prayerful season of preparation is drawing to an end as we anticipate the birth of Jesus. Are all your plans in place and who will you visit or who will you host for the Christmas celebration? Family gatherings and being together with friends or neighbors are magnificent opportunities to celebrate life and the gift of God's love and to encourage one another with hope, faith, joy and grace. On the Fourth Sunday of Advent, the gospel of Luke presents the second joyful mystery of the rosary, the Visitation of Mary to Elizabeth. Listening to the account, Mary, upon her arrival, hears her cousin's praises for trusting in God's word and plan to bring Jesus into the world, for she said: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb....Blessed are you who believed that what was spoke to you by the Lord would be fulfilled." It's amazing to think that Elizabeth had insight of the gift of Jesus in the womb of Mary, and how John the Baptist leaped in her womb, indicating awareness of the Son of God. This marvelous exchange of greetings and visit between the two women continues to unfold further as we joyfully celebrate Christmas, the birth of Jesus Christ. The hospitality of Elizabeth might be a lesson to welcome others, even the unexpected visitor, the outsider and the poor. With intention, St. Benedict instructed his monks that guests ought to have a place at the monastic table because they take the place of Christ, so in serving those in need, we honor and serve Christ. As we receive cards, prepare and share lavish food at gatherings, and exchange presents at Christmas, we are challenged to think about the larger picture of faith: Is there room in your inn for Jesus, Mary and Joseph? The marvelous celebration of Christmas invites us to reflect more deeply on God's tremendous gifts of mercy, healing, consolation, comfort, love and peace, revealed by the innocent and humble child, Son of God, born for us. May this saving mystery of our redemption enable us to acknowledge our need for the Savior and Messiah, who will redeem all People. Fr. Henri Nouwen shared this reflection on the birth of Christ by writing, "God does not want us to be afraid, distant, or envious. God wants to come close, very close, so close that we can rest in the intimacy of God as children in their mother's arms. Therefore, God became a little baby. A tiny baby is completely dependent on its parents, nurses, and caregivers. Yes, indeed, God chose to become so powerless that the realization of God's own mission among us became completely dependent on us. That's the mystery of the Incarnation. God became human, in no way different from other human beings, to break through the walls of power in total weakness. That is the story of Jesus."

I pray that everyone will be blessed by the Christmas celebrations and that the love, joy and peace of the Christ child will renew our faith and gratitude for God's infinite goodness. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Last chance for Reconciliation/Confession: December 21st (Tues.) 5:30-6:30 p.m. at St. Michael.

“For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy.” Luke 1:44

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you “leap for joy?” If not, don’t blame the lector or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Or, do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.
