At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.

— Tracy Earl Welliver

FROM THE PASTOR

This year the joyful and festive celebration of Christmas is very close to other important feasts, which are connected to the mystery of the Incarnation: the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, the solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, and Epiphany. Recalling that God fulfilled his promise of sending a Messiah as the Son of God, we reflect on this marvelous gift of Jesus, an innocent babe born to Mary and Joseph. Along with the shepherds, angels and people of Bethlehem, we rejoice knowing God wanted to be so close to us and nurture grace, renew the gift of faith and hope, and strengthen the depths of God's love for all of humanity. The readings for the Feast of the Holy Family offer unique accounts that accent virtue, steadfastness and discernment, like that of Hannah, desiring a child and being blessed with a son, or considering the challenges of Joseph and Mary, looking for Jesus in Jerusalem during his early years. Possibly the Holy Family models for us the contours of faith that are not static but change, calling for a trusting relationship with God. How do I understand God working within my life or family situations? When we honor Mary, Mother of God, the Scriptures call us to identify the clever way God reveals himself and possibly probes us to recognize his will for us. During the past few days, have I been aware of God's grace, consolation, mercy, strength or love in my life? How has the newborn Christ child challenged me to ponder the vulnerability or treasure of life, human and divine? The Epiphany of the Lord is a continuation of celebrating and discovering the salvific message Jesus revealed to the world, including both Jew and Gentile. Some cultures traditionally give and share gifts, imitating the Magi, who found Jesus and presented gifts fit for a newborn King, unknown to some yet powerful and influential. Where do you believe God wants to meet you and amaze you with his presence? What will you offer Christ in return—gratitude, homage, hunger or thirst, praise, hopes or a spirit of cooperation? Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Thanks for your generous support to the parishes at Christmas! I also extend my gratitude for the many efforts of our volunteers, (liturgical ministers, servers, ushers, singers, choirs, musicians and those who decorated our churches) from both parishes, who helped prepare and celebrate birth of our Lord Jesus. I am appreciative and thankful for your prayers, cards, gifts and ways of kindness. May God Bless you!

Please notice this bulletin combines two weekends, December 26, 2021 and January 2, 2022, since Christmas and New Year's Day fall on a weekend. Thanks for your understanding and know that all collections will be posted at a later date!

Fr. Mark

“See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.” 1 John 3:1

During this season of giving, let us remember a beautiful gift that we have received - being children of God! As God's children, it's in our DNA that we share and express our love for others as well. Tell your spouse, children, other family members and friends that you love them, every day! Also, pray for those people that are different than you, those that you may not like or those that go out of their way to annoy you. Your prayers may be the start of a new friendship.

Committee members will be selling Gragert's and Thriftyway grocery certificates the second weekend of each month after Mass. Certificates are also available at St. Michael's School office and at the Boone County Bank. St. Michael's receives 5% back from all grocery certificates purchased.

Programs at St. Benedict Center, Schuyler

"This is My Beloved Son, Listen to Him!" - January 21-23
A men's retreat open to all ages. We are surrounded by so many voices telling us that our happiness consists in wealth, in pleasure, in power, and in worldly honor. Jesus, however, calls upon us to rid ourselves of those attachments, to anchor ourselves in God's steadfast love, and to will the good of the other person. This retreat will help us listen to Christ throughout the year.

Friday, 7:30 p.m. to Sunday after lunch.

Windows Into Heaven: Encountering Jesus in Icons -
January 28-30

It has been said what the written word of Scripture is to the ears, icons are to the eyes.

Friday, 7:30 p.m. to Sunday after lunch.

Set Your House in Order: A Program to Organize Finances & Plan Estate - February 5

A workshop with James Fehringer. If you have possessions, you have an estate. Their orderly care during your lifetime represents financial management. Their disposition after your lifetime is called estate settlement. Deciding in advance how this will be done is known as estate planning.

Capitalize on this opportunity to learn how to plan your estate. Program fee is $35. Lunch is available for $12.08.

Valentine's Day Dinner - February 6

Mass at 5 p.m. followed by a 4-course dinner at 6 p.m.

Cost is $70 if registered before January 24

To register for an event, please call the St. Benedict Center, 402-352-8819, or go to their web site, www.StBenedictCenter.com.

See all of their retreats on their web site!
