Everyday Stewardship

I have coached all three of my children in soccer at some time in their lives. I loved teaching them and their teammates the importance of functioning as one unit. If we were not all moving together toward victory, we would all find ourselves together in defeat.

As disciples and stewards, we sometimes find ourselves far behind or maybe even too far ahead. As a consequence, our actions either hinder the ability of the Body of Christ to evangelize and pass on the faith to a new generation or present the Church as an entity that sees itself as judgmental or too holy to be in the world. We are called to community, and in that community, we must be aware of our brothers and sisters in the faith. At times, we need to help them grow in their faith. Other times, we need to slow down and realize that we cannot change the world on our own. We all have unique gifts we are called to share, and we can only bear true witness to the power of the Body of Christ when we are all moving together and making each other strong.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

FROM THE PASTOR

Following a few special feasts, we officially enter Ordinary Time for the next several months. On this Tenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Scriptures highlight the presence of evil, and we know it is a part of our world today. We listen to the news and we recognize horrible events and harm done by the impact of evil. Hearing from the book of Genesis, we are reminded that there will be a constant struggle for humanity between good and evil. Original sin and its consequences, the serpent (Satan), already the enemy of God, now becomes the adversary of humankind, because of the disobedience of Adam and Eve. The aftermath includes the game of blame and fear, and we inherit some of the same spiritual ailments, especially with temptations and capabilities to sin. Our gospel passage from Mark shares some of Jesus' struggles with evil and accusations that he is possessed by a demon, and that is where his power resides. However, Jesus responds with simple reasoning to help everyone understand that his power comes from God, which can overcome evil and Satan. In addition, Jesus convinces them that he is not possessed by Beelzebul, and his intention is to equip others with strength and resolve to conquer evil and sin, unless they blaspheme against the Holy Spirit, which can never be forgiven. In reflecting on the journey of faith, where do you think the presence of evil might be hidden in your life? When praying, do you attempt to seek out God's will in moments of strife, stress and loss? Lastly, have you embraced times of suffering as opportunities to unite yourself with the redemptive power of Jesus Christ, wherein your faith is tested and becomes stronger? May we never forget that we need the Lord to be courageous and victorious in confronting the battle against evil and sin as we recall these words of the psalm response: "With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption."

Our Parishes will not have elections this year, and I am grateful to all who serve and have served our parishes. For the parish of St. Michael, in accordance with Canon Law, I duly appoint these people to the various councils or committees: PASTORAL COUNCIL: Owen Neesen, Maureen Oman and Andy Roberts; FINANCE COUNCIL: Todd Kramer and Jayne Schack; LITURGY COMMITTEE: Sharon Alder and Katie Score; PARISH LIFE COMMITTEE: Justin and Betsy Niewohner & Ryan and Courtney Stagemeyer; SCHOOL BOARD: Amber Becker, Chelsea Gaunt and Tony Kurtenbach; and for ALTAR SOCIETY: Ashley Neesen will be the new treasurer. Thanks again to Jack Dailey, Karen Niewohner, Tim O'Brien, (Pastoral Council); Andy Roberts, Rachelle Spence, Marge Devine, (Finance); Kristi Weidner, Amy O'Brien, (Liturgy); Marcus & Kate Johnson and Brent & Tracy Lipker (Family Life); Mary Osantowski, Ron Harris and Jonathon Temme (School Board); Ruth Landauer (Altar Society) who completed terms of service. May God Bless you for your generous and caring ways of service!

My last weekend is here as I prepare to move to St. Pius X Parish in Omaha on Tuesday, June 11th! I have great confidence that you will welcome Fr. Matthew Gutowski, who is the new pastor for the northern rural parishes of Family J. Please know of my gratitude and prayers during this transition, as I humbly ask for yours. There is an extra yellow sheet with some thoughts on grief and transition that you can take for reflection and prayer as well. May God Bless you!

Fr. Mark
