SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD | SUNDAY, JANUARY 22, 2023

In 2019 Pope Francis issued an apostolic letter instituting the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time as the "Sunday of the Word of God." This celebration promotes the study and dissemination of sacred scripture.

ACT:

- Pray the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Life (bit.ly/mother-of-life).
  - Create a list of ways you can personally increase your support of mothers in need. Take your list to prayer, asking the Lord for guidance on what he is asking of you and the grace to faithfully respond.
  - Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

January 22

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are 1 month from the winter solstice, the shortest day of the year. Many people suffer from seasonal disorders. The darkness adds to our loneliness and depression. Perhaps that is why these readings were chosen for this weekend. We begin to see the daylight beginning to increase, noticeably. We walk in darkness, but we begin to see the great light. Zebulun and Naphtali are northern portions of Israel. They were controlled by the Assyrians at the time of Isaiah's prophecy. Even under their oppression, the prophecy is that a new king will come who will bring the people together. He will be merciful and just. He will set the people free. We might add free from our sins. To this land, overshadowed by death and darkness, comes Jesus. His proclamation is repent and believe in the Gospel. His ministry begins with the selection of the twelve apostles. We, too, have been called. As Paul says, not to preach in eloquence, but simply the witness and testimony of our lives where Christ is working through us to bring the gospel message. Messages of truth and honesty are most clearly heard. They are also attractive and bring others to Christ. One saying, from long ago, "You might be the only Bible others may ever see." Very true, is it not? We should always realize that people are watching what we do every day. Please don't think of this in a negative or threatening way. They watch because they see in you what they may one day want to be or to have. There is a certain amount of pressure. Our actions could chase them away. Pray to the Lord that you be granted the grace to bring others to Christ. Amen

Creating Joyful Servants:
Our Response to God's Grace!
17th Annual Music Ministry Retreat and Workshop

Friday, February 3 - Saturday, February 4
St. Joseph Church, Amery
Presenters: Bonnie Faber and Kate Cudy

As we emerge from the effects of a global pandemic, as we live in a world community fraught with conflict and wars, as we relearn how to connect with each other, how can we minister joyfully?

We are reminded of the words of the Psalmist, to "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord" (Psalm 100) and of Leonard Bernstein, "This will be our reply to violence: to make music more intensely, more beautifully, more devotedly than ever before."

Please join us as we hit the reset button as musicians and servants of the Lord in a workshop full of ideas, tips and working principals to help you respond more fully to God's grace. More information and a manual registration form may be found at: <https://catholicdos.org/pastoral-musicians>

The St. Joseph CCW has a box in the back of St. Joseph Church until January 29 for nominations for the Diocesan Pax Christi Award.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel, we find that Jesus "... went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people."

Through your gifts in December, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to proclaim the good news of the kingdom to the poor, by serving 961 hot meals, providing 29,888 pounds of food from the pantry, $1,684 of goods through vouchers at the store, and $822 in financial assistance for utility and car repairs. Thank you for your generosity!
