PASTOR'S DESK

---

Fourth Sunday of Easter – April 30

Cut to the heart! Reminds me of another old rock song. "Cut to the heart, and you're to blame. You give love a bad name." I think everyone remembers a time when they were cut to the heart. For the Jewish people in the first century, they are amid a prophecy being fulfilled. With Moses, the covenant was established through circumcision; but Moses foresees the day when their hearts will be circumcised, cut to the heart; and then sprinkled with water, baptism. God, Himself, has become the Shepherd. Reread the 23rd Psalm. Listen to the references for future sacraments. Besides running waters, a table laid before you and our head anointed with oil, God has given you a choice: to choose life or death. Thomas says we don't know the way; but we do. We listen to the Shepherd's voice. He guides us through the valley of death to eternal life. Jesus, I trust in you. Change my heart of stone to a heart of flesh to know and love you. I follow you and obey your commands because I love you and desire to be with you. I am not forced. I am not threatened. I am loved. - Father Ed Anderson

...Collection. Your support of this appeal helps to meet the faith formation and sacramental needs for territories in the US that are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Learn more: usccb.org/committees/catholic-home-missions. Thank you for your generosity!
