“Happy Mother’s Day!”

From the desk of Fr. Tom:

Dear Parishioners,
 I just want to share with you all the email from Archbishop Jackels that he sent to all priests of the Archdiocese of Dubuque that I referred to in my homily last weekend:
 “In recognition of how the spiritual and emotional needs of the Catholic faithful are met in great part by the parish community gathering for Sunday Mass in church...
 And in view of the ever-increasing number of parishioners who are vaccinated, and who have a holy desire to worship at Sunday Mass with others in church...
 But aware that social distancing in church greatly reduces the number of parishioners that can be accommodated...
 Therefore, starting on 5-6 June 2021, the proverbial buck will stop with the Pastor about which COVID safety measures to practice, and in keeping with local ordinances.
 The pandemic isn’t over. The Pastor should proceed cautiously when relaxing the recommendations of the CDC and local public health officials, who still advise...Social distancing, wearing a mask (especially if distancing is difficult), avoiding crowds and the hand-to-hand contact of sharing or passing things, like hymnals and the Cup.
 The Pastor should publish which safety measures will be practiced before the June date, so that parishioners can make their decision about whether or not to attend.
 Also on 5-6 June 2021, the dispensation will expire that excused Catholics in the Archdiocese of Dubuque from participating at Sunday Mass in church.
 As the pandemic isn’t over, even without a dispensation, Catholics can still legitimately excuse themselves from Sunday Mass if they’re afraid of getting COVID, or if...they’re frail from age or illness, or caring for someone sick, homebound, or an infant, or weather makes driving hazardous, or work and Mass schedules conflict.
 In short, there is no sin in missing the Sunday obligation if you would go if you could go, but you can’t for reasons outside your control.
 A lot of people use the term Sunday obligation to refer to Mass and avoiding work, but maybe it’d be better to call it the Sunday opportunity to...
 Gather together, hear the word proclaimed and explained, receive the Bread of Life, re-create ourselves by relaxing, and grow in holiness by helping the poor.”
 -Archbishop Jackels

*The above Mass schedule is subject to change.
 Check the website, Facebook or signs on the church doors.*

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 9th, 2021 6th Sunday of Easter

“Remain in my love,” and, “I call you friends,” are powerful words that are found in John’s Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our “failures in love.” In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love’s author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God’s love and friendship that propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to world’s problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

Choosing to Love One Another

“Love one another.” The greatest commandment, the simplest commandment — and if you’ve ever loved anyone, you know it’s also the hardest.

I’m man enough to admit it. I’ve seen one or two of those cheesy Hallmark movies that are especially popular around the holidays. Boy meets Girl. Boy and Girl encounter a catastrophic roadblock to their relationship — they’re coaches of rival high school volleyball teams, or he runs a dog kennel and she works at a feline rescue, so it could never, ever work out, right? But sprinkle a little movie magic over the whole situation and Boy and Girl find what Hallmark tells us is true love.

I could make a list of all the things that are inaccurate about these movies, and something I would put right near the top — maybe even above the sometimes-unbelievable storylines — is the idea that love is a feeling.

See, I’m not sure if it’s accurate to call these movies love stories. Attraction stories, sure. But if you’ve ever forgiven someone who’s hurt you, nursed a dying parent, gotten up for an infant’s night feeding or let your kid have the last piece of cake, you know that real love is a verb. It’s something you do. And it is almost always a choice.

“Love one another.” How often do we hear this? How often do we think about what it really means? How often do we take a moment to consider the action Jesus is asking us to take and the choice he is asking us to make? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Jesus’ commandment is that His disciples love one another, even to the point of laying down their lives, if necessary.
 What gifts of myself - my skills and talents, my time and resources - will best demonstrate my love for God’s people?

Prayer to the Mother of the Lord for All

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. Dear Mother, thank you for your “Yes” to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God’s word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Dear Mother, intercede for all women. Ask you Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with you in giving their own “Fiat.”

May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son.

Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who turn to you....Amen.

On Wednesday evening, April 28th, we celebrated our closing Mass for our year of Faith Formation with our students in 1st -10th grades. Our theme this year was "Faith over Fear." With the blessing of dedicated catechists, we were able to provide both in-person and virtual learning opportunities for our families.

Thank you to all who participated, and those who helped make this a year of growth for our students. Special thanks to the following volunteers and catechists that helped pass on our great faith – when you see them, tell them, "Well done, good and faithful servant, well done!"

Theresa Deetz, Sandy Hebel, Connie Burney, Laura Huffman, Colette Koebrick, Myron Daniel, Roxanne Meyers, Mary Ellen Daniel, Kris Ward, Carrie Jones, Kendra Harris, Shira Gebel, David Wandro, Esther Pistek, Stephanie Field, Carrie Field, and Lilly Usher.

As you can see, it takes many voices and hands to pass on the faith; you do not need to be a theologian to share a love of God and His people. God does not call the qualified, he qualifies the called. If you may be called to share your faith and are interested in becoming a catechist, helper or aid for Faith Formation classes next year, please contact Wendy Wandro, at 641-228-1071.
