Prayer for Peace in 2021

Taken from Pope Francis's

"A Culture of Care as a Path to Peace"

As we embark together toward what we hope is a more serene and calm horizon, let us reflect together on the words of Pope Francis:

O God of the expanse, whose love stretches beyond even the farthest distance we can imagine: Amid a season of darkness, we can catch now - out of the corner of our eye the light of your hope on the horizon.

Grant us, we pray, the courage and humility to serve as mirrors of that light: diverting and reflecting it into the darkest corners of our humanity. May our light shine a path of compassion for our brothers and sisters in need, that we might serve them concretely and practically.

O God, may the light of hope on the horizon lead us to your peace, and may we never yield to the temptation of the darkness of disregard.

Through Christ, our Lord, we pray: Amen.

REMINDER: Tuesday, September 21st

Pray in silence at Noon for PEACE!

Then gather at 12:05 p.m. in the church for a Peace Prayer Service.

Our Deepest Sympathy and Prayers

are extended to the friends and family of Karol Hanson,

brother of Donna Lyman,

who passed away recently.

God, grant him eternal peace.

GOSPEL MEDITATION -
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
September 19th, 2021 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is something about being first. Whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish a job, great satisfaction is achieved. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what really matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All of the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. You want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the noise of the world, we are going to continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony and peace. When are we going to learn that always striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we really desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. When we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree, life is good. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home, and to live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP -
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
The View from the Back of the Line

Have you known that person? The one who leaves every person they encounter feeling a little more blessed for having met them? They're the friend you can count on when nothing is going well. They're the one who's always "doing" for others. They're never gossiping or sniping or complaining.

We wonder how they do it, how they have it in them. We're a little envious, even if we don't let ourselves acknowledge it.

That, folks, is what the view is like from the front of the line, gazing at those suckers in the way back and wondering why they're smiling so much.

We've all been at the front of a line and felt no shame about it.

We show up early, we put in the time and the legwork, and we "earn" whatever it is we came for — sports tickets, the latest Apple product, whatever. That's how it works here on Earth, where the fastest win the race, the fittest survive and the first shall be first, always.

It's exactly why stewardship is such a tall order. Stewardship calls us to play by the rules of another kingdom — one where the richest have the least amount in their bank accounts and the happiest don't seem to have anything to show for it, at least materially. If you have a person in your life who always seems happy "doing" for others, it's because by a boatload of God's grace, they play by the rules of the other place.

Watch and take note — and don't be afraid to join them at the back of the line — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Today's second reading warns that a heart consumed with avarice and envy leads to jealousy, strife, conflicts and disputes. A giving heart, in contrast, can sing instead with the psalmist, "Freely will I offer you sacrifice; I will praise your name, O Lord, for its goodness."

125th
Anniversary

IC School started its celebration week of the 125th Anniversary with a ribbon cutting ceremony. Mayor Andrews, the CC Ambassadors, IC Alumni and IC Staff were in attendance. After joining together in prayer, the Mayor read the proclamation, the alumni cut the ribbon and the Pledge of Allegiance concluded the event. Watch for more pictures next week of this wonderful milestone!

2021 International Day of Peace

Inspired to serve through our vocation, we pray that our families, neighborhoods, cities and world will come to know peace, freedom and unity.

God of Peace, you invite us to dialogue for peace. We hear you greet the stranger, the Samaritan, the enemy, the leper, with, "Peace be with you." May we send greetings of hospitality to our neighbors, rather than messages of division or judgement.

Through reflection on moments in Christ's life, teach us your way for peace:

- You called the disciples to see the eyes of a child as a doorway to peace in their anxieties about time and efficiency.
- You halted judgment and brought compassion for the woman committing adultery, and freed her guilt.
- You calmed the storm in the sea and quelled the fear of those tossed on the waves.
- You created peace at a table of your friends by washing their feet.

God of Peace, you rescue and restore all humanity. You gift us with your peace, which surpasses all. Help us build up structures of safety within our nations, health systems, neighborhoods and families, that we may be fully alive with the peace of Christ and see your ways as our ways.

For this we pray. Amen.

International Day of Peace
Tuesday, September 21st:

Join a global commitment of individuals, organizations and nations around the world to observe a MINUTE of SILENCE-MOMENT of PEACE at Noon local time on Tuesday, September 21st.

Listen for the church bells at 11:59 am and be silent for a minute at noon as part of the 24 hour "Peace Wave" around the world. All are welcome to gather with the IC Staff & students in church for a short peace service following the noon minute of silence.

"As everyone knows, who takes a moment of silence from time to time, it is what remains that really counts as the moment progresses. And what really counts is life and love and our responsibility to each other. We are connected to all life throughout time and space, shaped by generations past, connected today around the globe, shaping our generations to come. A shared moment of silence to honor this connectedness is a simple and elegant statement of connection to life."

- Astronaut Rusty Schweikart

In preparation for International Day of Peace...

*I pledge to: Use my words to speak in a kind way.
Help others as I go throughout my day.
Care for our earth with my healing heart and hands.
Respect people in each and every land.
Join together as we unite the big and small.
Do my part to create PEACE for one and all.*

Share with Christians Worldwide in:
CARE for CREATION:
Sept. 1st - Oct. 4th, 2021

This year's theme, "Recovering better for an equitable and sustainable world," invites nations to celebrate peace by standing up against hate online and offline, and by spreading compassion, kindness and hope in the face of the pandemic.

Pope Francis Invites Participation

Pope Francis has called on Catholics to take action for our common home during the Season of Creation from Sept. 1st to Oct. 4th, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. He encourages everyone to question the way we live, and to turn "towards lifestyles that are simpler and more respectful of the environment."

The Holy Father has also stressed that the "cry of the earth and the cry of the poor are becoming increasingly serious and alarming," urging Catholics to take "decisive, urgent action to transform this crisis into an opportunity."

The 2021 Season of Creation comes just a few weeks before the UN Climate Change Conference (COP26), scheduled to take place from Nov. 1st - 12th in Glasgow, Scotland. It also comes on the heels of a UN climate report which makes it clear that we are running out of time to avert the worst effects of the ecological crisis and the climate emergency.

Participating in the Season of Creation: A statement from the Laudato Si' Movement invites participation in the "annual celebration of prayer and action for our common home," pointing out that Christians make up more than 25 percent of the world's population.

Healthy Planet, Healthy People Petition: In addition to individual and communal efforts during the Season of Creation, Christians are asked to advocate for the least among us by signing the "Healthy Planet, Healthy People" petition ahead of the COP26 meeting, to tell "world leaders how they should care for God's creation."

Catholics are invited to promote the petition, noting that "this Season of Creation will also be a critical moment for Catholics to lift up the voices of the most vulnerable and advocate on their behalf."
