The Thirty Second Sunday In Ordinary Time November 8, 2020

Good People of Good Counsel,

Among my earliest memories are going with my mom to a flower shop where we filled up the trunk of our car with different arrangements and then went to visit cemeteries where we placed the flowers on the graves of all our loved ones and would say a prayer for the repose of their souls.

During the month of November, the Church has two traditional means of obtaining a plenary indulgence for the souls in Purgatory. The first is to visit a cemetery and pray for the dead during the Octave of All Saints' Day (November 1-8). This year, the Vatican decreed that this plenary indulgence can be obtained on any day in November.

The second plenary indulgence can be received by those who piously visit a church and recite the Our Father and the Creed. This is normally only available on All Souls Day, but the Vatican said that this plenary indulgence has also been extended throughout the month of November.

A Catholic who wishes to obtain a plenary indulgence must also fulfill the ordinary conditions of an indulgence, which are sacramental confession, reception of the Eucharist, and prayer for the intentions of the pope.

I invite you and your families to consider visiting a cemetery during this month of November as we continue to pray for all our beloved dead. In your kindness, please also pray for the priests of our Diocese that passed away this year. Two of the three have a special connection to Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Fr. Alexander Sinclair

They were all very good priests, and I am sure they each appreciate any prayers that you would offer for them.

Please also continue to pray for our country. At the time of my writing this, the results of the Presidential election are still up in the air. Whatever the outcome, we will look to persevere in our duty as faithful Catholics with our hearts and minds set on building up the Kingdom of Heaven.

In Christ and Mary,

Fr. Johnson
