Second Sunday of Lent February 28, 2021

Good People of Good Counsel,

This past week marked a very special anniversary. It has been exactly 90 years since Jesus revealed the Divine Mercy Image to St. Faustina.

In her Diary on February 22, 1931, St. Faustina recorded how Christ appeared to her at her convent in Plock, Poland:

In the evening, when I was in my cell, I saw the Lord Jesus clothed in a white garment. One hand was raised in the gesture of blessing, the other was touching the garment at the chest. From beneath the garment, slightly drawn aside at the chest, there were emanating two large rays, one red and the other pale. ... After a while Jesus said to me, "Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You."

Jesus promised many graces for those who venerate the Divine Mercy Image. He said:

I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory.

It is a great privilege to celebrate Mass and to hear countless confessions every day here at the Shrine of Divine Mercy and St. Faustina. As we continue to journey through the temptations and spiritual warfare of Holy Lent, let us be reminded of the many graces present through our veneration of the Image of Divine Mercy which was revealed to St. Faustina 90 years ago.

Marking the anniversary, Pope Francis said: "Let us ask Christ for the gift of mercy. Let it engulf us and penetrate us. Let us have the courage to come back to Jesus to meet His love and mercy in the sacraments."

I pray that many more souls will return to Jesus in the coming weeks; that our confidence in God's love and mercy continues to grow as we prepare ourselves for Holy Week.

In Christ and Mary,
Fr. Johnson
