Dear friends,

We have lots and lots of things happening in the weeks ahead here at the parish. But first of all, Happy Mother's Day to all of our mothers in the parish! We wish you a wonderful and blessed day! Now, on to some very exciting and important things happening in the parish in the next few weeks:

We'll be having a special sung Latin Mass this Thursday, May 13th @ 6:00pm for the solemnity of the Ascension. As many of you know, most dioceses choose to transfer the Ascension from its traditional date, exactly 40 days after Easter (which is always a Thursday), to the following Sunday. In the Extraordinary Form (Latin Mass) calendar, however, it remains on "Ascension Thursday".

Next weekend we'll have the most important second collection of the year, called the "Tomorrow's Priests" Collection, which is taken up diocesan-wide to support the expenses of educating our diocesan seminarians. As Fr. Johnson has mentioned before, the cost of educating our seminarians is, far and away, the most significant expense the diocese incurs every year in its budget.

As many of you know, we have four men from our parish currently studying for the priesthood: Sam Horan, Paul Harrison, Liam Connelly, and Carlos Camacho. This Fall, Braeden Connelly will be joining those four to begin his first year of seminary. This means our parish has close to 25% of the seminarians in the diocese, which is a real blessing! Along with that blessing comes both an increased obligation to pray for them daily – please include them in your daily intentions! – and a need to be as generous as possible in this second collection to help support the cost of their education and formation. Please consider what you might contribute to next weekend's second collection.

Finally, I want to mention the great joy we'll have at the 11am Mass on Pentecost (May 23) to welcome seven men and women into full Communion with the Catholic Church. These seven have been preparing and discerning within our RCIA process for varying lengths of time. Please include them in your prayers in their final two weeks of preparation for entering the Church.

Also, please join us for a parish barbecue after the 11am Mass on Pentecost in celebration of these seven newest members of the Church! Even if you attend the 8am or 9:30am Mass that day, feel free to come back around noon to celebrate with them.

Peace!

Fr. Mattingly
