Good People of Good Counsel,

Growing up, the Boy Scouts of America was a significant part of my childhood. Both Fr. Mattingly and I are Eagle Scouts. Our Lady of Good Counsel has a history with the Boy Scouts. For several years our parish had a very active troop that produced a significant number of Eagle Scouts.

I was recently approached by some of our parish families who want to explore the possibility of Good Counsel starting a group with the Troops of St. George. The Troops of Saint George is a Catholic outdoors movement for fathers and sons that was founded in 2013.

If you are interested in learning more about the Troops of Saint George, please contact Witek Grzymala-Busse. He can be reached at witekgb@gmail.com or (785) 550-6163. The Troops of St. George is open to boys in kindergarten through 12th grade.

Hopefully by now you have had a chance to meet Mark Famuliner, the seminarian who will be staying with us this summer. Similar to what we have done in previous years, I have asked him to provide some sort of teaching or catechetical opportunity for the parish. Over the next few weeks, here are some sessions that Mark will be offering:

- Wednesday, June 9th: Discipleship on Death Row – my experience of prison ministry
- Wednesday, June 16th: A Catholic Understanding of Addiction and Recovery (part 1)
- Wednesday, June 23rd: A Catholic Understanding of Addiction and Recovery (part 2)

Each of these sessions will take place in the parish hall starting at 6:30pm. They are open to anyone and everyone who would be interested in coming. Be sure to mark your calendars now for these wonderful opportunities.

Next week, Fr. Mattingly and I will be at Conception Abbey for a diocesan priest retreat with Bishop Johnston. Please offer some prayers for the priests of our Diocese, including our three newest priests: Fr. Armentrout, Fr. King and Fr. Angel Lemus who were ordained to the priesthood on Saturday. We should be very grateful for the gift of these amazing young men.

Please also take a moment on Memorial Day to offer some prayers for all of our beloved dead who lost their life while serving our country.

In Christ and Mary,
Fr. Johnson
