Good People of Good Counsel,

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi. Our Lord is truly present: body, blood, soul and divinity in the Blessed Sacrament. Following a Eucharistic miracle in Italy, and upon the recommendation of St. Thomas Aquinas, Pope Urban IV created this Feast of Corpus Christi in 1264. In celebration, we will have a special Procession in the church following the 11am Mass.

On Sunday, May 23rd, amid the excitement of Pentecost and parish BBQ, there was a delay in moving the collection from the baskets in the back of the church to the safe. We have had one parishioner reach out saying their check from that weekend was never counted/cashed. Please reach out to the parish office if you also had a check not cashed on that Sunday. Moving forward we have gone back to our regular system of the ushers taking up the collection and then immediately putting the collection in the safe.

This coming Wednesday, June 9th, Mark Famuliner will give his first in a series of presentations to the parish. This week's talk is entitled "Discipleship on Death Row" and Mark will share with us his experience of doing prison ministry in southern Alabama. It will be a fascinating look into one of the works of mercy that many of us have never encountered. Everyone is welcome. It will take place in the parish hall starting at 6:30pm.

Friday, June 11th is the Feast of the Sacred Heart. Fr. Mattingly will be celebrating an Extraordinary Form Mass at 5:30pm. Shortly after mass, Opus Dei will be hosting a recollection for any men who would like to attend. The women's recollection will be on Saturday, June 12th, after our 9am mass. Recollections consist of short meditations as well as an opportunity for confession. These recollections happen once a month, are open to anyone, and they are a great chance to spend time in prayer, reflecting on how we are living out our life of Christian discipleship.

Next Sunday, June 13th, we will have a special blessing for all our graduates at the 11am Mass. We will also be printing the names of our graduates in the bulletin. If you would like your graduate to be recognized, please email hope@olgckc.org by Tuesday, June 8th.

In Christ and Mary,
Fr. Johnson
