Good People of Good Counsel,

Each year the Diocese coordinates with various missionary groups to visit all the parishes and make an appeal to support their apostolic work. This weekend we welcome Fr. Murphy with us at Good Counsel. Fr. Murphy is a Vincentian priest, and he will be preaching about their mission work in Kenya. The Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians) was founded by St. Vincent de Paul in the 17th century, since then they have grown and now have a presence in over 80 countries.

Fr. Murphy is going to share with us about their work in Kenya where they educate and form priests, run a woodworking program, and train Kenyans with skills to support their families. Vincentian priests in Kenya run parishes and provide sacraments for over 30,000 people. There will be a second collection if you would like to donate to the Vincentians and their work.

This Sunday is also Father's Day. I am grateful for all the amazing father's we have here at Our Lady of Good Counsel. It is inspiring to witness all the different ways you strive to protect your home from evil and raise your children to know and love the Lord. In this year of St. Joseph, we pray in a special way for his intercession for all of our fathers.

This week also marks the one-year anniversary of the passing of Msgr. Blacet. Monsignor was our beloved pastor for the better part of three decades. He was a great spiritual father for so many. I miss seeing his smiling face around the rectory as he was always filled with a joy that was contagious. I am sure that Msgr. Blacet would appreciate any prayers that you are able to offer this week.

During this coming week, Fr. Mattingly and I will be attending an Amazing Parish Conference. Bishop Johnston worked with Archbishop Naumann to bring Amazing Parish to Kansas City. Amazing Parish is an organization started by Patrick Lencioni that helps pastors and parishes be more organizationally healthy and mission minded. I look forward to seeing what the conference will provide.

In Christ and Mary,
Fr. Johnson
