Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 18, 2021

Mass Parts can be found at #114;

Hymn Before Mass: #622; Communion Hymn: #580; Marian Hymn: #547

Good People of Good Counsel,

In our Gospel for this Sunday, we hear our Lord speak to his apostles: "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." What providential timing, as next week I am taking some vacation time.

Each year during the month of July, I gather with a group of priests who I went to seminary with. We are spread out in Dioceses across the country from Mobile, to Chicago, to Scranton. The six of us find a remote place where we can rent a house and do some hiking or other activity. I look forward to coming back well rested and not quite as ghostly pale in complexion.

This Sunday after Masses the Chesterton Academy is providing the parish with coffee and doughnuts. If you have not already, please grab one of the fliers in the back of the church that lists some of the educational opportunities they are going to be providing this coming fall. I am particularly excited for the Lord of the Rings discussion group.

Our summer seminarian Mark Famuliner will be providing his final presentation this coming Thursday evening at 6:30pm in the parish hall. The topic will be on how to live our Sundays as a day of rest.

Choir rehearsal will begin again in August. Our choir could use some additional voices. If you are interested in finding out more, please contact Michael Mills: mills@olgckc.org

Many thanks to Fr. Mattingly for taking care of your priestly needs this week, and to Fr. Carlito for helping with daily masses in my absence.

In Christ and Mary,
Fr. Adam Johnson

As a reminder, we have acquired some additional parking! Please feel free to utilize the lot on the corner of 40th and Washington (behind the new building, next to the condos). We have created an opening in the fence to allow easy access between the lots.
