Attendance at Mass is limited to 50% normal capacity. Catholics continue to be dispensed from the religious obligation to attend Sunday Mass. You may also consider attending one of our daily Masses. Thank you.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." - Mk 1:7-8

Marriage Preparation

Please contact AFC Office at least six months ahead of time to plan and prepare for your wedding. If one party has been previously married, the wedding cannot move forward unless an annulment has been granted by the Catholic Church

Baptism Preparation

Please call Samantha Johnson at 320-304-3857.

Pastoral Care

If any parishioner or family member needs a pastoral care visit and Holy Communion, please call the parish office. Today's privacy laws do not permit hospitals to contact churches when a patient needs a pastoral visit. We are made aware of it only when the individual or their friends and family contact us. We are also not always aware of parishioners that are homebound and would desire a pastoral visit.

Catholic Charities

Offers personal, marriage, family and pregnancy counseling at 1-866-670-5163

In honor of Sanctity of Human Life Sunday, we are asking for donations during the month of January for the Hope Pregnancy Center in Willmar. Their Mission Statement: “Hope Pregnancy Center is a Christ-Centered organization that empowers women and men to make life-affirming and healthy decisions about sex, pregnancy and relationships. Our ministry is based on the principle that God is the Creator and Sustainer of life and that life begins at conception.” Hope Pregnancy Center can provide a listening ear, helpful resources & truthful information. Hope Pregnancy Center also offers post abortive care through their Surrendering the Secret course designed to bring healing to women who have abortion in their past. They also provide abortion recovery to men using Surrendering the Heart of a Father, a man’s guide to abortion recovery. Abortion recovery is not just for the women. If you or someone you know could use their services, please contact them at (320)235-7619 or www.findhopepc.com. Donations can be placed in the collection basket in a specially marked envelope, mailed to the area office or mailed directly to Hope Pregnancy Center at 1520 Mavis Lane SE, PO Box 334, Willmar, MN 56201. Thank you for your generosity.

Church of St. John ~ On behalf of Swift County Food Shelf, I would like to Thank You for your donation of $75.00. Swift County Food Shelf relies on the generosity of donors such as yourself and is grateful for your support. Thank You once again, Sincerely, Sue Fragodt, Swift County Outreach

SYMPATHY

We offer our sympathy and prayers to the family and friends of Marie Amundson who passed away on December 22, 2020. A private graveside service was planned for January 9, 2021.

We offer our sympathy and prayers to Dick & Pat Krebs and family on the death of Bill Gavin, Pat’s brother-in-law. Bill died Christmas Day in Crystal. His funeral will be at a later date.

We offer our sympathy and prayers to Dennis & Tessa Mahoney and family on the death of Nancy J. Gilbertson, Tessa’s sister. Nancy died December 21, 2020 in Williston, North Dakota.

May Marie, Bill and Nancy enjoy the fullness of life with God and may the Holy Spirit bring consolation and healing to all their loved ones.

Reflections for the weekly readings are part of this bulletin. This publication is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Council #2129.

COVID-19 Protocols

- Church Occupancy is not to exceed 50% with social distancing of at least six feet between people who do not live in the same household.
- Mass Obligation: The bishops of the state have removed the religious obligation to attend Mass on Sunday, so no one should feel the obligation to come if he or she does not feel safe. You may consider attending other Masses during the week to spread out the numbers.
- At Risk Individuals: Those over the age of 65 or with a compromised health condition are strongly encouraged not to attend Mass. However, you are still welcome if you choose to come.
- Showing Symptoms: Anyone showing any symptoms of sickness, or anyone who has a household member who is sick or showing symptoms of sickness should not attend; this includes priests or other ministers who are sick or showing signs of sickness.
- Holy Communion: Communion will be the consecrated host, in the hand, no sharing of the chalice. Please maintain 6 foot distance between other parishioners while in procession. The priest will wear a mask and sanitize his hands before distributing communion.
- Protective Wear: Parishioners will need to wear a mask while attending Mass. Cloth face masks are available in the churches.
- Greeting: People will be instructed not to greet each other with touching.
- The same protocols for attending Mass should be used when visiting any of our offices.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS—When God Whispers

“You don’t need to shout. My hearing works just fine.”

Are you a parent that has used that one on your kids? I’m not sure at what age they realize that the volume of their voice doesn’t correlate to the likelihood of receiving a favorable reply — it might be sometime in the teenage years, when the talking slows down altogether.

But I’ve got to admit, it would be nice if God always gave us a loud and dramatic sign when He wanted something — the booming voice and the torn-open heavens (“This is my beloved Son!”) really get the message across. Sometimes I find myself envious of the Apostles, who were able to witness such things in person.

The fact of the matter is, in the year 2021, God is more likely to speak in a whisper than in a shout. The prophet Isaiah forewarns that Christ himself will not be a noise-maker — for all his preaching, he will not cry out or shout to bring forth justice to the nations. His way is altogether different than that.

We are not the Apostles, and we do not have the privilege of seeing the Holy Spirit descend on Christ like a dove. But here’s the good news: God doesn’t need to shout. Our spiritual hearing works just fine. We just have to be listening.

Let’s wake up each morning ready to hear God’s whispers throughout the day. Let’s make a conscious effort to invite those whispers into our hearts, where they can become a catalyst for grace in this world.

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Do justice

We sometimes imagine it's about collecting sacraments. Or stockpiling mountains of prayers. Writing fat checks to charities. Or being nice to people we don't like. But the prophets relentlessly insist that what God desires from us is a just world. Where there's a privileged class, abominable wage gaps, racist systems, and deeply disproportionate outcomes for a nation's citizens, the peaceable reign of God can't gain a foothold. Contemplate categories of injustice—education, health care, employment opportunities, criminal justice—to name a few. Make one your special cause, learn all you can, and educate others about it.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:1-11 or Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7; 1 John 5:1-9 or Acts 10:34-38; Mark 1:7-11 (21). "A smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth."

FIRST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

Nothing ordinary about the reign of God

Today is the first weekday of Ordinary Time—that period in the church's liturgical year after the close of the Christmas season that stretches until Ash Wednesday (and then picks up after Pentecost until Advent begins again). This time after the holidays can indeed seem "ordinary," when all the commotion dies down and all the decorations are put away. Some people, especially those who live with long, cold winters, might even feel a little blue. But while sacred seasons are important, getting down to business is too. After all, there's a reign of God to help build. Think about everything Jesus did between the bookends of his life that we celebrate—and roll up your sleeves for some extraordinary work.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 1:1-6; Mark 1:14-20 (305). "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Tuesday, Jan 12, 2021

The power of a name

The Holy Name of Jesus is a devotion that was championed by Saint Bernardino of Siena in the 1400s—with the Holy Name Society dating to the 1200s. As a feast day, it's been celebrated during the first week of January by various Christian denominations and by Catholic religious orders, most notably the Jesuits, who use a monogram of the name (IHS) as their emblem. For Catholics, the entire month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. Pray the Litany of the Holy Name of Jesus today, recalling how even the unclean spirits of Jesus' day recognized his name.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 2:5-12; Mark 1:21-28 (306). "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?"

Wednesday, Jan 13, 2021

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF HILARY, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Be gracious in your disagreements

Catholics of the 21st century profess the belief that Jesus is both human and divine every time we recite the Nicene Creed at Mass. However, that profession of faith was challenged mightily in the fourth century when followers of Arius argued that Jesus was a great man—but not God. The conflict involved bishops and emperors on both sides and it went on for years. Hilary of Poitiers converted to Christianity at the age of 35 and was elected a bishop three years later. Hilary was a friendly and courteous man who persistently championed belief in Jesus' divinity. Even exile did not silence his voice. In our own times of conflict and division, Saint Hilary, guide us to God's grace.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 2:14-18; Mark 1:29-39 (307). "For this purpose have I come."

Thursday, Jan 14, 2021

Reach out and touch an outcast

Jesus heals a leper in today's gospel. Leprosy is relatively rare now in most regions of the world, so it's hard to understand the fear and revulsion that people with this disease triggered at one time. Even someone as close to God as Saint Francis struggled to be comfortable with touching a leper. Every age has its outcasts, and the Christian challenge has always been to learn to accept those others find unacceptable, love those others find unlovable. Prisoners, poor people, those with dark skin or foreign accents, the homeless—the list of modern lepers is long. Who do you avoid? Acknowledging your aversion is a step toward acceptance.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 3:7-14; Mark 1:40-45 (308). "He . . . touched the leper, and said to him, 'I do will it. Be made clean.'"

Color blind no more

Today in Guatemala, a major religious procession honors an image of Christ on the cross carved from dark wood and renowned throughout the region as the "Black Christ of Esquipulas." The statue was commissioned by Spanish colonial leaders looking to convert the indigenous people who worshipped a dark-skinned deity. Today the image affirms the fact that in Latin America there has been a certain "fluidity between races through inter-marriage and more blending of cultures and religions when compared to the experience of Native Americans and African Americans," as El Paso Bishop Mark J. Seitz wrote in a remarkable pastoral letter on the history of racism, Night Will Be No More. Today would be a good day to dip into this document for insights into the history and persistence of racism, regionwide. May the Black Christ be a symbol of hope!

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 4:1-5, 11; Mark 2:1-12 (309). "They were all astounded and glorified God, saying, 'We have never seen anything like this.'"

Saturday, Jan 16, 2021

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Be present to the Presence

The great paradox of God's kingdom is often expressed in the teachings of Jesus: The blind see, the lame walk, the deaf hear, the last are first, the dead live. The first and most profound paradox is that the Virgin conceives. Our Blessed Mother experienced the coming Kingdom in her own body. She shares that experience with us in our communion with the Lord. We carry the Real Presence of the Savior in our own bodies. The ongoing paradox is that the Lord calls us, who are sinners, to be the vessels of his presence in the world. Express that presence today by lifting up the lowly.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 4:12-16; Mark 2:13-17 (310). "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."
