3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

Pastor's Notes

Peter, called to be a "fisher of followers" and recently commissioned to carry on Jesus' mission, announced that he was going to work and others joined with him. Although many commentaries suggest that he was returning to his former way of life, another line of interpretation suggests that as he went to sea, Peter was symbolically beginning his mission in Galilee. Unfortunately, they labored in vain.

When the disciples admit their failure at fishing, the "stranger" tells them to try once more and they bring in more than they can manage. With this, the beloved disciple recognizes the Lord — not from his voice, his words or appearance, but from the overwhelming abundance of fish. Those fish recall the baskets full of leftovers the disciples collected after thousands shared bread in that same area.

Our Lady of the Lakes CCW, as part of its international outreach mission presented a donation to Fr. James Bok of Mary Gate of Heaven Catholic Church in Negril, Jamaica. The check was presented by Mary Chartrand and Pat Petersen to be used for their "Get Kids to School" outreach program. The program assists over 150 students to get to school every day, providing lunch money, uniforms, school supplies, and transportation. They operate their own bus as transportation is not provided by the schools.
