3RD SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER FOR CONVERSION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Oh Divine Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ, You died for us on the cross. In doing so you saved the world and forgave our sins. The source of our life flowed from your side and enveloped every nation. We pray today that our world may be converted to your Most Sacred Heart and again embrace and spread Your Holy Gospel to every corner of the world. We beg You to make us fervent missionaries of Your Word to all people. Help us always to share with others Your message of Faith, Hope and Love. Transform our lives so that we may attract others to You. Thank you for sharing with us Your ministry of healing and deliverance. We recognize that the sickness and evil that we daily encounter are more than we can bear. It is only through Your grace and Divine assistance that we are able to wage constant battle against the evil one. Make St. Therese parish and parishioners willing participants in the life-long task of bringing You to others. We ask this through Your Most Holy Name, Amen.

GREETINGS IN CHRIST FROM YOUR RESIDENT SEMINARIAN!

My name is Alex Leschisin. I'm excited to be coming to St. Therese parish to serve, learn from, and pray with you this spring. You will see me at Mass, around the parish office, in the community, and perhaps other places as well. Please feel free to introduce yourselves and your families. Some of you may recognize me from my time as a Totus Tuus (now Lumen Christi) missionary here during the summer of 2018. I'm grateful for the warm welcome I have received so far from Fr O'Dell and others I've met.

I grew up in the Webster area in the far north of our Diocese. After a year of civil engineering studies at School of Mines in Rapid City, I heard God calling me to follow Him to the seminary. I graduated with a bachelor's degree in philosophy last spring after three years at Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in Winona, Minnesota. After this year, I will spend four more in graduate theology studies before I am ordained a priest!

I am one of four seminarians who have been asked to take what is called a propaedeutic (preparatory or formation) year instead of ordinary university studies during this academic year. This is an incredible opportunity for us to get hands on experience of parish life and various ministries, as well as a great way for us to focus on and dive into prayer without the stress of homework and studies to distract from our efforts, not to mention taking a very welcome break from the rigors of eight consecutive years of education.

There are many similarities between this year of formation and regular seminary formation. Perhaps the biggest difference is the lack of formal studies. Otherwise, we keep busy with spiritual direction meetings, formation direction meetings, prayer, and of course, different service opportunities. This fall, I served the poor at Saint Francis House, and I found it to be a deeply enriching experience. I hope to return there this spring in addition to my time here at Saint Therese. Other seminarians serve as Lumen Christi missionaries, in other parishes, hospitals, and even in prison ministry. It is a great gift for me to be able to live and serve here in the Diocese of Sioux Falls.

This is, of course, a new program, which is why I am moving here to Saint Therese now instead of in the fall. Part of the excitement of this is the sense of adventure that we have as we break new trails for the seminarians who will come after us in the future. Sometimes the newness of it all can be overwhelming. It is those times that we turn to Jesus and say; "Lord, you are our stability, our inheritance, our portion and our cup. You are the Good Shepherd and you promised to not leave us." He will take care of us.

The Gospel for this Sunday outlines the very beginning of Jesus' ministry according to Luke. Jesus offered His life and teaching for all. As Christians, we are part of Christ's body and therefore we also have the great honor of bringing the Good News of the Gospel to those we encounter, on the street, in our parish, and especially in our homes. Missionary discipleship is for all of us.

Please pray for me, for all our seminarians, and for our priests and deacons.

PARISH NEWS
