OUR TRUE HOME: SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Why did Jesus choose to become a baby born of a mother and father and to spend all but His last years living in an ordinary human family? In part, to reveal God's plan to make all people live as one "holy family" in His Church (see 2 Corinthians 6:16-18).

In the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, God reveals our true home. We're to live as His children, "chosen ones, holy and beloved," as the First Reading puts it.

The family advice we hear in today's readings—for mothers, fathers and children—is all solid and practical. Happy homes are the fruit of our faithfulness to the Lord, we sing in today's Psalm. But the Liturgy is inviting us to see more, to see how, through our family obligations and relationships, our families become heralds of the family of God that He wants to create on earth.

Jesus shows us this in today's Gospel. His obedience to His earthly parents flows directly from His obedience to the will of His heavenly Father. Joseph and Mary aren't identified by name, but three times are called His "parents" and are referred to separately as His "mother" and "father." The emphasis is all on their familial ties to Jesus. But these ties are emphasized only so that Jesus, in the first words He speaks in Luke's Gospel, can point us beyond that earthly relationship to the Fatherhood of God.

In what Jesus calls "My Father's house," every family finds its true meaning and purpose (see Ephesians 3:15). The Temple we read about in the Gospel today is God's house, His dwelling (see Luke 19:46). But it's also an image of the family of God, the Church (see Ephesians 2:19-22; Hebrews 3:3-6; 10:21).

In our families we're to build up this household, this family, this living temple of God. Until He reveals His new dwelling among us, and says of every person: "I shall be his God and he will be My son" (see Revelation 21:3, 7).

BELOVED: FINDING HAPPINESS IN MARRIAGE

BELOVED uncovers the mystery and the meaning of the sacrament of marriage. What if marriage is more than you think it is? What if God has woven into the very fabric of your humanity a purposeful need and desire that can only be fulfilled in your marriage? BELOVED invites all couples to experience firsthand the wonder, mystery, and joy behind that first "I do," whether you said it last year or many years ago. The BELOVED study will take place on Wednesday evenings from 6-7pm in Room 107, starting January 19th.

THE BIBLE TIMELINE

Join Deacon Larry Kopriva for a walk through Salvation History. The Bible Timeline study program takes you on a guided journey through salvation history. Presenter Jeff Cavins will show you how fourteen of the Bible's narrative books tell the biblical story from beginning to end, giving you the keys to understand the amazing story woven throughout Scripture. The Bible Timeline group will meet on Thursdays from 6-7:30pm in the Theatre, starting January 13th.

END-OF-YEAR TAX BENEFITS

There are many reasons to make charitable gifts this year, whether to support churches and nonprofits affected by the pandemic or to provide assistance after disasters. Luckily, new tax laws and strategies can help you maximize tax breaks for yourself and benefit charities. Here's what you need to know:

NEW $300 CHARITABLE DEDUCTION FOR NON-ITEMIZERS

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, or CARES Act, created several incentives for people to help charities including a charitable deduction of up to $300 for single filers and $600.00 for married couples filing jointly in 2021 even if you don't itemize. The standard deduction for 2021 is now at $12,550 for single filers and $25,100 for married couples filing jointly.

This special CARES Act provision now gives a tax incentive to all taxpayers to give at least $300 to charity during 2021. To qualify, the gift must be made in cash, check or electronically, and go directly to the church or charity.

The CARES Act also helps people who are in a financial position to make very large gifts. In 2021, you can deduct cash gifts of up to 100% of your adjusted gross income, rather than the usual 60% limit. To qualify for this higher limit, the gifts must go directly to the church/charity, rather than to a donor-advised fund or private foundation. This can help wealthy people reduce their taxable income significantly in 2021, and it may also help retirees who have money to give but bump up against the income limits for the deduction. This can help the older generation who have a lot of cash but don't have a lot of income coming in and are trying to help out the community in any way they can.

MAKE A TAX-FREE TRANSFER FROM YOUR IRA

People who are age 70½ and older can give up to $100,000 per year tax-free from their IRA to charity, a procedure called a qualified charitable distribution or QCD. The gift counts as their required minimum distribution but isn't included in their adjusted gross income. (Even though the SECURE Act, another recent tax law, increased the age to start taking RMDs from 70½ to 72, you can still make a qualified charitable distribution any time after you turn age 70½.)

This is a great strategy for people who have to take RMDs (required minimum distribution) and would like to donate to charity. They can help the charity and not have to pay taxes on the money they have to withdraw from their IRA. But because of the CARES Act, people are not required to take RMDs in 2021. However, you may still be able to benefit from making a QCD (qualified charitable distribution) this year. The tax-free transfer takes money out of your IRA, which can help reduce future RMDs.

To keep the money out of your AGI, it must be transferred directly from your IRA to the charity – you can't withdraw it first. Ask your IRA administrator about the procedure, and let the charity know the money is coming. You have to give this money directly to a charity; it can't go to a donor-advised fund.

COVECREST 2022

Students who are currently enrolled in our Life Teen Program are eligible to sign up for the Life Teen Camp at Covercrest in Tiger, GA this summer. We will fly down to join hundreds of other high school youth from around the country for fun games, adventures, and fellowship. This camp is high energy and fun and accommodations are great. We will also have a free day with the opportunity for white water rafting. The parish will pay for 50% of the total cost this year to encourage our first group to go. The trip will be the first week in August (8/1-8/7) and will cost each youth roughly $600 including airfare, food, lodging, the camp, and the free day. It is an incredible opportunity! Spaces are limited; contact Matt to sign up now.

Any youth grades 6-12 interested in serving at Feeding South Dakota should contact Matt for dates and availability. We could also use adult chaperones to work beside us.

STEUBENVILLE CONFERENCE

This amazing weekend retreat joins up teens from around the region to live and encounter their faith. There are lots of fun activities, live music, and other entertainments, but most teens come back talking about how meaningful it was to their faith. They were able to encounter Jesus in a new and meaningful way. Though they share stories about the fun, what stands the test of time is how they encountered the Lord. It is amazing to be surrounded by youth who take their faith to heart and show genuine joy and support for one another. This awesome experience will cost est. $475 and may change your life for the better. There is limited room; please contact Matt if you would like to register.

FINANCIAL PEACE UNIVERSITY

Financial Peace University (FPU) is a nine-lesson class that teaches participants how to save for emergencies, pay off debt fast, spend wisely, and invest for your future. You'll connect with like-minded individuals who will hold you accountable and celebrate your progress! Tanner Oman, a Blessed Sacrament parishioner, is coordinating a class this winter. The class will begin on Tuesday, January 18th and conclude on Tuesday, March 15th. It will run from 6-8pm at the Turnac Tower (909 St. Joseph Street, Rapid City). To sign up, visit www.ramseysolutions.com/ramseyplus/classes/1142997 or contact Bridget Grapentine in the parish office for more information.
