A KING TO BEHOLD: SCOTT HAHN REFLECTS ON THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

An “epiphany” is an appearance. In today’s readings, with their rising stars, splendorous lights, and mysteries revealed, the face of the child born on Christmas day appears.

Herod, in today’s Gospel, asks the chief priests and scribes where the Messiah is to be born. The answer Matthew puts on their lips says much more, combining two strands of Old Testament promise—one revealing the Messiah to be from the line of David (see 2 Samuel 2:5), the other predicting “a ruler of Israel” who will “shepherd his flock” and whose “greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth” (see Micah 5:1-3).

Those promises of Israel’s king ruling the nations resound also in today’s Psalm. The psalm celebrates David’s son, Solomon. His kingdom, we sing, will stretch “to the ends of the earth,” and the world’s kings will pay Him homage. That’s the scene too in today’s First Reading, as nations stream from the East, bearing “gold and frankincense” for Israel’s king.

The Magi’s pilgrimage in today’s Gospel marks the fulfillment of God’s promises. The Magi, probably Persian astrologers, are following the star that Balaam predicted would rise along with the ruler’s staff over the house of Jacob (see Numbers 24:17).

Laden with gold and spices, their journey evokes those made to Solomon by the Queen of Sheba and the “kings of the earth” (see 1 Kings 10:2, 25; 2 Chronicles 9:24). Interestingly, the only other places where frankincense and myrrh are mentioned together are in songs about Solomon (see Song of Songs 3:6, 4:6, 14).

One greater than Solomon is here (see Luke 11:31). He has come to reveal that all peoples are “co-heirs” of the royal family of Israel, as today’s Epistle teaches.

His manifestation forces us to choose: Will we follow the signs that lead to Him as the wise Magi did? Or will we be like those priests and the scribes who let God’s words of promise become dead letters on an ancient page?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DIOCESAN STRATEGIC PLANNING

The Diocese of Rapid City is conducting a strategic plan for the next twenty years. Each parish is asked to hold a town hall meeting to introduce this process. Due to our parish size, we will be holding two town hall meetings. Our meetings will be held in the Theater on January 8th at 7pm and January 16th after the 11am Mass. In anticipation of this meeting, please review the following principles (“Values as Proposed by the Committee”) and be prepared to comment at the upcoming meeting.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST ON JANUARY 9

Proceeds go to tornado relief efforts organized by St. Jerome Catholic Church in Fancy Farm, KY.

VALUES AS PROPOSED BY THE COMMITTEE

- We believe that the Holy Spirit is leading the planning process.
- We will observe all relevant norms of Church doctrine and law.
- We will not presume that the way it has always been, is the way that it must be. Under the direction of the Holy Spirit, we will learn and be open to change as we engage this process.
- Every effort will be made to provide opportunities for all members of the parish to be aware of and involved in the planning process.
- The strategic pastoral plan should include proposals for the recruitment, formation, affirmation and support for priests, deacons, religious, and lay leadership for ministry and parishes.
- We acknowledge that not every part of the diocese, especially mission territory, functions according to the norms that typically govern parish structure and life. We will respect this diversity, and work as one body to meet the needs of all.
- The weekend Mass will remain central to our planning efforts.
- The support and nurture of healthy, viable parishes is paramount to our efforts.
- Parish priests should not say more than four weekend Masses (2 per day).
- Priests will not be asked or expected to serve beyond the canonical age of seventy-five.
- Considering the vast distances and small populations in much of our diocese, we will strive to balance the distance the faithful drive to attend Mass, the distance the priest drives to provide Mass, and the distances at which priests live from one another.
- If the parish church can accommodate everyone in one Mass unnecessary duplication of weekend Masses for the convenience of people will be avoided.
