FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

Today marks the Feast of the Holy Family, which is a continuation of the mystery of Christ's Nativity. We rightly bring our lives to a halt to meditate on the birth of Jesus Christ, but far too often each of us resumes our daily routines and other interests without exploring further the implications of the Christ Child. The Holy Family is a reality worthy of our adoration and commitment, because it reminds us that the Lord did not exist in a vacuum while on this earth. The humanity of Christ was raised in a concrete time and place with real people that He loved and knew not only as their God, but also as a son, cousin, and friend.

St. Mary, our Blessed Mother, was the chosen mechanism by which Christ would receive His humanity. As such, we can learn a great deal about the Messiah by knowing something about His mother. As a Jew living in the 1st century, Our Lady would have been familiar with Aramaic, Hebrew, Greek, and even some Latin; her daily life would have consisted of religious devotions of the Jewish faith; and her life would have been marked by simplicity as she lived a common existence in occupied Palestine. All of these allow us to see insights into the childhood and upbringing Christ was to experience—a home devoid of adornment, but rich in humility; a faith attuned to the heritage of the Chosen People; and a child who would hear the many languages of mankind from an early age to speak a message for the whole world.

St. Joseph, the patron of the Church, did not have any biological connection to the Christ Child, but nonetheless was selected by God for the unique role of guardian and father of the Lord due to His incredible righteousness. We learn from the renowned offspring of David that Jesus is the heir to the Davidic Kingdom, who will establish an everlasting reign. As a Jewish man, St. Joseph would have submitted himself to the Law of Moses and his work ethic would make him the true role model of all workers. Under the care of St. Joseph, Christ would show us that He chooses the pious and ethical person as His friend, bestowing upon such persons the job of tending to the coming of the Kingdom.

As we celebrate the Christmas Season, let us all take the time to meditate not only on the Lord's Nativity, but the family and society in which the author of life came to birth.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER FROM THE STUDENTS & STAFF AT STFX

During Advent, we asked God to help us to prepare for the coming of Jesus, Our Savior. Now in the Christmas season we are called to be Christ in the flesh to our world.

Let us pray...

God, you became human through the obedience of a simple young woman named Mary.

Mary is our model of faith. May we be faithful to your word as Mary was.

Give us the courage to face each day with the yes that Mary gave to you.

We ask this through the incarnate God, who comes to us again during this Christmas season. Amen.

The students and staff at St. Francis Xavier School wish all of you a very Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year!
