PRAYER & WORSHIP

Weekly Words from The Rock:

Taming the Tongue

Father Ed Broom, OMV wrote an article entitled, Taming the Tongue: 10 Fatal Abuses of Speech. With Lent upon us, I want to challenge each of us by looking into our interior lives and finding the face of Jesus Christ. This article can help as an examination of conscience so let us delve into the words of Father Broom.

Saint James warns us that we should be slow to speak and quick to listen. The Imitation of Christ asserts that few have ever regretted refraining from speaking. On the other hand, many regret having opened their mouths when they should have kept them shut. Still more, Jesus warns us that every word that comes forth from our mouth will be judged; and Jesus says: "From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks."

Finally, St. Bonaventure asserts that we should open our mouths on three occasions: to praise God, to accuse ourselves and finally, to edify others. Hopefully, this will be our criteria for speaking! The primary purpose for the gift of speech that God has given to the human person is to communicate the truth with love.

I would like to briefly go over the ten fatal flaws that result from improper speech. In each instance, our goal is to find the preventative medicine rather than curative. The reason being is that once a word has been issued forth from the mouth, it cannot be retrieved. Much like when a rock is launched in the direction of a window pane, it cannot be returned to the hand but it instead goes out and shatters the glass in nearly an instant. So when it comes to taming the tongue, it is far better to prevent the stones of our words than to try to repair the damage.

Lying. Lies should be avoided at all costs. A lie perverts the proper end and purpose of human speech by falsifying the truth that ought to be spoken. If all were to lie then human solidarity and unity would be impossible because nobody could trust anybody's word and we would then always be living with the suspicion that the other who speaks is deceiving. Jesus said that the devil is the father of lies. Therefore, in a very real sense liars are sons and daughters of the devil! A strong statement, but true.

Telling White Lies. Many will justify the lie by saying it is only a white lie, that nobody will be hurt, or even the white lie was said to avoid harm to the other person. There was a moment when Charlie Brown told Lucy that what he told was only a white lie. Lucy responded: "Charlie, I did not know that lies come in colors." In sum, your speech should always communicate the truth in the big as well as in the small things. Jesus reminds us that those who are faithful in the small will be faithful in the large.

Shouting and Yelling. Frustrated people who have little self-control often have recourse to yelling or shouting, with the hope of moving the listeners to action; this might also be the case of parents with their children. The end is to get those subject to the shouting, to submit in obedience, which rarely results as planned. On the contrary, people will pay even less attention to the overly-emotional and uncontrolled shouting. Rather than losing control of our emotions, it is far better to give fraternal correction but with calmness and peace. In this way, you show love, even while giving parental or fraternal correction, while also maintaining control over your tongue.

Slander or Calumny. At all costs, we should strive to maintain and defend not only our own good reputation but also the reputation of others. All have a right to the defense of their good name. But how quickly somebody's good name can be undone by the slander of another! Therefore, calumny or slander can be defined as "character assassination" – that is to say, killing the good name of another. Actually, in this light, slander not only violates the Eighth Commandment – "Thou shall not bear false witness against his neighbor" – but it can be seen as a violation of The Fifth Commandment – "Thou shall not kill." Even the Book of Proverbs tells us the harm that is done by slander, "A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a war club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow."

Speaking Gossip. All too prevalent in our modern society are those who have become the gossip. Such a person always finds the negative act and motivations in the other person and then speaks about that behind their back. Gossipers cause damage in many ways:

- They hurt God, the source of truth who hears all things.
- They hurt themselves by sinning by their speech.
- They hurt the persons listening to the gossip.
- Finally, and most obviously, they hurt the person against whom they are gossiping.

If you are a gossip, or you even listen to gossip, stop right now! The Bible is clear about avoiding this: "Do not spread slanderous gossip among your people" (Leviticus 19:16). Remember, Jesus says, that every careless word that comes from your mouth will be judged. Be prepared for judgment day!

Let us pause at this point and pick up with the final five abuses of speech next week.

Peace be to you! Father Peter Schuster

The Rice Bowl Campaign is a wonderful way to practice your mission. This is a collection during Lent. This is not a parish collection, but a Lenten program run in the schools and parishes. Catholic Relief Services provides funding for Catholic Relief Services' food security projects, which support agriculture, nutrition, education, and self-sufficiency in communities around the world.

75% is remitted to CRS for overseas projects and 25% may be retained in the diocese for local antipoverty programs.

THE CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL offers a unique opportunity for you to give back to the God of Love, from whom all things are given. Grow closer to Christ by doing your part to build up the Kingdom of God in southern Minnesota. This year's theme is "ANSWERING GOD'S CALL"

DISCIPLESHIP QUADS/BIBLE STUDY GROUPS FOR MEN AND WOMEN:

'Discipleship Quads' are a group of four men or women who meet together over the course of a year to study Scripture, dig deeply into the Faith and grow together in fellowship. We are opening this opportunity up to all our area parishes and hoping to connect like minded Catholic men and women to create new relationships. There is a guided program used in a Quad group. (Learn more at <https://steubenvilleconferences.net/discipleship-quads/>)

If being involved in a study group like this is something you may enjoy doing, please contact Peg Olsem (stgabrielfaith@gmail.com) or Marcie Cowan (faith@acmcatholic.org), and we will get your name on a list for a possible new group. ALL are most welcome! Once we have enough folks to create a "Quad" group, we will connect you with one another, and your group, together, can determine the best meeting times/locations for yourselves.
