PRAYER & WORSHIP

Weekly Words from The Rock:

Patience

There is a number which caught my attention in today's gospel and the number is three. The number three appears in the Bible 467 times. I am not going to list each of its occurrences rather some key examples.

- The three persons of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
- There were three fathers of Israel: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob
- Jonah was in the belly of the great fish three days
- Satan tempted Jesus three times in the desert
- Jesus predicted his suffering, death, and resurrection three times
- Noah had three sons
- The Ark of the Covenant contained three objects: gold jar of manna, Aaron's budded staff, and the tablets of the Commandments
- According to the Law, men had to present themselves at the Temple three times a year at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles
- Peter denied Jesus three times
- Jesus was in the grave three days

Peculiar to the gospel of today, we also hear the number three. In Luke 13:6-9, we hear the story of an orchard owner who has a fig tree planted. Coming to search for fruit on it, he finds none. To the gardener he says, "For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?" The gardener replies, "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not, you can cut it down." What is the thrust of the story? Patience. The undying patience of God.

Speaking of patience, I can't help but reminisce about my brother and me. When it came to hunting, my brother and I were quite the team. My brother liked to go, go, go. One year, I recall my brother and me deer hunting. I placed my brother in some branches and stumps which had been cut and placed in a pile. It was at a creek crossing for vehicles to pass from one field to another. I stationed myself down the creek a few hundred yards. As luck would have it, I watched a buck and doe head directly for my brother. Because of where I was stationed, I couldn't see the events which were about to unfold; thus, I attuned my sense of sound. It wasn't long when I heard five shots ring out. Seconds later, I watched the buck and doe running full steam up a hill. I mean they were running, getting out of dodge. I couldn't believe it. I thought for sure my brother would bag the buck. Eventually, I went down to my brother and asked what had happened. My question being, "Did the two deer get close to you?" "Yes," he responded, "but there was a problem. I forgot to aim."

Not to be outdone, my father came to pick us up and take us to a new location. I was firm in my decision that I was going to stay where my brother had been stationed. I stayed in that location all day. Finally, at day's end, my brother came up to me after dad had driven him around to various locations and asked, "Did you see anything?" I responded, "No, not a thing." His response is one I have never forgotten, "You dummy. Why did you stay here all day? We must hunt Trenton Woods. There have been deer running all over up there all day." Sure enough, the next day we both harvested deer in Trenton Woods.

In that story, you hear a difference between the two of us. My brother never saw the need to stay in a stand for a long period of time. If he didn't see anything, it was time to move. Me, on the other hand, had a much more patient demeanor. It worked well. My brother would drive, and I would take a posting (sitting) position. More often than not, he would be the one to harvest a deer while I would see nothing. However, for the possibility to unfold, it took both of us.

In today's gospel, we see both demeanors at work. My brother represents the orchard owner. Putting all the money into the orchard and paying the gardener's salary, we can see why he would say of the fig tree after three years of bearing no fruit, "Cut it down. This is enough." I would represent the gardener with the words, "Let us be patient and give it one more year. I will give the tree special attention and if nothing happens, it can be chopped down." Both lines of thinking are rationale. In this story, patience wins the day.

The parable represents two things:

1. As I mentioned earlier, the undying patience of God. God awaits our turning from sin and returning to him. This happens day by day, year by year.
2. The final reality is that God's patience is finite. We will all face death. Our eternal reward or punishment will be determined by whether we turned our lives over to God or decided to embody my way, the way of the world, the way of the devil.

This Lent, let us return to our God!

Peace be to you!

Father Peter Schuster
