PRAYER & WORSHIP

Weekly Words from The Rock:

The Body and Blood of Jesus Christ

A priest has the opportunity to preside over/celebrate six of the seven sacraments - baptism, penance, Holy Communion, Confirmation (in extraordinary circumstances), Matrimony, and Anointing of the Sick. Only a bishop bestows Holy Orders. Of the six sacraments, far and away, the sacrament we celebrate the most is the Sacrament of Penance. We celebrate the sacrament prior to Mass, in communal settings, homes, hospitals, etc.

Following the sacrament of Penance, the sacrament a priest celebrates the most is Holy Communion. Just how important is the sacrament? You may have heard the story about a church goer who wrote a letter to the editor of a newspaper and complained that it made no sense to go to church every Sunday. "I've gone for 30 years now," he wrote, "and in that time I have heard something like 3,000 sermons. But for the life of me, I can't remember a single one of them. So, I think I'm wasting my time and the pastors are wasting theirs by giving sermons to all."

This started a real controversy in the "Letters to the Editor" column, much to the delight of the editor. It went on for weeks until someone wrote this clincher: "I've been married for 30 years now. In that time my wife has cooked some 32,000 meals. But, for the life of me, I cannot recall the entire menu for a single one of those meals. But I do know this... They all nourished me and gave me the strength I needed to do my work. If my wife had not given me these meals, I would be physically dead today. Likewise, if I had not gone to church for nourishment, I would be spiritually dead today!"

Do I expect a person to remember every homily a priest has ever given? Of course not. By the following Sunday, I have difficulty recalling what I preached the preceding Sunday. However, I do know this much, the power of God's word cannot be measured. It challenges, uplifts and encourages us to push forward.

The same is true of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. In John 6, Jesus tells us without receiving the Eucharist we will not have life within us. Do I recall the Mass I celebrated one year ago today? No. But as the story I shared reminds us, without the celebration of that Mass, I would not be here today. Stop receiving the Eucharist and slowly our souls fade away and we spiritually (and I would also add physically) die.

In Christ's Body and Blood, what a gift we have! It is up to us to receive him and lead us to eternal life.

A Little Humor...

An Irish priest is driving down to New York and gets stopped for speeding in Connecticut. The state trooper smells alcohol on the priest's breath and then sees an empty bottle on the floor of the car. He says, "Sir, have you been drinking?" "Just water," says the priest. The trooper says, "Then why do I smell wine?" The priest looks at the bottle and says, "Good Lord! He has done it again!"

A Spiritual Thought...

Dogs are said to be man's best friend and so they are. Dogs are affectionate and great company for people living on their own. But dogs can also be dangerous. How many people have been bitten by dogs! So when you take your dog for a walk you protect other people by taking the dog on a leash. I have even seen dogs with a muzzle over their mouth. But are dogs the most fierce creatures that God created? No. What is the most fierce, the wildest, the most dangerous creature that God created? Humanity! Think of all the wars we started. Think of all the millions of other humans we have killed down through the years. Humans are the fiercest and most dangerous of all the creatures that God created! To prevent us from harming others God has put us on a leash. What is the leash? The Ten Commandments. They prevent us from doing damage. Because we are the fiercest and most dangerous of all the animals that God created we need the commandments to keep us under control and ensure that we do not harm others.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

If you haven't done so, please send in your pledge for the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Any monies raised over the goal are returned to each respective parish at 100%. Also, any monies raised over the goal are not assessed by the diocese. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is a great way for us to raise funds for our parishes. Please be generous!

Peace be to you!

EUCCHARISTIC RIVIAL: THE YEAR OF MISSION

Bishop Andrew Cozzens, from the very first days of the National Eucharistic Revival, said we "hope to start a fire, not a program." A revival is not merely a program, campaign, or series of events—it is a movement of the Holy Spirit that awakens hearts, renews faith, and re-centers a people on the presence of God. In the context of the National Eucharistic Revival, revival begins when the encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist no longer feels distant or abstract, but becomes deeply personal, transformative, and contagious.

A true revival touches the interior life of individuals and communities. It reignites in them love for the Eucharist, restores awe for the Real Presence, and reorders priorities toward worship, mission, and communion. When people hunger for the Eucharist again—when they reorder their lives around him, when they live differently because they believe differently—that is when revival has begun.

But revival is not a one-time event. If it is real, it does not end with a Congress, a pilgrimage, or even a powerful testimony. Revival continues when it moves from moments of encounter into lasting patterns of discipleship. It endures when parishes become places of Eucharistic amazement, when families return to the rhythm of Sunday Mass, and when the Church's missionary impulse flows from the altar into the streets.

This Eucharistic revival can and must be ongoing. Every Mass is a moment of renewal. Every hour of Eucharistic adoration is an invitation to be transformed. Every act of charity rooted in the Eucharist carries the revival forward.
