PRAYER & WORSHIP

Weekly Words from The Rock:

Three Weeks In And...

That is correct. Count them. We are three weeks into Ordinary Time and none of our Sundays have addressed Ordinary Time. Over three weeks, we have celebrated:

1. The Most Holy Trinity. Three persons in one God whom we worship as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
2. Corpus Christi. In the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, we receive Jesus Christ. The Eucharist is not a sign or symbol of Jesus Christ rather his very presence, real presence.
3. This weekend celebrates the apostles Saints Peter and Paul.

Questions arise with the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. What not just the Solemnity of Saint Peter or the Solemnity of Saint Paul? Why both together? Today commemorates the mission of the universal church. Saint Peter was the apostle to the Jewish people. Saint Paul was the apostle to the Gentile people. The Jewish people and Gentile people marked the whole world in the first century. Such is why in our Nicene Creed we profess the church as "catholic" and "apostolic." Built upon the work of the apostles, the Church extends to the ends of the earth.

With both apostles, their martyrdom found them in the same city. One would expect it to be in Jerusalem for Jerusalem was the location of Jesus' death and resurrection. Such is not the case. Peter and Paul's martyrdom took place in the city of Rome. Rome was the government center of a large area at the time of Jesus, Peter and Paul. We know that the government ruling in Jerusalem at the time of Jesus was Roman. Names like Herod and Pilate in the pages of the gospels verify this fact. Thus, it was to the ruling center of the world where Peter and Paul would go.

How was Peter martyred? By being crucified upside down. How was Paul martyred? By being beheaded. Both shed their blood for Jesus Christ; thus, when we celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, the color worn is red. Red signifies one who shed their blood for Jesus Christ.

As Peter and Paul were faithful in their mission of spreading the gospel, let us continue their work to the ends of the earth.

It Is All About How You Look At Things...

Charles Francis Adams, a 19th century figure and diplomat, kept a diary. One day he entered, "Went fishing with my son today - a day wasted." His son, Brook Adams, also kept a diary, which is still in existence. On that same day, Brook Adams made this entry: "Went fishing with my father - the most wonderful day of my life!"

The father thought he was wasting his time while fishing with his son, but his son saw it as an investment of time. The only way to tell the difference between wasting and investing time is to know one's ultimate purpose in life and to judge accordingly.

How To Curb Your Anger...

There was a little boy with a terrible temper. His father gave him a bag of nails and told him that every time he lost his temper, to hammer a nail in the back fence. The first day the boy had driven 37 nails into the fence. Then it gradually dwindled down. He discovered it was easier to hold his temper than to drive nails into the fence. Finally, the day came when the boy didn't lose his temper at all. He told his father about it and the father suggested that the boy now pull out one nail for each day that he was able to hold his temper. The days passed and the young boy was finally able to tell his father that all the nails were gone. The father took his son by the hand and led him to the fence. He said, "You have done well, my son, but look at the holes in the fence. The fence will never be the same. When you say things in anger, they leave a scar just like this one. You can put a knife in a man and draw it out. It won't matter how many times you say I'm sorry, the wound is still there."

The point of the story being a verbal wound is as bad as a non-verbal one so try to curb your anger.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

If you haven't done so, please send in your pledge for the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Any monies raised over the goal are returned to each respective parish at 100%. Also, any monies raised over the goal are not assessed by the diocese. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is a great way for us to raise funds for our parishes. Please be generous!

Peace be to you!

May it help us to recover the confident trust that we require, in the Church and in society, in our interpersonal relationships, in international relations, and in our task of promoting the dignity of all persons and respect for God's gift of creation." EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL: THE YEAR OF MISSION THE NEXT MOVEMENT OF REVIVAL: BECOME A EUCHARISTIC MISSIONARY

Since the beginning of the National Eucharistic Revival, a particular saying of Jesus has resonated in my heart:

"You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot" (Mt 5:13).

This was the reason for the National Eucharistic Revival: if we lose our love for Jesus in the Eucharist and our belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, then we lose our "saltiness." We lose the very character of what makes us Catholic, and any effectiveness we desire to have bears no effect on our world. The National Eucharistic Revival was a great "re-seasoning" of our Church, an invitation to worship and to fall in love with Jesus in the Eucharist and reclaim our identity.

While this saying has resonated in my heart, it is only the beginning of a larger teaching. Jesus continues:

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father" (Mt 5:14-16).
