PASTOR'S NOTES...Fr. Ron Huberty

We celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. We hear in Luke's Gospel about Mary and Joseph taking Jesus, at the age of 12, to the Temple for the Feast of Passover. Already, Jesus is reminding us that he must be in the Father's House. He is already listening and sharing the good news. We are reminded today that we are part of the Holy Family. We join them in prayer as they pray for us and model what it means to live our Christmas faith. May we pray for all families, especially those that are experiencing great troubles. May we be enriched by praying together, going to Mass together, and growing in faith together. As we begin a new year, 2022 next Saturday, what a holy time to renew our commitment to living our faith in Christ and the Church.

Please note the daily Mass schedule this week with less Masses being celebrated. Also please note the Mass for New Years. This year it is not a holy day of obligation so not as many Masses are being offered. We will have a full set of Masses for Sunday, the Feast of the Epiphany.

Please note the Mass schedule for January as Wilno and Lake Benton will now be having the Sunday Masses and Ivanhoe and Tyler the Saturday Masses.

Thank you to all who have blessed my life with cards, gifts and kind words this Christmas. May God bless all of you as we begin a New Year, 2022.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: From our Director. . . Kari Nilles

No Religious Ed this week Wednesday, Dec 29

First Reconciliation will be on Saturday, January 8th at 10am at Ss. Peter & Paul, Ivanhoe.

Reflection from Father Brendan:

God chooses to be born in a human family. Jesus, born into the marriage of Joseph and Mary, forms a Holy Family. As an adult, Jesus teaches that "in the beginning" (Matthew 19:3-6) God makes the union of a man and a woman a sacred union. God divinely institutes this union in the Sacrament of Marriage which Jesus blesses at the wedding feast of Cana (John 2:1-12). Every Christian family is called to holiness. The Catechism describes this invitation from God saying, "The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit." As Sirach 3:2-7; 12-14 describes, a family forms a communion when a Christian husband loves his wife, the wife her husband, the parents their children, the children their parents. It takes lots of work, there are often challenges, but everyone wants it... FAMILY! May God bless the amazing, beautiful, incredible families of our Area Faith Community.

DO YOU HAVE 3 MINUTES A DAY? WE NEED YOU!!! Do you wish to share in the power of prayer or need a mass said for you or your intentions?? We have 7 Roses. A Rose is made up of 15 persons praying their decade (10 Hail Mary's) of the Rosary every day for a year. Each person is assigned which decade they shall pray for the year. The Prayer Intentions for the Altar Rosary Society are as follows: 1) Return of lapsed & lax Catholics, 2) End to terrorism & world peace, 3) Spiritual guidance from God for all elected officials, 4) Preservation & respect for all human life, 5) For happy & holy marriages. Benefits to you are Masses said for Intentions of Living Members 6 times a year. Also masses are said for Deceased Members 6 times a year. At the time of your death a mass will be offered for you. A votive candle is lit for Living members on the Feast Days of Assumption & Immaculate Conception. It is possible you can say your decade in 3 minutes. There are openings in many of the Roses. Dues are $2.00 a year. You do not need to be a member of any particular parish – we just need you to prayer with us. Please call Jane Steffes (507) 530-8114 if you would be interested in participating.
