PASTOR'S NOTES...Fr. Ron Huberty

On this Sixth Sunday of Easter, we hear again from John's Gospel, chapter 14, with Jesus at the Last Supper. Jesus is teaching us that if we love Him we will keep the commandments. To help us live the teachings of Jesus, he promises to send us an Advocate, the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit remains in us always and leads us in the ways of faith. May we reveal by our witness of faith the love that God the Father has for each one of us.

A reminder that next Sunday we will be celebrating the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord instead of the Seventh Sunday of Easter. The Scripture Readings and Prayers will come from the Feast Day.

Today we also celebrate Mother's Day, I pray that God will bless all mothers as they witness their vocation of being a mother. May our Blessed Mother, Mary, pray for all of you, and help you in passing on the faith to your children. A mother's blessing: "Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that, we their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect." (Book of Blessings)

God's blessings on the students who have already graduated from high school or college. May God guide you in living your faith as you move on to new plans in your life.

Reflection from Father Brendan:

This time of year is intense for every age group. After being cooped up for five months, warm air, sunshine, planting and growing season feel great. We call it spring fever. When things are intense, we often look for ways to blow off steam, especially with our humor. But, how do we show our love for God and neighbor in our humor? In John 14:15-21 Jesus says, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." So, things to watch when you're telling a joke. The other person must also think it's funny, otherwise the "joke" may be a mask for your own bitterness, a veiled criticism, or snarky sarcasm. Avoid negative humor. It must build up all the listeners, funny but also complimentary of your audience. The jokes we tell, tell people what we think of them. It's not really funny if there are unconsenting winners and losers. A final test to ask yourself. Is it repeatable? Want to pass God's love along, tell a joke that others want to tell their family. Don't know how to tell jokes? It's time to get the skill. Watch someone who's good at it. Jokes are good for the spirit. May the Holy Spirit, "be with you always."
