IT'S ALL IN THE BASKET

By Tracy Earl Welliver

Está todo en la canasta

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope. I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!" In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand. God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

Santa Teresa de Lisieux hizo hincapié por hacer un esfuerzo adicional en amabilidad hacia aquellas personas que realmente le molestaban. Era parte de su propia marca de corresponsabilidad diaria: agradecer a Dios por toda Su creación, incluso las partes que, en su propia humanidad, luchaba por afrontar. Pienso mucho en esto cuando me desafío a mí mismo a dar gracias por las cosas que me molestan y las personas que me desafián. Cuando hago esto, me imagino a Cristo dando gracias por esos panes insuficientes. ¿Cuántos de nosotros veríamos esa canasta insignificante y patearíamos una piedra en frustración porque no podemos alimentar a toda nuestra gente? "¡No me diste suficiente, Señor! No me diste suficiente paciencia, suficiente dinero, suficiente creatividad, suficiente resistencia para ser un buen corresponsable. ¡Si me hubieras dado más, yo también podría dar más! "En esos momentos de desesperación, debemos echar un buen vistazo a la vida que Dios nos ha dado. Necesitamos mirar las pruebas, los desafíos y las deficiencias. Las esperanzas que no dieron resultado, las decepciones que siguen apareciendo. En algún lugar ahí radica lo que necesitamos para ser el steward que Dios nos pide que seamos, así como la propia stewardship de Santa Teresa fue definida por las personas que ella simplemente no podía soportar. Dios no nos da todo lo que queremos. No nos da todo lo que pedimos. Hace algo mejor: nos da todo lo que necesitamos. Está todo en la canasta.

GOD ANSWERS ALL OUR NEEDS

Dios responde a todas nuestras necesidades

Today we hear the familiar story of Jesus feeding the 5,000 people on just five loaves and two fish. The reading from 2 Kings also speaks of God's miraculous feeding of a crowd. These passages remind us that nothing is impossible for God, and that He wants to feed His people. Add in Psalm 145, and you see the overall message for today: God will provide EVERYTHING we need — not just food — and He will do so abundantly! Sometimes in our discipleship, it is easy to fall into the lie that we are the ones doing all the work and that it is up to us to solve the world's problems. The truth is, our Heavenly Father already has the solutions, we need only look to Him in faith and hope! And we might want to be prepared for a solution that defies reason, like feeding 5,000 people with a meager sack lunch! Don't make excuses. Don't point out the flaws in God's plan. Simply take action and believe. God will "satisfy the desire of every living thing."

Hoy escuchamos la conocida historia de Jesús alimentando a 5,000 personas con sólo cinco panes y dos pescados. La lectura de 2 Reyes también habla de la alimentación milagrosa de una multitud por parte de Dios. Estos pasajes nos recuerdan que nada es imposible para Dios, y que Él quiere alimentar a su pueblo. Si añadimos el Salmo 145, veremos el mensaje general para hoy: Dios nos proveerá de TODO lo que necesitemos, no sólo de comida, y lo hará en abundancia. A veces, en nuestro discipulado, es fácil caer en la mentira de que somos nosotros los que hacemos todo el trabajo y que nos toca resolver los problemas del mundo. La verdad es que nuestro Padre Celestial ya tiene las soluciones, y ¡sólo tenemos que recurrir a Él con fe y esperanza! Y deberíamos estar preparados para una solución que desafía la razón, como alimentar a 5,000 personas con un pequeño almuerzo. No busques excusas. No señales los defectos del plan de Dios. Simplemente actúa y cree. Dios satisfará el deseo de "todos los vivientes".

HAPPY GRANDPARENTS DAY

¡Feliz día de los abuelos!

Today is the first World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly! "It is important for grandparents to meet their grandchildren and for grandchildren to meet their grandparents, because — as the prophet Joel says — grandparents, before their grandchildren, will dream, and have illusions [great desires], and young people, taking strength from their grandparents, will go forward and prophesy."
— Pope Francis, January 31, 2021

¡Hoy es el primer Día Mundial de los Abuelos y las Personas Mayores! "Es importante que los abuelos conozcan a sus nietos y que los nietos conozcan a sus abuelos, porque - como dice el profeta Joel - los abuelos, antes que sus nietos, soñarán y tendrán ilusiones [grandes deseos], y los jóvenes, sacando fuerzas de sus abuelos, seguirán adelante y profetizarán".
- Papa Francisco, 31 de enero de 2021
