4 Some Assembly Acquired

It's been said "You can never really go home".

But we have found that, for us (Tim & Julie), this is not exactly true. These past 2 years have been, in many ways, a homecoming in the sense that we have been able to re-connect and celebrate with those many loved ones from our past (and lots of new ones, too!)

We want to say thank you for all the "holy moments" we have shared here at St. Patrick's. We will hold you all in our hearts and in our prayers moving forward. We believe that God always has good things in store for ALL of us. It has been an honor and a privilege for us to walk this part of the journey with you all.

In gratitude and in the Spirit,
Tim and Julie Smith (and Immanuel)

A Full Summer

Weekly this past June through August, I had 40 postcard invitations to parishioners inviting them to the rectory for refreshments and fellowship. A total of 320 invitations were mailed. Each Tuesday I had the pleasure for visiting with parishioners and they come to know each other better. The gatherings were a wonderful opportunity to listen, learn more about the parish and enjoy your company. I look forward to next summer when invitations will again go out to those who have not yet received an invitation. Our parish has approximately 875 households so it may take two summers.

St. Patrick's Garage Sale is famous in the Twin Cities and suburbs! In the name of the parish, I would like to thank the many generous donations which makes this possible, the laborers who generously spent many hours and days preparing for and working the sale, and the committee who helped organize and keep track of the plethora of details needed to keep it safe and successful. The Sale was an opportunity for us as a parish to work together, reconnect after the pandemic, make memories, and provide thousands of items for shoppers. Many people who are unable to join in have fondly recalled to me memories of working the sale and being part of this parish community. From all reports, this was the most successful garage sale and a full report is forthcoming.
Thank you to all who were part of this event.

Respectfully,
Fr. Kuss, Pastor
