STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

“The harvest is rich,” Jesus tells the seventy-two in today’s Gospel, “but the workers are few.” The situation is the same today. How can I help with God’s harvest? Am I called into the field? Am I one who could provide food or shelter or wages to those who toil in the fields of the Lord?

Marriage preparation is required. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 at least 8 months in advance.

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

LPI GOSPEL MEDITATION—JULY 6th

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, “Racism is today’s great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it.” I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don’t we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus’ words this week help. He says, “Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven” (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir

DON'T LET CHILDREN GO HUNGRY—TELL THE ADMINISTRATION TO REINSTATE FOOD PROGRAMS

Ask your members of Congress to insist that the administration reverse the terminations of Catholic Relief Services' Food for Progress and McGovern-Dole Food for Education programs, to continue lifesaving and life-affirming food aid.

The Trump administration has terminated all but two of Catholic Relief Services' (CRS) McGovern-Dole Food for Education school feeding programs—cutting off daily meals for nearly 800,000 children in 11 countries beginning in July. For many, this was their only meal of the day. Without these meals, children will be forced to learn on empty stomachs, putting their health and futures at risk.

Your voice is urgently needed so we can continue to work for a world where no child goes hungry. Reach out to Congress, and please share the resources found at www.archspm.org/crs-action-alert.

JOIN THE PASSPORT ADVENTURE!

We invite you to participate this summer in the archdiocesan passport adventure culminating in an ice cream social with the Archbishop. Become an Archdiocesan Jubilee Pilgrim by visiting seven or more parishes in our archdiocese. We encourage you to include our Jubilee co-cathedrals: the Cathedral of Saint Paul and the Basilica of Saint Mary, and look for the Jubilee Cross in each of them. Visit one of our oldest, newest, or newly renovated churches. Participate in a Mass that expands your liturgical experience. For details, download the passport at archspm.org/passport. Make this a summer filled with blessings as a pilgrim. The ice cream social with the archbishop will take place on Sunday, October 12th on the lawn of the Cathedral after the 8:00 a.m., 10:00 a.m., and noon Masses.

PRESCHOOL POSITION OPENINGS AT OUR PRESCHOOL

We are seeking a full-time, qualified, energetic, and faith-filled Lead Preschool Teacher, Assistant Preschool Teacher, and two part-time Teacher's Aides to join our growing early childhood program in a new preschool—Guardian Angels Catholic Preschool, opening in autumn of 2025. Interested? Know a friend or relative who would do well in these capacities? Please see or refer others to our website under preschool at www.gachaska.org/preschool for details and our job postings. Thank you so much and let's pray for the success of our preschool!

SUMMER IS ON ITS WAY—AND SO IS GARDEN SEASON!

Bountiful Basket welcomes fruits, vegetables, and herbs from local gardens—every donation makes a difference. Sharing a portion of your harvest is a simple yet powerful way to support your neighbors with the nourishment they deserve. Thank you for planting hope and growing kindness in our community!
