EXCERPTS FROM THE LECTIONARY FOR MASS ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

First Reading: The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. (Acts 4:32)

Psalm: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting. (Ps 118) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. (1 Jn 5:3-4)

Gospel: On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20:19)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide.

The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend, with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?" My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns — and took the time to answer them.

Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled — and perhaps a bit terrified — he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires.

Thursday: St. Stanislaus, Bishop and Martyr

Saturday: St. Martin I, Pope and Martyr

Next Sunday: 3rd Sunday of Easter

Prayer for the Second Sunday of Easter

Dear Jesus, As you greeted your disciples after you rose, fill us too, with your peace. As you breathed your spirit on them, breathe on us, too. As your presence was known to Thomas, make it known to us, too. Help us to live in your peace, power, and presence. Amen.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear how the early Christians lived in unity and holiness, bearing witness to Jesus, and living in community as friends. Which of these traits do you see at work in your faith community?

Second Reading: John teaches his community that our faith in Jesus helps us "conquer the world." What struggles are you facing that you need to confront and defeat?

Gospel: The risen Jesus meets Thomas in the midst of his doubt and encourages him to believe. Who could you encourage this week to have faith in the resurrection of Jesus?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Should a Catholic Pursue an Annulment

Question: After a civil divorce, is a Catholic obligated to pursue an annulment?

Answer: Many Catholics are not exactly sure what an annulment does.

An annulment does not deny that a marriage took place, nor does it deny that there once was love. It does not mean that people say anything untrue, such as they never loved each other or that everything in their marriage was wrong. An annulment does not negate children, nor make them illegitimate.

An annulment addresses the spiritual aspect of marriage. In effect, an annulment says that at the time of the wedding, there was either something present or something absent that prevented the sacrament from taking place. It is a spiritual determination that, if granted in the affirmative, allows a person to marry in the Church.

Annulments have no legal standing and are unable to be used in a civil court. Therefore, a Catholic has no moral obligation to pursue an annulment. However, when the tragedy of divorce occurs, and there is no hope for reconciliation, annulments may help bring some spiritual closure to a person's life. Some people have found the process to be healing and others have found it to be difficult. Speak to your priest or a member of the Diocesan Tribunal staff to decide what is best for you.

NEW SCHOOL ELEVATOR

An elevator was recently installed in our school that will be instrumental in assisting anyone with mobility issues as well as with moving supplies and equipment. We thank Father Mark for his approval and support and Principal Martin for her coordination efforts.

The project could not have been completed without the outstanding work of two parishioners. Don Campbell spearheaded efforts with the elevator company and was the liaison with primary contractor, Philip Imhoff.

Don's expertise and diligence were critical for completing the job with needed safety features at a reasonable cost. We thank Don for his wonderful volunteer work.

Philip was able to overcome major design challenges with the elevator shaft to ensure compatibility with the elevator. He spent numerous hours without pay to prepare the elevator shaft prior to the elevator delivery date. The project could not have been completed without Philip's commercial construction background and countless volunteer working hours.

Please be sure to thank these two parishioners for their outstanding work on this needed project.

The Rosary: A Special Way to Pray

Join Brother Francis in this entertaining and guidance-filled presentation that will inspire children to deepen their faith by praying the Rosary!

Why Catholics believe in "life everlasting"

The Catholic Church cares about every BODY. Think of relics and funerals—reverence for our bodies and the body's of holy people is part of being Catholic. But why? We find the answer at the end of the Creed: "I believe in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting." That's a pretty strong statement and it's founded on Jesus. Because Jesus rose from the dead, we can look forward to our own body's being raised at the end of time. Pretty cool, right?

Not Just a Legal Transaction | Lector: Salvation | Episode 5

After the Fall, each person is born not only with the stain of sin on their soul but also with a fallen human nature. Thanks be to God that his gift of salvation not only frees us from Original Sin but also transforms us from the inside out, healing the root of our brokenness: our hearts. As we will see in this session, salvation is not simply a legal transaction by which we are declared righteous, but by the gift of God's Spirit we are actually made righteous.

Q: "Does Confession give people the idea that its all right to sin as long as you're sorry later?" — Emily F., 15

A: There's no reason it should. People who think that way are mistaken, either due to ignorance or choice. Confession means God's forgiveness is available if we repent, not that it's okay to sin so long as you repent. Would you intentionally break your arm because you knew a doctor could fix it later?

We should never sin thinking we needn't worry because God will forgive us later. That itself is the sin of presumption, presuming God's mercy regardless of His Commandments. Sin involves turning our backs on God in some way. We should never try to "use" God by turning away from Him now assuming later we shall turn back to Him. Why? First, because that casts doubt about the sincerity of our later repentance. True repentance involves genuine sorrow for having sinned and the willingness never to do it again. How likely is it that we shall truly be repentant — sorry for having sinned to begin with — if all along we thought to ourselves that we would enjoy sin now and repent later? Second, how do we know that "later" will ever come? Death could come at any time. What if it comes before you are sorry or repentant? It is very dangerous to live a life of serious and frequent sin. Sin is very "attractive" (although superficial) and can be quite addictive. One may get caught up in a certain way of living without even knowing the magnitude of the problem. One could get hooked on a particular sin and not know how enslaved he or she really is to that sin. We should be constantly on guard against sin.

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.

PRAYER LINE To place someone on the Prayer Line, please call Phyllis Lauer at 882-6367. You need not give your name, just let us know who we can pray for. Prayer requests may also be sent to ssppboonvillemo@gmail.com. If you want to be a part of our e-mail prayer chain, contact Russell Gerling at rgerling@iland.net. Prayer request cards can be found at each of the church entrances. You may put them in the collection basket.
