First Reading: "There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved." (Acts 4:12)

Psalm: The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone. (Ps 118) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. (1 Jn 3:2)

Gospel: Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." (Jn 10:11)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal's wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn't care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don't know. But I do know, if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog. No offense, Libby.

How passionately Jesus wants us to know him and his willingness to die for us! This week He says, "I know my own and my own know me," and "I lay down my life for the sheep." Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and he has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and his saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about his love. He never ceases to lay down his life for us.

— Father John Muir

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Peter bore witness to the Sanhedrin that it was the crucified and risen Jesus who healed the crippled man and through whom we are saved. Have you ever told someone else about your faith in Jesus?

Second Reading: John tells us that as believers we are destined one day to be like the resurrected and glorified Jesus. How do you think we can best prepare for such a future?

Gospel: As the "Good Shepherd," Jesus speaks of the power given to him by the Father to lay down his life for his sheep. What could you do this week for the benefit of another?

Prayer of the Good Shepherd

Dear Lord, You are my Shepherd, a Good Shepherd, who leads in ways beyond my understanding.
Guide me in the paths You would have me go. Amen.

Tuesday Bible Study Group

Our Tuesday morning Bible study group is poised to do a deep dive into the Book of James. They meet at 10 a.m. in the church. Interested in learning more? Contact Roz Gordon at 660-537-0265.

If you haven't made your appointment to have your family photo taken for our new directory, call one of our coordinators to see what slots are available: Cheri Jones, 660-621-2113; Roz Gordon, 660-537-0265; or Annamarie Smith, 660-621-2073.

"There is no salvation through anyone else."

Let us pray for those who are called to follow the Lord as a priest or religious brother or sister that they may generously say YES. Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (573) 635-9127 x210 or via email:

vocations@diojeffcity.org.

Today, the Church throughout the world prays for vocations:

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

WE CURRENTLY HAVE 10 SEMINARIANS studying in our diocese. Please pray for an increase in Holy Vocations to the priesthood so that the Holy Mass and the sacraments may continue to be readily available in our parishes.

Please keep our seminarians in your prayers: Rev. Mr. Christopher Hoffman, Gregory Clever, Jacob Hartman, Shane Kliethermes, Bryce Smith, Gabriel Eckstein, Gage Neisen, John-Paul McGuire, David Cahill, and Luke Dalton.

VOCATION PRAYER: Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your call and the courage required to overcome all obstacles to their vocation.

Give the parents faith, love, and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to God's service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood and religious life.

Let your example and that of Your Blessed Mother and St. Joseph encourage both young people and parents and let Your grace sustain them. Amen.

The National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will be traveling through the diocese the first week of July! The Junipero Serra Route is the longest of the four paths pilgrims will travel with the Blessed Sacrament across the United States this summer. This route will stop in Sedalia, Pilot Grove, Boonville, Columbia, Jefferson City, and Starkenburg.

There will opportunities to worship:

Encounter the abundant love of God in the Eucharist at one of the community events:

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Dale Gordon, husband of Roz Gordon, who passed away April 10.
"May the souls of your faithful departed, through Your mercy Oh God, rest in peace, and may their families and friends receive comfort from the Lord."

The Cemetery Board would like to thank Jared Babbit and A Cut Above Tree Service for donating their services in the removal of a dead tree at the cemetery. Jared's willingness to help in keeping our cemetery attractive is greatly appreciated!

Q: "Does God forgive us even when we don't forgive and forget ourselves?" — Erinn T., 16

A: Yes, assuming we went to Confession or made an Act of Perfect Contrition (if we were in an emergency situation). There are a few reasons why people don't "forgive themselves" after Confession. Some people suffer from scrupulosity, which is a disease of the soul where the person confessing never "feels" forgiven. This can often be remedied by spiritual or secular counseling. Some others simply need more catechetical instruction on the power of the Sacrament and how God completely blots out our sin when we seek forgiveness.

It's important to remember the Sacraments transmit God's saving grace whether we "feel" it or not. As long as we truly have contrition for (and repent of) our sins, God will forgive us.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Reading the Bible

Question: What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer: Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading. These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday. Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

There are many Catholic Bible apps (some free, some cost)!

We will tackle one of the most confusing topics in all of theology. The descent of Jesus Christ into Hell. What theologians call the "Harrowing of Hell".

We will go over what actually happened when Christ descended into Hell after his death (before he rose 3 days later), why it was necessary, and the layers of Hell.

Fun Fact: Christ only descended into the first layer, scripturally referred to as "Abraham's bosom", also called "Sheol" in Hebrew, or "Limbo" in Latin. This translated to 'limbo', and is where we get the term "Waiting in Limbo". The Old Testament souls bound for heaven were trapped, literally waiting in limbo, for Christ to open the gates.

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.
