First Reading: The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. (Acts 10:45-46)

Psalm: The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. (Ps 98) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. (1 Jn 4:8)

Gospel: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." (Jn 15:13)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, "He is mistaken about our friendship. I don't recall ever having suffered with him." As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I'm not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn't the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JP II? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, "You are my friends if you do what I command you" (John 15:14). In Jesus' life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you'll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you've suffered together a great deal.

— Father John Muir

Bishop McKnight's May Prayer Intention for our Local Church: For those who are preparing for marriage and those who are living the sacrament of Holy Matrimony: May the mutual self-giving of spouses and engaged couples bring new life into our community of faith.

The Pope's May Prayer Intention for the formation of religious and seminarians: We pray that religious women and men, and seminarians, grow in their own vocations through their human, pastoral, spiritual and community formation, leading them to be credible witnesses to the Gospel.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: The Jewish believers who accompanied Peter to the house of Cornelius were "astonished" that Gentiles who had faith in Jesus also received the gift of the Holy Spirit. Have you ever been surprised by what God has done in your life?

Second Reading: John teaches us that the essence of God is love and we are called to love one another. Who might you work on loving this week?

Gospel: Jesus taught his disciples that loving him and loving each other brings "complete joy." What brings you joy in your life?

"I am the way, the truth, and the life." John 14:6

This verse is the basis of each of Confirmation sessions and serves as the structure for the lessons and activities.

The Way is how we pray; The Truth is what Scripture and the Church teaches; The Way is how we live out that message as Disciples of Christ.

The Catholic Church has a rich prayer tradition. The students are learning about a wide variety of ways to pray. A new visual we are using is the "Prayer Pole" in the church hall. The pole is wrapped in chalkboard contact paper. The students are invited to add their intentions, which we include in our community and private prayers.

Q: "Is it a sin to go to Communion after having been sexually active with someone if you ask God for forgiveness in your heart (and not go to Confession?) Will you go to hell for this?" — Name and age withheld

A: To begin, I assume you are not married to the person with whom you are sexually active.

It is a sin to go to Communion if you have serious sin on your soul and have not asked for forgiveness from God through the ordinary means He established — Confession to a priest.

St. Paul says very clearly in his letter to the Corinthian Catholics that a person who "eats the bread and drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord" (1 Cor. 11:27). To someone who lives in the Middle East, the phrase "answer for the body and blood of the Lord" means that a person is guilty of killing the Lord.

St. Paul goes on to say that anyone "who eats and drinks without discerning the body (of the Lord), eats and drinks judgement upon himself" (1 Cor. 11:29). As you see, St. Paul is very serious about the need to be in a state of grace when you receive Eucharist.

If you commit a serious sin, sexual or otherwise, you should ask God for forgiveness immediately. But you should also make every reasonable effort to go to Confession before attending Mass. If you have not received the Sacrament of Reconciliation, you should refrain from receiving Eucharist until you have done so.

You should still attend Mass on Sundays and participate in other aspects of the liturgy, but not receive the Eucharist. You can express repentance by worshipping Him at Mass, taking part in the penitential rite and listening to His Word proclaimed in the readings.

Furthermore, you should seek "spiritual communion" with Jesus at Mass. This is a form of communion with Him through prayer alone, when one cannot approach and receive Jesus in the Eucharist. You should say a prayer like this, "Jesus, I cannot receive You today, but I wish You to dwell in me."

As for whether you'll go to hell, that depends on whether you are in God's friendship when you die. The Bible makes it clear that receiving Communion unworthily is not a small matter. It is a serious sin: sacrilege. Also, we should not presume we can sin habitually and yet still get to heaven.

Bishop W. Shawn McKnight will celebrate the feast of Mary, Mother of the Church, at the National Shrine of Mary, Mother of the Church with a Mass on Monday, May 20 at 6:30 p.m. The Mass will be celebrated at the outdoor shrine, which is adjacent to St. Patrick Catholic Church, 176 Marian Drive in Laurie.

In 2018, Pope Francis gifted the Church with a new feast day: The Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, to be celebrated each year on the day after Pentecost.

The title "Mother of the Church" dates back to the fourth century writings of St. Ambrose of Milan, though. In 1968, Pope Paul VI gave official recognition of the title when he wrote, "The Blessed Mother of God, the New Eve, Mother of the Church, continues in heaven her maternal role with regard to Christ's members, cooperating with the birth and growth of divine life in the souls of the redeemed."

With the summer season beginning Memorial Day weekend, all are invited to worship with the community of the Mothers' Shrine on Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays 8:30 a.m.

More information can be found at mothersshrine.com or by calling 573-374-MARY (6279).

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED: Catholic Faith

Question: My neighbor is just beginning to explore the Catholic faith but was raised agnostic. I grew up believing in God, praying, and attending Mass. How does one start from scratch as an adult to develop a relationship with God?

Answer: Start on a personal level! How did you and your neighbor become friends? How did you begin to discuss such a personal topic as faith? Communication, spending time together, and getting to know each other are essential to forming the bonds of a relationship. Personal prayer is essential to our relationship with God. We can't be close to someone we don't know! Invite your friend to explore the stories of Jesus in the Bible. Introduce them to the lives of the saints, especially ones you think they might be interested in.

Your neighbor might also have questions about the Catholic faith that you don't know how to answer. If your friend hasn't yet enrolled in RCIA classes, invite them to Mass at your parish. Introduce your friend to the faith formation director to make a connection. Personal support can be helpful as well, especially if few of your neighbor's current friends are practicing their faith. Connect your neighbor to other people in your parish living their faith well. The good examples of other faithful people could help your neighbor to feel welcomed and supported. Our Church is vibrant and alive!

Is God calling you to a career in education?

Be a part of something bigger by joining us in building future Disciples of Christ.
