First Reading: "This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other." (Dt 4:39)

Psalm: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. (Ps 33)

Second Reading: For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Rom 8:15)

Gospel: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." (Mt 28:19)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once I was at a meeting with representatives of various religions. On a coffee break, a man from another religion mused to me: "You know, with all our differences, all religions are really about being good people." I lowered my cappuccino and said as warmly as I could, "That's not what mine's about." His quizzical look begged for clarification. "Mine is about plunging into the life of God," I said.

Just before Jesus ascends into heaven, he commands the eleven apostles, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20). The word "baptize" means "to immerse in, to plunge into." It presupposes the use of water. But what does it mean to be immersed in God's name? In the Bible, God's name is identical to God Himself. So, to be baptized into water, using Jesus' formula, is to be plunged into the life of God. Said another way, it is to die with Jesus and rise with him as a member of his body.

The Trinity isn't a doctrine simply to accept and ponder. It's more like an ocean: a mystery into which we are baptized ... inserted, immersed, dunked, plunged. Baptism gives us power to live our lives as beloved children of God, patterned after Jesus himself, who is always with us, until the end of the ages. Hardly the same as being good people. Stranger, but much better.

— Father John Muir

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Moses taught the Israelites the best response we can give to God's fidelity and love is to keep His statutes and commandments. How do you respond to God's generosity in your life?

Second Reading: Paul taught the Romans that as believers we are led by the Spirit of God. Where do you sense God's Spirit leading your family?

Gospel: Jesus's final command to his followers is to make disciples of all nations and baptize them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. How can we encourage others to follow Jesus?

With more than 20 volunteers showing up to work hard Saturday morning, May 11, a huge number of improvements and maintenance projects were accomplished at the church cemetery and in the landscaping at church.

Everything looks FANTASTIC! At the cemetery:

- Sticks & trash were picked up.
- Grass around the headstones was trimmed, swept, blown-off and otherwise cleaned up.
- Recently dug graves were leveled, raked and seeded.

- In the grotto area around Jesus: rock was moved in the flower beds, a weed mat put down, rose bushes were pruned and other vegetation planted. The landscape edging was painted. The dirt buildup on the state of Jesus was scraped off.
- Workers in the shed counted the available grave site flags, separating out the ones needing to be retired. Those flags were sent to Deputy Schanzmeyer. Additional flags were ordered for our veterans' gravesites.

- The shed was organized, swept out and trash was disposed of.
- Additionally, the peeling paint on the shed was scraped round the door and the roof trim, prepping it for a fresh coat of paint.
- Meanwhile, at church, Mary Lea Reuter and crew tackled the landscaping, continuing efforts to enhance these areas.

REMINDER: Flags will be placed on our veterans' graves, Thursday, May 23 at 6:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to help.

To become involved in these ministries, please contact Alex Smith at 660-888-3248 to help with projects at the cemetery, and Mary Lea Reuter at 660-882-6468 to assist with the landscaping at church.

Thanks again to all who helped! Your efforts are a blessing to us all!

Kings

1 and 2 Kings | Old Testament: Book Overviews | The Bible Project

Watch our overview video on the books of 1-2 Kings, which breaks down the literary design of the book and its flow of thought. In Kings, David's son Solomon leads Israel to greatness, only to fail and lead Israel to a civil war and ultimately towards destruction and exile.

A Bible Study on the Joyful Mysteries: The Visitation

Have you ever wanted to grow in your understanding and devotion to the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary? Join Dr. Ben Akers and professors from the Augustine Institute Graduate School as they walk through these Biblical mysteries and seek to grow in understanding and love for Christ through them.

Saint Justin Martyr | Catholic Saints

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss St. Justin Martyr, an early Church martyr who wrote several significant Christian apologetic works. He sought the truth in other philosophies, drawing out what was true and good and relating it to Jesus Christ.

Please consider donating gently used children's books to the parish office for our prison ministry.

Our prison ministry is involved with the Story Link program. Inmates who have earned the privilege are invited to read aloud a book that is recorded. Both the recording and the book are sent to the prisoner's child/grandchild. It's a really meaningful way for the children/grandchildren of inmates to have a connection with their incarcerated family members. All donations -- from early readers to chapter books -- are gratefully accepted!

Q: "Do any other Christian faiths have communion?" — Elisabeth G., 18

A: Most Christian churches have some form of communion. But, excluding a few rare exceptions, only the Eastern Orthodox, have the same Eucharist as the Roman Catholic Church — the Body and Blood of Christ made present under the "appearances" of bread and wine. Like Catholic priests, Orthodox priests have apostolic succession and valid priestly orders, so they are able to change bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ.

Most Anglicans (and their American counterparts, Episcopalians) and Lutherans believe in a form of the Real Presence — that Jesus' body and blood are present along with the "substance" of bread and wine — a view the Catholic Church rejects. Most Evangelical or Fundamentalist Protestants deny any form of "Real Presence" of Jesus in Communion. They teach that Jesus is either only "spiritually" present, as He is at other times when Christians gather, or symbolically present, with the bread and wine simply representing Him. The Catholic Church also rejects these views as incomplete at best.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED: Deacons

Question: At a parish council meeting, our pastor mentioned the need for deacons. It is something I am considering. How do I know if I have a vocation? What steps should I take next?

Answer: Any and all gifts that the Holy Spirit gives to the church are for the good of the community. As members of the Body of Christ, what one member does affects all. What the body does also affects each member. A vocation or call to ministry is tested and verified by the church. Through prayer, instruction, and service, a vocation is tested, and then acknowledged by the official call to orders or to service. If you are considering becoming a deacon, the first step would be to talk to your pastor. He will be able to give you more specific information on the program in your diocese, what is expected of you, and how you apply. You might also begin to see a spiritual director, someone who can help you with your faith journey and vocation discernment. They do so by focusing on prayer, your relationship with God, and spiritual practices. Finally, you'll need to see the diocesan vocation director in charge of deacons to apply. Best wishes!

PRO-LIFE UPDATES

Baby Shower

Celebration: This year our whole parish family will celebrate the birth of babies we have been praying for during the last 9 months of our spiritual adoption program for the unborn. We will celebrate with a baby shower the weekend of June 1 & 2 after Mass at the front entrance of church extending into the cry room.

We will have baskets available at the entrances of church and in the school office area two weeks before the baby shower weekend for anyone who cannot attend and would like to participate. Baby shower gifts needed are as follows: baby lotion, head-to-toe body wash and shampoo, nail clippers, diaper rash ointment, newborn diapers to size 5, infant sleepers through size 3, and infant clothing through size 2.

Items will be taken to My Life Clinic and St. Raymond's. We toured the centers that do so much to support parents of an unplanned pregnancy with no cost: sonograms, counseling, educating parents on caring for their baby, helping mothers get jobs, managing a household, cooking and a place to stay as needed.

Call Connie at 660-621-2787 for any questions.

Thanks for all you do for life!

(Due to patient confidentiality, the parish is not automatically notified of hospital admissions.) Homebound parishioners can be added to our list as needed.

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.

PRAYER LINE To place someone on the Prayer Line, please call Phyllis Lauer at 882-6367. You need not give your name, just let us know who we can pray for. Prayer requests may also be sent to ssppboonvillemo@gmail.com. If you want to be a part of our e-mail prayer chain, contact Russell Gerling at rgerling@iland.net. Prayer request cards can be found at each of the church entrances. You may put them in the collection basket.

PROLIFE GROUP Contact Connie Gerling, 660-621-2787, to get involved.

REDUCED GLUTEN HOSTS are available at each Mass. Please check-in at the sacristy so the priest will know to have it available. You will need to go to the center aisle to receive communion from Father.
