THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."
- Mk 14:23-25

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPH

First Reading: "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his." (Ex 24:8)

Psalm: I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord. (Ps 116)

Second Reading: How much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal

Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God. (Heb 9:14)

Gospel: "Take it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." (Mk 14:22-24)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The best way to understand the Eucharist is to recall God's long, careful teaching process beginning in the Old Testament. This week in Exodus 24, we learn the basic pattern. Moses reads the dictates of God's law to the people, who profess their allegiance to it. Then Moses takes representatives of Israel's twelve tribes and splashes the sacrificed blood of animals in two directions: on the altar and on the people. It's clear and serious business: clear, because the participants are entering a blood-bond with God Himself; serious, because the dead animals symbolize the life-and-death stakes at play.

Many centuries later, God uses the experience at Sinai to teach us something new. At the Last Supper, like a new Moses, Jesus proposes to "pour out" blood as a new covenant. It will land on the altar of the cross and the lips of his disciples. They have promised to be obedient to him who is God's law in flesh. This renews and elevates the breath-taking romance God wants with His people, unfolding from Sinai to this Supper. The Body and Blood of Christ is the sacrificial action whereby this covenant is strengthened.

How hopeful that, like us, the Israelites and the apostles repeatedly fail to live up to their promises and discover that the blood of the covenant continually renews and refreshes them. Today the blood of Christ faithfully flows, to unite and renew, moving us forward toward where our great teacher is taking us. This week, we should say a renewed "amen" to God who so carefully teaches us how to be one with Him in this new covenant.

— Father John Muir

First Reading: We hear the Israelites' enthusiastic commitment to the covenant at Mount Sinai with their words: "We will do everything that the Lord has told us." What are you passionately committed to in your life?

Second Reading: Hebrews teaches us that through his death (Jesus's blood), believers receive the promised eternal inheritance. How often do you think about "eternity?"

Gospel: Jesus taught his disciples that through his death, his body and blood would be shed for many. How should we show gratitude for such a sacrifice?

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of June 02, 2024

The Triumph of the Immaculate Heart

We await the final promise of Our Lady at Fatima as we continue to respond to her requests to atone for sinners and make reparation, urgently needed today.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus

Using passages from Sacred Scripture, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers discuss the Church's teaching on the Sacred Heart and the background of the devotion.

St. Boniface | Catholic Saints

Known as the "Apostle to Germany," the bishop and martyr St. Boniface worked tirelessly to renew the Church in Germany. Although his efforts ultimately bore great fruit and helped to recenter the faith of the Germans, St. Boniface often felt like a failure in his missionary work.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription.

Get Involved...

Please consider donating gently used children's books to the parish office for our prison ministry.

Our prison ministry is involved with the Story Link program. Inmates who have earned the privilege are invited to read aloud a book that is recorded. Both the recording and the book are sent to the prisoner's child/grandchild. It's a really meaningful way for the children/grandchildren of inmates to have a connection with their incarcerated family members. All donations -- from early readers to chapter books -- are gratefully accepted!

Q: "Do any other Christian faiths have communion?" — Elisabeth G., 18

A: Most Christian churches have some form of communion. But, excluding a few rare exceptions, only the Eastern Orthodox, have the same Eucharist as the Roman Catholic Church — the Body and Blood of Christ made present under the "appearances" of bread and wine. Like Catholic priests, Orthodox priests have apostolic succession and valid priestly orders, so they are able to change bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ.

Most Anglicans (and their American counterparts, Episcopalians) and Lutherans believe in a form of the Real Presence — that Jesus' body and blood are present along with the "substance" of bread and wine — a view the Catholic Church rejects. Most Evangelical or Fundamentalist Protestants deny any form of "Real Presence" of Jesus in Communion. They teach that Jesus is either only "spiritually" present, as He is at other times when Christians gather, or symbolically present, with the bread and wine simply representing Him. The Catholic Church also rejects these views as incomplete at best.

*Reprinted from "Did Adam & Eve Have Belly Buttons?"
by Matthew J. Pinto*

"Christ came as high priest."

Jesus the Eternal Word continues to call many to lives of holiness as priests. Could you be one of them? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (573) 635-9127 x210 or via email: vocations@diojeffcity.org.

Pastoral Council discussed the Heritage Days parade at their last meeting and are inviting any volunteers that might be interested in:

- Walking in the parade representing SSPP or
- Having a booth in front of Boonville Abstract, handing out water and flyers about our parish and Mass times.

The parade will be Saturday, June 21. More information can be found at: boonvillemochamber.com/heritage-days

Please call the church office, 882-6468, if you are interested in organizing this event!

The Marianist Retreat & Conference Center is hosting the "Hearts of Mary Retreat" Saturday, June 15 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. This is a one-day retreat for mothers and daughters. This retreat is designed to help mothers (biological and spiritual) and their daughters (biological and spiritual) to explore how to apply the love and virtues of Mary & Marianist spiritually to our modern lives. #### WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED: Deacons

Question: At a parish council meeting, our pastor mentioned the need for deacons. It is something I am considering. How do I know if I have a vocation? What steps should I take next?

Answer: Any and all gifts that the Holy Spirit gives to the church are for the good of the community. As members of the Body of Christ, what one member does affects all. What the body does also affects each member. A vocation or call to ministry is tested and verified by the church. Through prayer, instruction, and service, a vocation is tested, and then acknowledged by the official call to orders or to service.

If you are considering becoming a deacon, the first step would be to talk to your pastor. He will be able to give you more specific information on the program in your diocese, what is expected of you, and how you apply. You might also begin to see a spiritual director, someone who can help you with your faith journey and vocation discernment. They do so by focusing on prayer, your relationship with God, and spiritual practices. Finally, you'll need to see the diocesan vocation director in charge of deacons to apply. Best wishes!

PRO-LIFE UPDATES

Baby Shower

Celebration: This year our whole parish family will celebrate the birth of babies we have been praying for during the last 9 months of our spiritual adoption program for the unborn. We will celebrate with a baby shower the weekend of June 1 & 2 after Mass at the front entrance of church extending into the cry room.

We will have baskets available at the entrances of church and in the school office area two weeks before the baby shower weekend for anyone who cannot attend and would like to participate. Baby shower gifts needed are as follows: baby lotion, head-to-toe body wash and shampoo, nail clippers, diaper rash ointment, newborn diapers to size 5, infant sleepers through size 3, and infant clothing through size 2.

Items will be taken to My Life Clinic and St. Raymond's. We toured the centers that do so much to support parents of an unplanned pregnancy with no cost: sonograms, counseling, educating parents on caring for their baby, helping mothers get jobs, managing a household, cooking and a place to stay as needed.

Call Connie at 660-621-2787 for any questions.

Thanks for all you do for life!

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.
