10th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."
- Mk 3:33-35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

First Reading: "I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers." (Gn 3:15)

Psalm: With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption. (Ps 130)

Second Reading: Since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke, we too believe and therefore we speak. (2 Cor 4:13)

Gospel: And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him. (Mk 3:26)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: "How can Satan cast out Satan?" To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we're honest, our response to some degree is: "How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!" But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here's what I mean.

Satanas names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. "I'll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy." "She's already trying to get ahead of me." "That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs." And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind's sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus' cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of "casting out Satan by Satan" and ushers in a new one he calls "the Kingdom of God." He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the "stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house." This week let's notice the ways we "cast out Satan by Satan," and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand. — Father John Muir

Bishop McKnight's June Prayer Intention for our Local Church: Four of our seminarians and deacon candidates preparing for the sacrament of Holy Orders: May they follow the example of the Good Shepherd, who gave his life for his sheep.

The Pope's June Prayer Intention for migrants fleeing their homes: "We pray that migrants fleeing from war or hunger, forced to undertake journeys full of danger and violence, find welcome and new opportunities in the countries that receive them."

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear how Adam and Eve disobeyed God and listened to the serpent, who tricked them into eating the forbidden fruit. How can you more intentionally listen to God's voice this week?

Second Reading: Paul urges the Corinthians to be confident that despite our current afflictions and discouragements, God has given us an abundance of grace and has prepared for us eternal glory. Who might need to hear this message of hope from you?

Gospel: As he began his public ministry in Galilee, Jesus redefined "family" as whoever does the will of God. What would you say is "the will of God?"

The Three Secrets to Sharing the Faith by Trent Horn

Want to tell others about your Catholic Faith, but don't know where to start? Afraid you're not smart enough, knowledgeable enough, or outgoing enough? Don't worry, says Catholic Answers apologist Trent Horn. With a few simple tips and a little practice, anyone can be an effective apostle and evangelist. In The Three Secrets to Sharing the Faith,

Sacrifice | The Catholic Parent | Episode 4

It's an understatement to say marriage demands a lot. Family life and raising children demand even more. Isn't fulfilling those duties enough? Why does the Church teach that we should fast, and what does that mean practically? In this episode, Sr. Rachel Marie discusses these questions alongside the real-life witness of Catholic families. Turning to the story of St. Gianna Beretta Molla will leave you with the confidence needed to practice fasting as a family.

The Ballad of Barnabus Bundle | Benjamin Cello | Episode 1

When Aunt Rhody loses Old Gray Goose and her potato crop too, Benjamin Cello breaks into his savings to help his friend in her time of need. Along the way, Aunt Rhody recalls the tragic tale of greedy Barnabus Bundle who tore down his barns to build bigger ones.

Q: "Is Christ more present in the Eucharist than He is in society?" — Ravi D., 17

A: First we should be clear how Jesus is present in society. Jesus is present in society because He is God, and God is everywhere and in everything by His power, essence and knowledge. Jesus is also present in society because each person is made in God's image and Jesus is the supreme embodiment of that image.

That is why He could say of the poor: "Whatever you do to the least of these ... you do to me" (Matt. 25:40). And Jesus is also present in society through His Holy Spirit calling all to communion with the Father in the Church. Finally, Christ is present in society insofar as He is in the Church herself: in His Word, in His people, in His priests, and above all, in the Holy Eucharist.

In the Eucharist, however, Christ is present in an even more profound way than how He is present in society. His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity are present. Whereas, in society, He's present in a purely spiritual manner. Though the Eucharistic Presence of Christ is, in a sense, concealed by the appearances of bread and wine, Jesus Christ is really, truly and substantially present there. This is why we genuflect before the tabernacle at church — Christ is present there uniquely. This is why we show reverence when approaching Holy Communion. This is why we have Eucharistic adoration — worshipping the Eucharistic Christ as God. And this is why we kneel at the consecration — bending our knees before the God who made us.

How great a mystery it is that in the Eucharist, the Creator, Savior and Lord of the universe comes to us, His mere creatures, in the form of food for our bodies, though He is truly food for our souls as well.

"Finding Sanctuary"

with Jennifer Hubbard

July 23, 2024 | 11:30 am

Where is God when the innocent suffer?

Jennifer Hubbard began to grapple with the question in 2012 when her six-year-old daughter Catherine was killed in the massacre at Sandy Hook Elementary School. In the depths of her grief, Hubbard found sanctuary, creating a place of healing for her family and their community and fulfilling her daughter's dream.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

God in Daily Life

Question: How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer: Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image.

When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God!

Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday.

We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives!

MINISTRY TO THE HOSPITALIZED AND HOMEBOUND Please contact the office when a parishioner is hospitalized or sick. Father will schedule a visit and communion call, as appropriate. Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.

PRAYER LINE To place someone on the Prayer Line, please call Phyllis Lauer at 882-6367. You need not give your name, just let us know who we can pray for. Prayer requests may also be sent to ssppboonvillemo@gmail.com. If you want to be a part of our e-mail prayer chain, contact Russell Gerling at rgerling@iland.net. Prayer request cards can be found at each of the church entrances. You may put them in the collection basket.

PROLIFE GROUP Contact Connie Gerling, 660-621-2787, to get involved.

REDUCED GLUTEN HOSTS are available at each Mass. Please check-in at the sacristy so the priest will know to have it available. You will need to go to the center aisle to receive communion from Father.
