First Reading: And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. (Ez 17:24)

Psalm: Lord, it is good to give thanks to you. (Ps 92)

Second Reading: Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. (2 Cor 5:9)

Gospel: "It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants." (Mk 4:31-32)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

My mother and father fell in love with each other rather quickly. It was only a span of two months between their first meeting and quiet betrothal. They waited for a significant period of time before going public with the happy news. It simply wasn't time. Love's strength and speed can sprout scandal in public. Until the big reveal, they gave the outside world only little hints, gestures, and riddles.

Something like this — but even more wonderful — is at play when Mark says of Jesus, "he did not speak to them without a parable, but to his disciples in private he explained everything." Jesus is the long-awaited messiah-king, but his identity as the Lord and Son of God is so new, surprising, and scandalous to human ears that the big reveal would have to wait. Thus, his parables are riddles, meant to conceal more than reveal. Even the disciples — who hear things explained directly — barely grasp what he is up to. It's only at the cross that Jesus' love for Israel and the world is explicitly revealed. Until then, much stays hidden and comes in riddles.

So it goes with us, too. I wonder at times why doesn't the Lord just speak to us directly in prayer about what we should do, or how to fix our problems. Or why doesn't he reveal himself directly to powerful leaders who are slow to act? Why does he allow life so often to be confounding, contradictory, and crazy? Because it simply isn't time yet. One glorious day, it will be. Until then, he teaches us in riddles, and only sometimes explains them.

— Father John Muir

Gospel: We hear how Jesus often spoke in parables about the kingdom of God, stretching people's thinking and imaginations. Where do you see the kingdom of God at work?

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of June 16, 2024

To Be a Pilgrim

An ancient trail of pilgrimage runs through south-east England, a pathway along which so much of English identity converges. It is the way of St. Thomas Becket, the martyr who stood up to a King and inspired Christendom. It is a route that drew countless pilgrims in ages past, captured the imagination of Chaucer, and interest in this pilgrim path is strongly reviving again today.

Saint Thomas More: The Age of the Author

This engaging series delves into the lives of the saints who led the Catholic Counter-Reformation. In this episode, learn about St. Thomas More, a patient witness to the faith who endured a heroic martyrdom at the hands of Henry VIII.

Episode 124: Dryness in Prayer

Probably the most important relationship in our life is our relationship with God, and we are building that through prayer. Prayer is real — it's for everyone, but we know that prayer is not always easy. Sometimes it can even be really hard.

Get Involved...

Q: "What is confirmation?" — Tara O., 14

A: Confirmation is one of the three Sacraments of Initiation; the others are Baptism and the Holy Eucharist. These Sacraments make us part of — or more fully part of — Christ's Church.

Confirmation is the Sacrament by which the Holy Spirit comes to us in a radical way after Baptism, to strengthen us ("confirmation" means "strengthening"), to increase and deepen the grace of our Baptism and to make us "soldiers of Christ."

Through the Sacrament of Confirmation, we are specially equipped to spread and defend the Faith by word and deed, as witnesses of Jesus. The bishop usually confers the Sacrament, though priests can also do so with permission.

The minister of the Sacrament extends his hands over them and anoints them with holy oil. Oil is used because it is a symbol of strength. In ancient times, athletes used to oil to limber up their muscles to prepare for the contest. In spiritual terms, we are being prepared for the spiritual contest ahead of us.

All too often, young people are apathetic to Confirmation. Perhaps it's because of poor catechetical instruction of because they are overstimulated with television, movies and popular culture.

Either way, they need to know that the things of God are not to be taken lightly.

I suspect if we get to heaven, we will see the crucial role our Confirmation played in bringing us to eternal peace and happiness with God.

Our ProLife Group is so grateful to our parish family for all the prayers for the unborn babies this school year and for the baby items and cash donations brought to the baby showers the weekend of June 1 and 2!

We divided the gifts and $250 between St. Raymond's Society and My Life Clinic. Both places were so grateful for everything. Then, on Wednesday, June 5, more items were in the baskets! (Pictured above.)

Plans are to continue helping mothers with nine months of prayer, starting in September with a baby shower to follow in May.

We welcome any suggestions regarding what our parish can do for mothers in need of help before and after the birth of a child. If you know a parent in need of resources, please call Connie at 660-621-2787.

"Finding Sanctuary" with Jennifer Hubbard July 23, 2024 | 11:30 am

Where is God when the innocent suffer?

Jennifer Hubbard began to grapple with the question in 2012 when her six-year-old daughter Catherine was killed in the massacre at Sandy Hook Elementary School. In the depths of her grief, Hubbard found sanctuary, creating a place of healing for her family and their community and fulfilling her daughter's dream.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Gospel Differences

Question: Why do the Gospels differ in their details? I was surprised to learn that not all of the Gospels tell the same stories, for example, the Nativity. Doesn't this take away from their credibility?

Answer: Take any event that happens, from family trips to national politics, and ask two or three different people to explain what happened. You will get a different version of the same story.

People tend to tell the story from their perspective, and past experience shades what we recall and how we recall it. Our choice of words and what details we leave in or out is also influenced by the audience who is listening to our tales.

The Gospel writers are no different. Each one tells the story of Jesus from their own perspective. Versions differ in some details, not because one is true and the other is not, but because each Gospel writer, or Evangelist, has a different theological point to communicate as well as a different audience for whom he is writing.

He picks and chooses the details of his Gospel based on what message he is preaching, what his audience may already know, and what message they need to hear.

The various details of the Gospels point more to their authenticity as a record of the church's experience and understanding of Jesus. In a good study Bible, the background notes for each Gospel contain a lot of information that helps us better understand each Evangelist and his message.
