First Reading: But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world. (Wis 2:24)

Psalm: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Ps 30)

Second Reading: Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. (2 Cor 8:13-14)

Gospel: He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" (Mk 5:41)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, He does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead 12-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Our wisdom writer teaches us that God did not create death, rather, death entered the world from the envy of the devil. How should a Christian think about death?

Second Reading: Paul encourages the community of believers in Corinth to share with others out of their abundance as a means of establishing equality. What could you share with others among your family and friends this week?

Gospel: Mark presents us with independent healing stories of how faith in Jesus saves. What needs healing in your life?

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Heavenly Father, Thank you for the gift of Your Son Jesus Christ, who is truly present in the Eucharist.

In our day, many Catholics either do not know or do not believe that the bread and wine become Your Son Jesus, truly present to us in His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

We pray that there may be a reawakening to Christ’s presence in the Eucharist, as He dwells, truly present, in all the tabernacles throughout the world.

We ask these prayers through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

“She fell down before Jesus and told Him the whole truth.”

Let us lay down our lives before Jesus and share the whole truth with Him. He may be calling you to die to self and live for Him as a priest, sister, or brother. Listen.

Q: “What is considered a valid Catholic marriage in the eyes of the Catholic Church Does the ceremony need to be officiated by a priest?”
— Susan K., 17

A: There are several components that need to be present in order for a marriage to be valid. They are “capacity,” “consent,” and “form.” If one of these is missing, for either of the two parties, the marriage is not valid. Let me explain. “Capacity” is the question of whether the two are able to get married. Impediments that would go against capacity include one’s age or whether the person is already married. “Consent” is the question of whether the two actually mean the words they are saying in the ceremony. If someone is planning not to allow the children to be raised Catholic or is planning to “try out” marriage to see if it works, they are not fully consenting and the marriage would probably be invalid. Psychological immaturity or a gross misunderstanding of the nature of marriage are also conditions that may hinder one’s valid consent.

Approximately two-thirds of all annulments in recent years have been granted because of a lack of consent on the part of at least one of the two parties.

“Form” is the question of how the marriage is contracted. A Catholic marriage before a justice of the peace is not valid. A marriage without the official representative of the Church and two witnesses would not be valid.

There is a book called “100 Answers to Your Questions on Annulments” by Dr. Edward Peters, a canon and civil lawyer, which offers clear answers on marriage and annulments. If you want more specifics, refer to that book.

My name is Paige Bartow, I’m 21 years old, and this is my third year as a Totus Tuus missionary! I live in Jefferson City, and I’m a full time preschool aide at St. Peter’s school. I’ve always loved singing, and was very involved in choir and theater in high school. I also love being creative, and painting and sketching are some of my favorite hobbies. I love animals of all kinds, and my family has two pets; a pit bull/German Shepherd mix Piper, and a cat, Bob. I’m very excited for this summer! John 6:68 “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.”

Meet our Totus Tuus Team!

Paige Bartow, Charlotte Geger, Michael Davis and Luke Dalton will be here July 14-19!

Registration forms are available in the bulletin, at church & on our website!

Hello! My name is Charlotte Geger, I was born and raised in Columbia, MO and love spending time with family and friends. In the fall, I will be starting my Theology degree as well as starting my new job as resident campus minister at my local Newman Center. When I am not spending time with family and friends, I love to hike, cook, and study about a variety of different interests. I am always down for a fun adventure and cannot wait to serve God this summer through Totus Tuus!! God Bless! Jeremiah 29:11

My name is Michael Davis. I teach English and Theology at Father Tolton Catholic High School in Columbia Missouri. I especially enjoy literature, philosophy, music, and film. My favorite Bible verse is 1 Thessalonians 5:17.

I am Luke Dalton and I am a seminarian for our diocese of Jefferson City. I’m 23 years old and I grew up in Rolla Missouri in a large Catholic family of 13. Because I grew up in the country, I love being outdoors. I enjoy camping, fly fishing, and hiking. Other hobbies I enjoy are playing video games and biking. This is my first year staffing Totus Tuus, and my 5th year staffing youth summer programs in our diocese. Please pray for me and my team, and please know that we’ve already been praying for you. Psalm 23 “The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want...”

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER JEFFERSON CITY

The Grace of Daily Mass: In last Sunday’s homily, Father Mark mentioned those in our Cooper County parishes who attend Mass not only to fulfill their Sunday obligation, but who attend weekday Mass on a regular basis, even if it means driving to neighboring parish. Jerry Ray Kempf, Frank Oswald, and Bill Lang are just three from our parish who seek the graces of receiving Eucharist as often as possible. As Father said, “It is food for the journey.”

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Face-to-Face Confession

Question: In today's digital world, do we really need to be face-to-face with a priest to confess our sins? Would Facetime or Zoom ever be allowed?

Answer: The question of whether or not Catholics can celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation virtually (via social media, by phone, or in some other way) is a question that has actually been around for several years. The recent COVID-19 pandemic brought the question back in a new way, especially as many parishes were forced to introduce a sort of "social distanced" confession, with the sacrament being celebrated outdoors.

In reflecting on this question, however, there are a couple points that we want to keep in mind. First, as the Code of Canon Law observes in different places, the faithful have a right to the sacraments of the Church and the Church's ministers have a responsibility to make them accessible. At the same time, however, we always have to be sure that we respect the nature of the sacraments themselves.

Although modern forms of technology and communication can help us in our work of evangelization catechesis, the Pontifical Council for Social Communication has reminded us that, "Virtual reality is no substitute for the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, the sacramental reality of the other sacraments, and shared worship in a flesh and blood human community. There are no sacraments on the internet" (The Church and the Internet, no. 9).

Although our encounters with others on the internet and via social media can be considered "real" in one sense, in the sacraments we encounter Christ in a personal and ecclesial way. It is never just a private experience but is always grounded in the life of the Church and this means that it must truly be personal, including the contact between the confessor and the penitent. While the convenience or ease of online celebrations might be appealing for many reasons, at heart, we always want to keep in mind the fullness of the Church's tradition and the meaning of the sacraments.

Heading out on vacation soon? Be sure to pick up any gas or restaurant cards you may need before you go.

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Catholic Diocese and Totus Tuus, its leaders, employees and volunteer staff from any and all claims arising from or in connection with attending this event.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR YOUTH AND ADULTS

____ I agree to abide by and/or instruct my child to abide by all rules and regulations as outlined by the aforementioned chaperones/ representatives. I agree if I/Participant fail(s) to abide in any way by the rules, I/Participant can be dismissed from the event and sent home immediately at my/Participant's expense with no right of reimbursement or refund for any amount in connection therewith from the Catholic Diocese of Jefferson City or its chaperones/representatives.

PHOTO RELEASE

____ I hereby authorize the Catholic Diocese of Jefferson City and Totus Tuus and its agents to utilize photographic and/or video images of me or my child by the Catholic Diocese of Jefferson City. In giving my consent, I hereby indemnify and hold harmless the Catholic Diocese of Jefferson City and Totus Tuus and its agents from any and all responsibility of liability. I understand that I will receive no compensation should any photograph and/or video of me or my child is used.
