GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts." Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

— Father John Muir

Second Reading: Paul teaches the Ephesians that in "the fullness of times," God's plan is "to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth." What are some things in your life you are waiting for?

Gospel: Jesus taught the apostles to preach and heal only in places where they were welcomed. Do you recall a time or a place where you felt truly welcomed?

"He began to send them out two by two."

Just as Jesus was sending out His disciples in pairs, perhaps you too are being called to discipleship for this shared mission as a priest or religious brother or sister. Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (573) 635-9127 x210 or via email: vocations@diojeffcity.org.

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Mark Thomann who died July 2, and Trudy Twenter of Pilot Grove who died July 6. "May the souls of your faithful departed, through Your mercy Oh God, rest in peace, and may their families and friends receive comfort from the Lord."

A special thanks to our parish and community for the support we received following the passing of Ted Smith.

We are truly appreciative of the prayers and memorials. Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for their honors, the volunteers who assisted in the funeral Mass and those who provided a wonderful luncheon, and to Father Mark for his services. Ted was one of a kind. He would thank you all individually if he could.

With many thanks and gratitude, The Ted Smith Family

The TRUTH About the Shroud of Turin w/Fr. Robert Spitzer | Chris Stefanick Show

The Shroud of Turin is the subject of a lot of rumors, myths and controversies — maybe you've heard some of them yourself and don't know what to believe. In this episode, Fr. Robert Spitzer offers amazing facts and stories about the Shroud.

What is the Anointing of the Sick?

Illness, suffering, and death are some of the greatest problems we face as humans. In the Anointing of the Sick, God offers us grace to strengthen us in illness and the priest can pray with us on behalf of the Church, in the midst of our suffering.

Prodigal Son

A look at the story of the prodigal son which highlights the rejection of the son's identity as son of his father.

Q: "Can a Catholic be married to a Protestant without the Protestant converting first? If so, how?" — Mary B., 13

A: Yes. Although it would most likely help the marriage if the Protestant did embrace the Faith, it is not mandatory. Some theologians may even say it would be better to marry a fervent Protestant (as long as he or she is not anti-Catholic) than a nominal Catholic.

However, your best bet in almost all cases is to find someone with whom you share a deep Catholic Faith.

If a Catholic marries a non-Catholic, baptized Christian, the two need to follow the laws of the Church regarding marriage. One of these laws is the commitment to raise the kids Catholic.

This group of high school students attended the Steubenville Youth Conference in Springfield, July 5-7.

This year's theme was "Illuminate" from John 1:5, "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." May they never cease to spread the Good News through the light of their baptism!

My name is Paige Bartow, I'm 21 years old, and this is my third year as a Totus Tuus missionary! I live in Jefferson City, and I'm a full time preschool aide at St. Peter's school. I've always loved singing, and was very involved in choir and theater in high school. I also love being creative, and painting and sketching are some of my favorite hobbies. I love animals of all kinds, and my family has two pets; a pit bull/German Shepherd mix Piper, and a cat, Bob. I'm very excited for this summer! John 6:68 "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."

Meet our Totus Tuus Team!

Paige Bartow, Charlotte Geger, Michael Davis and Luke Dalton will be here July 14-19!

Registration forms are available in the bulletin, at church & on our website!

Hello! My name is Charlotte Geger, I was born and raised in Columbia, MO and love spending time with family and friends. In the fall, I will be starting my Theology degree as well as starting my new job as resident campus minister at my local Newman Center. When I am not spending time with family and friends, I love to hike, cook, and study about a variety of different interests. I am always down for a fun adventure and cannot wait to serve God this summer through Totus tuus!! God Bless! Jeremiah 29:11

My name is Michael Davis. I teach English and Theology at Father Tolton Catholic High School in Columbia Missouri. I especially enjoy literature, philosophy, music, and film. My favorite Bible verse is 1 Thessalonians 5:17.

I am Luke Dalton and I am a seminarian for our diocese of Jefferson City. I'm 23 years old and I grew up in Rolla Missouri in a large Catholic family of 13. Because I grew up in the country, I love being outdoors. I enjoy camping, fly fishing, and hiking. Other hobbies I enjoy are playing video games and biking. This is my first year staffing Totus Tuus, and my 5th year staffing youth summer programs in our diocese. Please pray for me and my team, and please know that we've already been praying for you. Psalm 23 "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want..."

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – JUST FOR FUN

Question: Which Gospel writer and evangelist was a physician by trade?

Answer: Luke.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Confession and Children

Question: Our Catholic grade school is doing a penance service this Lent. Do young children really need to go to Confession? How much sin can they really have?

Answer: Ask any mom about her children and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and they often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong.

The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future.

Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an "Our Father" or two!

Heading out on vacation soon? Be sure to pick up any gas or restaurant cards you may need before you go. Reminder: The VISA gift cards we have in stock can be used anywhere and have NO activation fee.
