First Reading: I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. (Jer 23:4)

Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity. (Eph 2:13-14)

Gospel: When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. (Mk 10:34)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while." For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there's more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. "Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!" And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn't more vacation time. It's experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

— Father John Muir

Bishop McKnight's July Prayer Intention for our Local Church: For the promotion of Eucharistic life among the faithful; that our participation in Mass and Eucharistic adoration may inflame our hearts to live more effectively the Sacrament of Charity.

The Pope's July Prayer Intention for pastoral care of the sick: "We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all."

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear Jeremiah prophesy that the Lord will bring justice and security to Judah and Israel from the unjust shepherds (false rules) who led them astray. How do you help family or friends who need to make better choices?

Second Reading: Paul taught the Ephesians that in his death and resurrection, Jesus established peace and reconciliation between all believers, Jews, and Gentiles alike. How do you know you are at peace with a friend or loved one?

Gospel: Although Jesus wanted the Twelve to rest after their successful mission of preaching and healing, the crowds of people made it challenging to do so. Who could you encourage this week to rest well from their hard work?

Q: "Why can't people get divorces in the Catholic Church — Andy D., 13

A: Divorce is a matter of civil law, not the law of God. A validly married couple who divorce may think their action has ended their marriage before God or in the eyes of the Church, but that's not true. They're still married.

Divorce must be distinguished from an annulment, which is a declaration that what appeared to be a marriage was not in fact a true marriage, because it lacked some necessary element.

Divorce and remarriage violate natural and divine laws. They break the covenant to which the spouses freely consented, namely to live with each other until the death of one of the spouses. Divorce also introduces into the family and society as a whole. This can bring great harm to one or both of the spouses and certainly the children.

The Sacrament of Matrimony expresses the relationship between Christ and His Church. Christ is no bigamist — He is the "Bridegroom" of the one "Bride," the Church. So too in marriage. Remarriage after divorce is just another form of polygamy (having more than one spouse), only the spouses come after each other instead of all at once.

Dear Ss. Peter & Paul Catholic Parish,
Thank you for your generosity to My Life Clinic! We are so grateful you chose to bless our ministry in such a tangible way. Your gifts have helped many moms and children in the community already! Thank you for your care for these families. May the Lord bless you all as you have blessed others.

THANK YOU

A Summer Prayer for Moms

Come, Holy Spirit. Wrap me in your love today.

Help me to teach these kids about kindness and about you, Jesus.

Help my expectations to be good and holy and help me to have peace when my expectations are not met.

Keep my eyes fixed on heavenly things instead of worldly things and help me teach my children to do the same.

Please send down the Holy Spirit to give me the gift of [wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, or fear of the Lord] to help me grow in virtue.

Thank you for the gift of this day.
Pour love into my heart, Lord, so I can pour love out onto anyone I meet today.

Send me the grace to choose peace no matter what happens today. I love you so much, Lord. Amen.

We recently ordered our Boxes of Joy for this year! Here's some info from the national organizers:

"I want to thank you so much for participating and leading Boxes of Joy in your community! Because of you children were blessed with gifts they might not have ever received, giving them hope and bringing them closer to Jesus.

"Thank you so much for walking alongside us as we continue to serve the poorest of the poor for the glory of God. Over 133,000 Boxes of Joy were distributed last year! I look forward to partnering with you and growing that number as we work towards our goal of blessing even more children this year! PS. I just returned this week from spending time in Guatemala with some of the girls that receive Boxes of Joy. If you are looking for some suggestions, here you go!"

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – JUST FOR FUN

Question: Which Gospel writer and evangelist was a physician by trade?

Answer: Luke.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Daily Faith

Question: What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer: Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God’s people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God’s presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God’s people.
