First Reading: "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" (2 Kgs 4:43)

Psalm: The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs. (Ps 145)

Second Reading: One body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all. (Eph 4:4-6)

Gospel: Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. (Jn 6:11)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again — especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

— Father John Muir

Prayer for God to Work

Dear Jesus,

You and I know that what I bring to you is small pieces — small faith, small gifts, small generosity. But I also know that you are not bound by that. Two fish and five loaves can feed 5,000, when placed in your hands. So, I place everything I have in your hands, too. Complete your work, Lord.
Amen.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Trusting in the Lord, Elisha was able to feed a hundred people with just twenty barley loaves and fresh grain. Can you think of a time when you had to trust in the Lord?

Second Reading: Paul urges the church in Ephesus to live in unity and holiness. What are some signs that a community is holy and united?

Gospel: After Jesus fed the crowds with the multiplication of loaves and fish, he withdrew to the mountain alone. When do you find the need to be alone?

Can you spare two hours one Friday night a month?

Bingo is the largest source of income for the Knights of Columbus. Bingo revenue allows them to support Ss. Peter and Paul Church, our school, local youth, and charities.

The Knights desperately need volunteers to keep Bingo going! They need floor workers, callers, pull tab sellers, and cooks — they will train you for any position. Both sitting and walking jobs are available.

Bingo is held the 2nd and 4th Fridays of the month with shifts from 5-7 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. You'll get a meal from the concession stand — plus, it's a fun atmosphere!

To sign up, contact Bill at 660-537-0077 or Larry at 660-621-2800 and make a positive difference in our community!

Church Directory Update

As we move into the directory -building stage, we are working on the section called “Church Roster.”

This section gives the family name, the names of all who live at that residence, the address and phone number.

If you/your family did not get a photo taken, we need you to verify the address information that will appear in the roster.

It will be important for you to notify us with any change of address, phone number and if there are any family member (s) who no longer reside in your home (i.e. adult children).

Submit all changes to secretary@ssppparish.net no later than August 9, 2024.

This step will take time. We do not expect the new directory much before fall. Once we receive the finished product, we will notify everyone through our normal communication channels (the church bulletin, Facebook, etc.)

Thank you,
Diane Brimer, parish secretary

Thank you to all who supported Totus Tuus! We had a great week of fun, fellowship and faith formation, learning about the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary and The Creed! We had between 60-70 students attend each day. A great number of volunteers and donors were involved:

- The Knights & Daughters of Isabella were very generous in their financial support and we are so grateful for that!
 - Our thanks to those who provided housing and meals for the missionaries.
 - The teens who assisted with the day program were a blessing!
 - And all who remembered us in prayer. It was a great week!

Q: "When and why can one get an annulment?" — Katie V., 14

A: Annulments are granted by Church authority when it is determined that no valid marriage existed between a couple because of lack of some necessary element for a marriage to occur, on the part of one or both parties: a lack of true consent, the capacity to marry, or proper form.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola: Soldier for Christ
Founder of the Jesuit order, St. Ignatius of Loyola is also known as the "Soldier for Christ." During the turmoil of the Protestant Reformation, Ignatius offered the Church a new spirituality of devoted service to Christ and evangelization.

St. Alphonsus Liguori | Catholic Saints
Born to a noble Italian family and known as the "Prince of Moral Theologians", St. Alphonsus Liguori was a great preacher, lawyer, bishop, theologian, and Doctor of the Church. In this episode of Catholic Saints, Augustine Institute professors Dr. Sean Innerst and Dr. Ben Akers discuss this holy man, drawing wisdom from his life and works to aid Catholics today.

Convinced: Why Would Anyone Become Catholic?
Why would intelligent, successful people give up careers, alienate friends, and cause havoc in their families...to become Catholic? As he was considering his own move into the Church, Donald Johnson traveled around the country to get the story for himself, from some of today's most interesting and articulate Catholic voices

Catholic Trivia

Q: What does the word "Messiah" mean in English?

A: The Anointed One

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Death Penalty

Question: My coworkers and I have been debating the death penalty and whether or not it should be part of our justice system. Why are so many people who claim to be pro-life believers in favor of it?

Answer: The issues of crime and punishment are never easy because so many factors influence people and how they view problems and solutions. Increased violence, loss of life, cost to taxpayers and the community at large, and the maneuverings of lawyers and courts only add fuel to the fire. When bad things happen in your neighborhood or to your home or to you, you want relief. Any normal person would feel that way. A pro-life view does not insulate anyone from the bad effects of criminal behavior. Innocent people are hurt every day and it may seem as though those who cause the pain get away with it, or get off easy. The death penalty is not excluded by Church teaching. The state has the right to impose penalties that are commensurate with the crime as well as to defend itself from further harm (Catechism of the Catholic Church, §2266). When possible, punishment should help correct the offender, offering a chance of redemption, which is why the pope and bishops have called for an end to the death penalty. For more information, visit the Human Life and Dignity section of the USCCB's website (www.usccb.org).

MINISTRY TO THE HOSPITALIZED AND HOMEBOUND Please contact the office when a parishioner is hospitalized or sick. Father will schedule a visit and communion call, as appropriate. (Due to patient confidentiality, the parish is not automatically notified of hospital admissions.) Homebound parishioners can be added to our list as needed.

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.

PRAYER LINE To place someone on the Prayer Line, please call Phyllis Lauer at 882-6367. You need not give your name, just let us know who we can pray for. Prayer requests may also be sent to ssppboonvillemo@gmail.com. If you want to be a part of our e-mail prayer chain, contact Russell Gerling at rgerling@iland.net. Prayer request cards can be found at each of the church entrances. You may put them in the collection basket.

PROLIFE GROUP Contact Connie Gerling, 660-621-2787, to get involved.

REDUCED GLUTEN HOSTS are available at each Mass. Please check-in at the sacristy so the priest will know to have it available. You will need to go to the center aisle to receive communion from Father.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES CASE is generally open every third weekend of the month. Items are also available by contacting the parish office, 882-6468.

VOLUNTEERS Anyone who is volunteering with the youth in the parish (at church or the school) is required to be Virtus certified. Contact the parish office, 882-6468 or dre@ssppparish.net for more details, or visit www.virtus.org.
