First Reading: "Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed!" (Prv 9:5)

Psalm: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 34)

Second Reading: Therefore, do not continue in ignorance, but try to understand what is the will of the Lord. (Eph 5:17)

Gospel: "For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink." (Jn 6:55)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A priest I know was asked by a door-to-door evangelist, "Do you believe in Jesus?" He answered, "Yes, I do. But if I may ask you," he continued, "Where do you experience Jesus' body and blood?" His interlocutor responded somewhat confusedly, "I don't. I just believe in him. That's all that is needed." Later my priest friend would relate to me, "The more I thought about it, that response struck me as totally inadequate. As human beings, we need to encounter Jesus' body and blood, not just hear about him and mentally believe. Otherwise, Jesus is just a ghost."

This week we see this central point as we arrive at the climactic moment of Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist. Jesus has established the importance of believing in him as the "bread of life come down from heaven." Belief deeply matters because it leads to a real, bodily encounter with Jesus through eating and drinking. That's why Jesus emphasizes to an almost outrageous degree the non-metaphorical necessity to "eat my flesh and drink my blood" (John 6:54). The real presence of Jesus' body and blood — he himself, truly, really, substantially — has been the Church's treasure since Holy Thursday. Internal belief in the heart and the ritual act of eating and drinking the Eucharist, the Church has stubbornly insisted on both, not just one or the other.

This is not meant to criticize non-Catholic Christians who deeply trust and love Jesus, nor is it a triumphal elitist claim about the Catholic Mass. Rather it is a humble, trusting acknowledgement that God in Jesus comes to us in a way most proper to human beings: in our hearts and our bodies, faith and the Eucharist. — Father John Muir

Jesus warns us that unless we eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, we do not have life within us. The Eucharist is the wellspring of our Christian life, in every place and in every moment. Let us always remember that where there is no Eucharist, there is no life.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear from Proverbs how Wisdom herself invites us to a deeper understanding of life. Is there someone in your family or among your friends who you consider a "wise" person?

Second Reading: Paul taught the Ephesians that a wise person strives to understand the will of the Lord and lives a life of prayer and gratitude. What are some ways we can grow in prayer and gratitude in our daily lives?

Gospel: Jesus promises eternal life those who believe in him if we eat his flesh and drink his blood (participate in the Eucharist). How can we show our gratitude to the Lord for such a gift?

“Always give thanks in all things.”

Give thanks to the priests, sisters, and brothers who answered God’s call with open hearts to serve Him. Is Christ calling you to serve as a priest or in consecrated life? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (573) 635-9127 x210 or via email: vocations@diojeffcity.org.

Can you spare two hours one Friday night a month to volunteer at Bingo?

Bingo is the largest source of income for the Knights of Columbus. Bingo revenue allows them to support Ss.

Peter and Paul Church, our school, local youth programs, and other charities.

The Knights desperately need volunteers to keep Bingo going! They need floor workers, callers, pull tab sellers, and cooks — they will train you for any position. Both sitting and walking jobs are available. All are enjoyable!

Bingo is held the 2nd and 4th Fridays of the month with shifts from 5-7 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. You'll get a meal from the concession stand — plus, it's a fun atmosphere!

To sign up, contact Bill at 660-537-0077 or Larry at 660-621-2800 and make a positive difference in our community!

Bill Rapp, Jude Florek, Darryl Kempf and Cliff Oswald are just a handful of the Knights of Columbus members who help run Bingo — more volunteers from the parish are needed! The Knights are able to support a large number of programs through Bingo revenue. To volunteer, contact Bill at 660-537-0077 or Larry at 660-621-2800.

Eucharistic Adoration is extremely important to our parish’s spiritual life. We are blessed to have several dedicated parishioners who participate in our monthly First and Third Friday Adorations in one-hour time slots between 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. We need at least two people assigned to each time slot to ensure there is always someone in church with the Blessed Sacrament for each hour of Adoration. We currently need volunteers to fill the following time slots:

FIRST FRIDAY

- 11 a.m. to 12 noon
- 1-2 p.m.
- 2-3 p.m.
- 4-5 p.m.
- 5-6 p.m.
- 6-7 p.m.

THIRD FRIDAY

- 1-2 p.m.
- 2-3 p.m.
- 4-5 p.m.
- 5-6 p.m.

For more information or to volunteer, please contact Deacon Dave Miller at dmiller@diojeffcity.org or 660-888-6827.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration! May God bless you, Deacon Dave

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Faith as a Theological Virtue

Question: I've heard that gratitude is a fruit of the Holy Spirit. What does that mean?

Answer: In St. Paul's letter to the Galatians, he talks about the "fruits of the Holy Spirit." He is referencing an idea that Jesus talks about frequently in the Gospels. "By their fruits you will know them" (Matthew 7:16).

He uses the example of a plant. If the plant is healthy, it will bear good fruit. If the plant is unhealthy, it will bear rotten fruit or none at all. Jesus echoes this idea at the Last Supper, when he says that if we remain close to him we will "bear much fruit" (John 15:8). If we allow the Holy Spirit to work in our lives, we will bear the fruits of the Spirit!

Technically, gratitude is not one of the fruits St. Paul lists. "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23).

But doesn't that sound like the response of a grateful heart? When we're grateful, we experience a sense of joy and peace that makes it easier to love.

We can be kind, patient, generous, and gentle with others rather than possessive or competitive. When we're grateful, we don't need to grasp at what we don't have. We practice self-control. Gratitude helps us to be faithful, knowing God will always be with us. Sounds like good fruit to me!

Q: "What does the Catholic Church consider a sin?" — Bob K., 15

A: The word sin is used in many different senses. The main definition refers to a thought, word, action, or omission contrary to God's moral law. It amounts to saying "no" to God. It is a great evil because it deprives God of the honor due Him and the respect His laws require.

The Church speaks of original sin and actual sin. Original sin is not, strictly speaking, sin — at least not for us. It is the loss of grace human beings would otherwise come into existence with had our original parents not sinned against God.

Because original sin, we inherit death, a darkened intellect, a weakened will to resist evil and corruptibility, including vulnerability to sickness and old age. Actual sin, on the other hand, refers to sin we actually control.

Specific sins are listed in the Ten Commandments. Although each Commandment addresses a specific sin, there are related sins under each of the ten. For example, the Fifth Commandment is "Thou Shalt Not Kill." In addition to the obvious prohibition against murder, this also means other things like revenge, reckless driving, giving bad example by your actions, drunkenness and sins against human life. Another example is the Seventh Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Steal." In addition to obvious things like taking money from someone without their knowing it, this Commandment also covers things like accepting bribes, cheating on your taxes or damaging someone's property. The more you learn the Faith, the more you will come to see what is and is not sinful. Also, the more you go to Confession, the more sensitive your soul becomes to right and wrong. I recommend reading the Beatitudes found in St. Matthew's Gospel. You may also want to look at an Examination of Conscience. There are many versions available in church, by the statues of St. Peter and St. Paul.
