First Reading: Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf be cleared; then will the lame leap like a stag, then the tongue of the mute will sing. (Is 35:5-6)

Psalm: Praise the Lord, my soul! (Ps 146)

Second Reading: Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him? (Jas 2:5)

Gospel: "He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak." (Mk 7:37)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

One of the most touching YouTube videos I've ever seen is one in which a deaf woman receives new technology to heal her hearing. She hears her husband's voice for the first time — and her own, too — and bursts into tears of overwhelming joy. It must have been like an immovable wall between her and her loved ones came tumbling down.

We are all like this woman, to some degree. We believe in the presence of God's love, but we can't hear Him. We can't speak well about Him. The deaf man who can't speak properly in the Gospel today is an image of what God wants us to experience again and again. Jesus takes the man aside to a private place away from the crowd, touches his ears and tongue, and says, "Ephphata!" The man's ears are opened, and he speaks clearly. Contact with Christ has this effect on us.

This experience happens to us in our baptism, almost exactly. It happens to us in the liturgy. It happens in our private prayer. It happens when we hear the voice of God in our conscience. The more we engage these privileged channels of Jesus' healing, the more we are empowered to hear and speak of the presence of God's perfect love.— Father John Muir

Dear God, What a grace to live in a world of all ages and stages. Bless our grandparents, today and always. Thank You for their experiences, wisdom, and insight. Thank You for the gifts they bring the Church. Thank You for the lessons they teach the next generations. Amen.

Bishop McKnight's September Prayer Intention for our Local Church: For those who serve our community as first responders; may God keep them safe as they serve with honor the safety and well-being of all.

The Pope's September Prayer Intention for the cry of the Earth: We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: The prophet Isaiah encouraged the Israelites to be strong in their conviction that God was coming to heal them and renew creation itself. Who could you encourage to be firm in their faith this week?

Second Reading: James taught believers to make no distinctions between the rich and the poor in their community gatherings. How do you think showing no partiality helps a community grow in faith?

Gospel: We hear today how the people of the Decapolis were astonished at Jesus's healing of the deaf and mute. What parts of your life need healing?

The process adults take to be initiated into the Catholic faith, formerly known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is now called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA).

This change reflects a closer translation of the process by which adults are initiated into the Catholic faith. This change may not seem like much, but the new name highlights that the process to become Catholic could occur at any point in the year, not just the typical Easter Vigil. For some, it could even take multiple years before making the final decision.

As Philip Kosloski puts it, the process of joining the Catholic Church "involves a period of intense discernment, and prayer, not simply going through the 'rites' at fixed points of the year." If you'd like to learn more about the name change you visit al-eitea.org where this information came from.

SSPP will host a "meet and greet" Sunday, Sept. 15 after Mass in the parish office for those interested in learning about the process of joining the Church.

For more information, contact Pete Selenke, (816) 863-7103 or email: peteselenke@gmail.com, or Theresa Krebs, (660) 882-6468, dre@ssppparish.net.

The Daughters of Isabella will host their annual Rummage and Bake Sale, Friday and Saturday, September 13 and 14 in the church hall. Sale hours on Friday are from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturday from 7 -11 a.m. Please contribute only clean items.

Friday's sales are by "goodwill donation." Saturday's sales are "$1/bag."

Items for donation in the sale may be dropped off at the church hall only on Thursday, Sept. 12 from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. (NO DROP-OFFS ON WEDNESDAY!)

Proceeds benefit the charities supported by the Dofl.

Questions? Contact Christine Litwiller, 573-881-3861.

Our Tuesday morning Bible Study Group will begin a new study on "The Book of Matthew: The King and His Kingdom" on Tuesday, September 10 at 10 a.m.

This is a study-in depth by Jeff Cavins and will include 24 Sessions, each with a 50-minute video followed by group discussion.

The group meets in the SSPP church hall. (If a funeral dinner gets scheduled at that time, the group meets in the parish office basement.)

Everyone is invited! Come just for one session or for all! Stay just for the video if you have a busy schedule! Workbooks are optional or can be purchased for $36.

Jeff Cavins is a Catholic evangelist, author, and biblical scholar. Jeff was baptized as a Catholic but as a teenager he decided to leave the faith. He was a Protestant pastor before he rejoined the Catholic Church. He is the creator of the Great Adventure Bible Study program. He was the founding host of the Television Show Life on the Rock on EWTN and was a host of the Morning Air radio program on Relevant Radio.

A Bible Study on the Annunciation

In this video, Dr. Ben Akers leads us through a brief study of Luke 1:26–38, highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by Gabriel’s words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary’s Yes in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.

St. John Chrysostom | Catholic Saints

From Antioch, the political center of the fifth-century world, arose a golden-tongued preacher and bishop: St. John Chrysostom. Listen to Dr. Carl Vennerstrom and Mary McGeehan discuss the life and preaching of this great doctor of the Church who gave us countless powerful prayers and homilies.

PASTOR'S BRIEF

I wish to acknowledge and thank the Ss. Peter and Paul Educational Foundation for its recent gift and distribution to the parish for the operation of our parish school. The foundation's most recent gift is in the amount of $32,645.20, for the first half of 2024. Normally two gifts a year are sent to the parish with the amount determined by the earnings on the principal, currently valued at a bit over $1.5 million. Total gifts to the parish from the inception of the Foundation are approaching one million dollars. Without this gift from the foundation, difficult choices would have to be made in regard to the operation of the parish school. I offer prayers of thanksgiving for all that support in our mission of forming another generation of faithful disciples of the Lord.

There are many ways to financially support our parish and its school and this is one of them. If you would like more information about the foundation, please contact the parish office or me and we will direct you to the officers of the foundation. May God bless all of those who support our parish and its school in various ways and its mission of forming people to serve the Lord.

God Bless, Father Mark

Q: "If someone tells you something is a sin and you disagree with it, it is a sin?" — Katie V., 14

A: It depends on who the "someone" is. If God says something is a sin, it's a sin. If the Magisterium of the Church (the pope and the other bishops united with him) teach something is a sin (contrary to God's law), then it's a sin. This is because Jesus promised the Magisterium special guidance to teach about matters of right and wrong without error (Matt. 16:18, Matt. 28:20, Mk. 16:16, Lk. 10:16, 1 Tim. 3:15). Otherwise, just because someone says something is wrong doesn't make it so, although we should be willing to consider the advice of wiser men and women, especially parents, in such matters. A real danger today is to think sin is merely a matter of opinion. It is not. If something is a sin, it's a sin, regardless of what you or I think about it. True, if we are in genuine ignorance, we may not be held accountable for a sinful action. But that doesn't change whether a thing is right or wrong before God. And sometimes, even if we don't know something is a sin, we still suffer the consequences of our choice. A drug abuser will still suffer the physical consequences of his action, whether or not he sincerely believes drug abuse is morally acceptable.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Exaltation of the Cross

Question: What is the history behind the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross?

Answer: Emperor Constantine's mother, Helena, is credited with having discovered the true cross around 330. She traveled to the Holy Land and uncovered the places associated with Jesus' life.

Legend has it that Helena uncovered three crosses but was not able to detect the true cross until each of them was laid on a leper. Only one of them cured the leper, proving it to be the true cross. A great church was built at the site, and soon various portions of the cross were sent to other churches as relics to be venerated.

The day after the dedication of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, September 14, 335, the actual cross was displayed for veneration. Egeria, a women traveler to Jerusalem around the year 386, kept a diary that has survived. She tells of the unique veneration of the wood of the cross that took place on Good Friday, something maintained ritually to this very day.

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross focuses on the gift of love that Jesus manifested by his total gift of self, offered for all. The cross, the ultimate form of capital punishment in its day, has become for us the ultimate symbol of love and triumph over evil and death.

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.
