24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." - Mk 8:34-35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

First Reading: I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. (Is 50:6)

Psalm: I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living. (Ps 116) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (Jas 2:17)

Gospel: "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Christ." (Mk 8:29)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

This morning I received a text message that a member of my extended family will likely die of cancer within the next few hours. His name is Luke. He is a 45-year-old husband and father of six. Though I am not as close to him as my sister (she is his sister-in-law and knows him well), I wonder: how can we, including Luke himself, manage such a terribly awful and unfair situation?

The words of this Sunday's Gospel offer a powerful and challenging path. Jesus says, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me" (Mark 8:34). Today I see with new freshness the starkness and strangeness of the words take up. The cross stands for suffering which is unjust, absurd, seemingly hopeless, and humiliating. Jesus doesn't say "accept" or "endure" or "tolerate," but "take up."

Embrace it, actively. Choose it and lift it up for others to see what terrifies and sickens us. But somehow, for Jesus, this is the path to "saving one's life." A new world is breaking in, one in which love is everything, when no relationship can be wounded or die. I trust that in the embraced suffering of Luke and his loved ones, Jesus is taking up his cross and saving us all.

By the time you read this, barring a miracle, Luke will have died. He will be carrying his cross no longer. But we all still face suffering. This week let's not just endure, but take up our crosses, big and small. That's our only hope for saving our lives. — Father John Muir

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Isaiah stands firm in his faith as he suffered in following God's call. Can you think of a time when you supported someone in their faith?

Second Reading: James believed that good works are the fruit of faith. Where is there a need for good works from you this week among family or friends?

Gospel: Jesus reveals to his disciples that as the Messiah, he is destined to suffer greatly and die, but on the third day, rise from the dead. This was difficult for Peter to accept. How do you stay open to ideas you resist?

Prayer for Catechism Students

Dear God, You never stop drawing us closer to You.
Pour Your grace upon these young disciples as they learn about You. Attract them. Challenge them.
Love them. Guide them. Bless them.
Amen.

We will be meeting 2 times each month (except for December) to help learn more about our faith and share our experiences with each other within our Catholic community. Each meeting will start with a meal so that we can have time to connect and then move into the informational part of the meeting.

Q: "How can anyone be sinless?" — Thang P., 19

A: No one can be sinless on his or her own. Only God can enable a person to remain free of sin. Through no merits of her own, the Blessed Virgin Mary was conceived without original sin by a special grace from God. This is called the Immaculate Conception. She was also preserved from personal sin throughout her life by divine grace. Otherwise, she would have been a sinner like the rest of us. This is why she called God her Savior (Luke 1:47). God saved her from falling into sin before the fact, not after the fact, as with us.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Holy Water

Question: What is holy water and how do I explain the reason that it is placed at the entrances of churches to my non-Catholic friends?

Answer: Holy water is a sacramental, a reminder of the life of the Church expressed and celebrated through the sacraments.

God's grace is mediated through word and gesture (the outward signs).

This comes to us through Jesus (instituted by Christ) as he entrusts to the Church his saving mission (to give grace). In turn the Church, through the sacraments, shares that grace and mission with us.

On Ash Wednesday, we receive ashes on our foreheads to remind us of our origins, humbly created from the dust.

But by blessing ourselves with holy water, we are reminded of our destiny! We are baptized sons and daughters of God.

This is also a call to conversion, to live more fully our baptismal call to live as disciples of Jesus.

We see holy water whenever we renew our baptismal promises. This will occur during the Easter liturgy as well, reminding us that we are indeed on a journey of faith and renewed in Christ.

Blessing ourselves with holy water reminds us that we are baptized into a community faith, and always in need of turning from sin and toward God. Holy water is a visible sign of our baptism.

PROLIFE UPDATES

- The Spiritual Adoption Program will begin again in September. The program involves praying a short prayer individually or as a family for the lives of unborn babies for 9 months. We will celebrate the births with a baby shower for babies in need in June.
- We have created a new prayer. "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I pray we would hold the Spiritual life of unborn babies in our arms from conception to birth. Please keep them safe." Prayer cards are available at the church entrances.
- First month, September: At one month a baby's heart has been beating for three weeks. Tiny arms and legs started growing. The brain is developing three parts: language and emotion, hearing, and seeing.
- Respect for Life Sunday is October 6.
- Please watch Bishop McKnight's video about Amendment 3: diojeffcity.org/amendment3/
- Please continue to share suggestions on the sacredness of life. Connie Gerling, 660-621-2787

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.

PRAYER LINE To place someone on the Prayer Line, please call Phyllis Lauer at 882-6367. You need not give your name, just let us know who we can pray for. Prayer requests may also be sent to ssppboonvillemo@gmail.com. If you want to be a part of our e-mail prayer chain, contact Russell Gerling at rgerling@iland.net. Prayer request cards can be found at each of the church entrances. You may put them in the collection basket.

PROLIFE GROUP Contact Connie Gerling, 660-621-2787, to get involved.

REDUCED GLUTEN HOSTS are available at each Mass. Please check-in at the sacristy so the priest will know to have it available. You will need to go to the center aisle to receive communion from Father.
