First Reading: They departed in tears, but I will console them and guide them. (Jer 31:9)

Psalm: The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy. (Ps 126)

Second Reading: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

(Hew 5:6)

Gospel: Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."

(Mk 10:51)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Near my house there is a school for the blind. Often, I see blind people learning how to navigate the world with only a walking stick, even on a busy street with roaring traffic. I'm amazed to see how adept and carefully they get around without sight. Nevertheless, often a sadness arises in me that he or she cannot see all the beautiful colors, images, and persons filling the world around them. Those days, I find myself deeply grateful for the basic privilege of sight.

That's part of why the mystery of Jesus as the sight-giver is so moving to me. This week, it's wonderful how Bartimaeus the blind man is no longer content with his limitation and bellows out his desire for Jesus' mercy. In beautiful simplicity, he cries out to the Lord, "Master, let me receive my sight." Jesus quietly heals his sight. And off he goes, fully taking in the world around him. Imagine the delightful new way in which he is able to respond to the world.

Like blind Bartimaeus and the courageous people in my neighborhood, we may be able to get around reasonably well in our daily lives. But we are blind to the gestures of heroic love of people close to us. We can't see the desperate need of the hungry, thirsty, imprisoned, exploited, endangered, and so on, in our midst. We can't see Jesus drawing near to us in so many ways, but he is. This Sunday let's cry out to him: Lord have mercy on me! I want to see! And little by little — or perhaps in a flash — we'll see once again, or perhaps for the first time.

— Father John Muir

Bishop McKnight's October Prayer Intention for our Local Church: For a greater conversion of hearts to God who loves us so much; that in living the stewardship way of life, we may avoid any sense of entitlement in our relationships with God and one another.

The Pope's October Prayer Intention for a shared mission: We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Jeremiah speaks of a joyful future awaiting those Israelites who were in captivity in Babylon. What are some things you are looking forward to with joy?

First Reading: Hebrews teaches us that God glorified Christ by making him the eternal "high priest." What are some gifts you have received from God?

Gospel: The blind man, Bartimaeus, pleaded to Jesus and Jesus healed him saying, "your faith has saved you." What worries or fears do you need to bring to the Lord?

Box of Joy is an annual Christmas shoebox gift ministry organized by local Catholic schools, parishes and groups across the United States and facilitated by Cross Catholic Outreach. Participants bless children suffering from extreme poverty by filling boxes with toys and other gifts, sharing the joy of Christmas and planting seeds of hope.

If your child is helping fill the box, they can include a letter about themselves! There are letter templates available on the Student Resource Tables in the back of church.

Boxes are due back to church by Sunday, Nov. 3. Learn more at boxofjoy.org

The Catholic Take on Halloween
Remembering the dead in purgatory, celebrating the Saints, and the Catholic perspective on Halloween.

Brother Francis - All Souls Day
In this episode of Brother Francis, kids can learn about All Souls Day and how we take time to remember those who have passed away.

Who is St. Jude? | Catholic Saints
Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. James Prothro discuss this lesser-known apostle St. Jude.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription. Visit signup.formed.org and select our parish name.

Q: "If you believe in the Lord and love Him, will you have eternal life and get to heaven?" — Genny C., 19 and our love must be more than warm feelings. Faith that just says "yes" to a bunch of religious ideas cannot save; that "faith" is dead without love (James 2:14-16).

To be saved, we must believe what God says and we must love Him above all things for His own sake and everything else for love of Him. Practically speaking, that means keeping His Commandments. We can't just give God "lip service" — say we'll obey, but then do what we want.

"If you love Me," Jesus said,

"you will keep My Commandments" (John 14:15). Needless to say, all of this we accomplish by His grace, not our power.

A: Yes. Of course our belief must be more than an intellectual nod to certain ideas

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained: ALL SOULS

Question: November is called the month of All Souls. More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Can you tell us more about this feast and the remembrances of this month?

Answer: November 2, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory. While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it. Today, belief in purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing and developing before meeting God face to face. God continually invites communion with these loved ones, but some feel the need to continue growing and developing before entering into full communion with God. These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ.

That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

Prayer for Courage

“Take courage,” we hear, “Jesus is calling you!”

Jesus, give me the grace to respond to your call — your invitation to what I don’t understand, to the unknown, the mystery. In these spaces, your grace abounds. Be with me, give me courage! Amen.

Prolife Updates: In November, the Spiritual Adoption Program continues into the fourth month of pregnancy. Our new prayer cards are at the entrances of church, and we encourage you to pray daily.

Fourth month unborn baby development: At fourth months in the womb, babies are about six inches long and active enough for the mother to feel the child’s movement. The baby can make fine finger movements and wiggle toes. Many nerves are produced.

Birthright of Sedalia is changing to a more faith-based and God-centered pregnancy help center called Loving Hearts Pregnancy Help Center, Inc. As soon as they receive the required state permissions, they plan to transition. All donations will be tax-deductible. If you have questions, you may call Jeanette at 660-281-1405. They are currently at the same address, 1018th West 11th, Sedalia.

Any parishioner in need of transportation to/from Mass may contact the office and we will attempt to schedule a ride for you.

NEW PARISHIONERS Welcome! Please take advantage of belonging to our parish by getting involved in a ministry! To register, pick-up a form in the back of church, download the form from our website or visit the parish office.

PRAYER LINE To place someone on the Prayer Line, please call Phyllis Lauer at 882-6367. You need not give your name, just let us know who we can pray for. Prayer requests may also be sent to ssppboonvillemo@gmail.com. If you want to be a part of our e-mail prayer chain, contact Russell Gerling at rgerling@iland.net. Prayer request cards can be found at each of the church entrances. You may put them in the collection basket.

PROLIFE GROUP Contact Connie Gerling, 660-621-2787, to get involved.

REDUCED GLUTEN HOSTS are available at each Mass. Please check-in at the sacristy so the priest will know to have it available. You will need to go to the center aisle to receive communion from Father.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES CASE is generally open every third weekend of the month. Items are also available by contacting the parish office, 882-6468.

VOLUNTEERS Anyone who is volunteering with the youth in the parish (at church or the school) is required to be Virtus certified. Contact the parish office, 882-6468 or dre@ssppparish.net for more details, or visit www.virtus.org.

WOMEN'S GROUP meets monthly, on the third Wednesday in the parish office basement, unless otherwise announced, at 7 p.m. For more information, contact Jill Birch, jb081973@gmail.com.

OFFICE HOURS: The parish office is open 8:30 a.m.—4:30 p.m., Monday—Friday. The office number is 660-882-6468.

THE BULLETIN DEADLINE IS MONDAYS AT 4 P.M. Email bulletin items to: bulletin@ssppparish.net.
