First Reading: "Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength." (Dt 6:5)
Psalm: I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)
Second Reading: But Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away. (Heb 7:24)

Gospel: "The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than [this]." (Mk 12:31)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Americans have long been fascinated with public debates. Farmers stood in muddy fields for hours to hear Lincoln and Douglas dispute each other in the 1860 presidential run-up. The televised debate between Kennedy and Nixon in 1960 fascinated the nation. These days, cable news outlets and social media parse every word spoken by candidates. We still love seeing public, rational disputes in the service of our nation.

In his day, Jesus also captured attention as a public debater. Mark tells us, "And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, 'Which commandment is the first of all?'" Jesus' brief but all-encompassing response is the double command to love God and neighbor. Notice that he includes the importance of loving God with "all your mind." Loving God is not simply a question of affection, loyalty, good deeds, and religious dedication. It demands honest and intense intellectual engagement — just like an accomplished debater.

How do we do this practically? One simple way is by embracing ourselves as life-long learners. Setting aside time for reading, book studies, online classes, and, perhaps most difficult, engaging in open, honest, and curious conversation with those who think differently from us. These are all great ways to love God with our minds. Our country and our Church depend greatly on souls who love God in this way with their minds. Let's commit to loving God with all our minds in tireless pursuit of truth.

— Father John Muir

Bishop McKnight's October Prayer Intention for our Local Church: For a greater conversion of hearts to God who loves us so much; that in living the stewardship way of life, we may avoid any sense of entitlement in our relationships with God and one another.

The Pope's October Prayer Intention for a shared mission: We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Moses taught the Israelites the importance of passing on the faith and keeping the Jewish prayer, the great Shema ("Hear, O Israel..."). What are some faith traditions your family practices?

Second Reading: In Hebrews we hear that Jesus is the eternal and perfect high priest who intercedes for us before God. Do you have a friend or co-worker who needs you to pray for them this week?

Gospel: Jesus and the scribe find common ground on agreeing that the two greatest commandments are to love God and our neighbor. Do you value making peace with people you disagree with?

Prayer for Vocations

For our married couples, strengthen their covenant.
For our religious sisters, surround them with Your love.
For our priests, support them as they guide.
For our parents, sustain them in Your grace.
For our religious brothers, draw them nearer to You.
For our consecrated singles, be everything they need.
For those discerning, be with them as they journey. Amen.

How to Win an Argument Without Losing a Soul by Matt Fradd

Whether you're arguing with family members or Facebook friends, skeptical co-workers in the office or pushy proselytizers at your front door, it helps to have not only the facts but the skills for presenting your points forcefully and well. In How to Win an Argument Without Losing a Soul, Matt Fradd equips you with the powers of argumentation you need to be an effective debater and the right attitude for doing it with charity, humility, and patience.

The Problem of Evil with Jimmy Akin

If God is all-good and all-powerful, then why is there evil? In The Problem of Evil, Jimmy Akin tackles this most difficult of apologetics questions. He builds a biblical and philosophical case for understanding how God's perfections are not disproved by the existence of evil, but in fact allow for a world in which pain and sin may be mysteriously ordered by Providence towards a greater good.

In Persona Christi: The Catholic Priesthood

The Catholic priesthood comes to us from Jesus Christ. Building on this pattern of priesthood from Old Testament times, Jesus chose twelve men to act in His place as priests of the new and everlasting covenant. This film explores the essential nature and theology of the sacred priesthood, the importance of a deep prayer life, the centrality of the Mass and Eucharistic Adoration, devotion to the Blessed Virgin, priestly fatherhood and celibacy, and the necessity of a missionary zeal.

On August 13, 2024, Missouri Secretary of State Jay Ashcroft issued a Certificate of Sufficiency that placed the deceptive and extreme abortion amendment (Amendment 3) on the November ballot. The Missouri Catholic Conference strongly opposes this misleading amendment which seeks to enshrine abortion in the Missouri Constitution. For details, visit: <https://mocatholic.org/abortion/>

On the same website, you will find statements and videos from Missouri's bishops, the language of the proposed constitutional amendment, and a list of medical doctors' concerns about Amendment 3.

Q: "What does the Catholic Church teach about what our bodies will be like in heaven?"

— Jesse G., 13

A: We are told in Scripture and in Sacred Tradition that our bodies will be perfected (1 Cor. 15:40-58, Phil. 3:21.)

Theologians have suggested four characteristics that best describe what they will be like: impassable, subtle, agile, and clarity.

Our glorified bodies will be impassible. They will experience no pain, suffering, weariness, hunger, or thirst. Scripture says, "God will wipe away every tear from our eyes, for the former things have passed away" (Rev. 7:21).

We will also have the gift of subtlety. We will have a human body with the characteristics of a spirit. Just as Christ could walk through walls after His Resurrection (John 20:19-20), so too should we be able to walk through walls. God will assimilate the characteristics of a spirit to the body without destroying the body's material characteristics.

We will also possess the gift of agility, which means we will not be subject to the forces of nature as we were on earth. Our playground will not be limited to the small area we can presently cover with our human powers. Rather, the farthest reaches of the universe will be accessible with the swiftness of a thought. Our body will also respond to the saintly direction of the soul whereas on earth it fought against the good intentions of the will.

Finally, our bodies will have clarity in thought and appearance. We will have glorified bodies without the ailments and infirmities of our earthly bodies. Amputations will be mended. Those who are blind will gain sight. Our immortal souls will have a more glorious home in our new bodies.

WHAT WOULD AMENDMENT 3 ACTUALLY DO?

THE FACTS

1. Put women at risk
2. Prohibit any regulation of abortion
3. Shield negligent health care professionals
4. Permit abortion even when the preborn child can feel pain
5. Eliminate parental notification or consent
6. Allow abortion at any time for any reason
7. Open the door to taxpayer-funded abortions
