First Reading: Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me." (1 Kgs 17:13)

Psalm: Praise the Lord, my soul! (Ps 146)
Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. (Heb 9:26)

Gospel: "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." (Mk 12:43)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once at an evening Mass as a poor college student, the collection basket was fast approaching, and I only had a ten-dollar bill. I was planning on using that to buy my favorite Chipotle burrito that night for dinner. Should I keep the money? Who would know if I did? If I gave it away, what would I eat? Would I be okay? I kissed my future burrito goodbye, dropped the money in the basket, and winced. But strangely, the rest of the Mass I felt more engaged than usual. I had skin in the game. I left the Mass excited to see how God would take care of me. And he did, in amazing ways.

When the poor widow places two copper coins in the temple treasury, Jesus doesn't pity her. He praises her. He blesses her. He brags about her. He celebrates her as the temple's largest benefactor. Her giving is an act of radical, concrete trust in God. It is as if she is entering a new level of giving that excites Jesus, because she contributes not out of her abundance, but she gives "everything she had."

What a challenge this is to each one of us! How easy it is to ignore this! But imagine the eruption of the energy of faith, hope, and love that would be unlocked if our financial sacrifices to the Church actually tapped into daily bread and not only our disposable income. I challenge us to try this in some way this coming week and see what happens in our hearts. Even if it costs us a burrito.

— Father John Muir

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear how the Lord spared the widow and her son from starvation and death in the days of the prophet Elijah. How do you think society can best help those on the margins who are really struggling?

Second Reading: Hebrews teaches us that Jesus's death took away the sins of many and that at his Second Coming, Jesus will bring eternal salvation to all believers. When do you imagine Jesus will return?

Gospel: Jesus praises the widow who gives to the poor despite her own poverty. Do you have family or friends who likewise selflessly give to others?

Prayer of Generosity

Oh God, whose generosity cannot be outgiven, mold my heart to mimic Yours. Teach me what it means to be giving, knowing that whatever I have is a gift, from Your abundance. Blessed be Your name. Amen.

Wouldn't it be nice if passing on our faith was like passing a lit torch from mother to son or father to daughter? Something so tangible you knew it happened? Something so obvious you knew that fire stayed lit or if the flame blew out, you knew how to get it going again? Like most things in life, nothing is that obvious and we have to do our best and pray that we are doing it right. Thankfully, though, we don't have to do it alone! Come join us this month as we tackle the topic on how to raise Catholic children. Passing on our faith is one of the most commonly discussed concerns within women's groups especially within the realm of our older children falling away from the faith. What if anything can we do to get them back home?

We invite you this month to bring your experiences (what has worked or is working) and your concerns as we share some ways we can keep our faith real within our children's lives. We invite young and not so young, women with newborns to women with children having newborns. You will leave with a list of resources and ideas you can start to implement immediately. Meetings this month are Saturday, Nov. 16, 7 a.m. (breakfast served) and Wednesday, Nov. 20, 6 p.m. (dinner served). Both meetings are in the church basement.

FORMED

Week of November 10, 2024

Why Does the Church Canonize People | Angels

Dr. Elizabeth Klein and Taylor Kemp discuss canonization: its definition, history, and how it works. Why do we honor the communion of saints? What leads to saints' official incorporation into public worship? What about miracles? Learn all about these topics in this episode.

St. Ephrem the Syrian | Catholic Saints

An Eastern Father of the early Church, St. Ephrem the Syrian was arguably the most important saint and theological writer for the Syriac-speaking churches. He did not write many treatises or letters but devoted himself to writing hymns to God. These hymns, however, contain a wealth of knowledge and teaching that elegantly weave together images from the Old and New Testaments.

What is the Divine Liturgy? | Catholic Rites

Byzantine Catholic Church, as they discuss the nature of Byzantine piety, Divine Liturgy, and the similarities and differences between the Eastern and Latin rites. This episode highlights the importance of icons, chanting, veils, and the reception of leaven bread and other key features of the Byzantine Divine Liturgy.

Last year, colored lights were added to celebrate the birth of Jesus. More are being added this year!

The display continues to offer activities such as community performances by area bands and choirs, Christmas tree display, camel, donkey and pony rides, a petting zoo, LEGO Brick Display, Kettle Corn, Selfie Station, Gift Shop, quilt raffle, wreath auction, annual ornament sales, and the Shrine food stand with hot dogs, hamburgers, etc.!

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained: SAINTS

Question: Our prayer group has been reading the lives of some saints, and we were struck by how some of them thought they were such sinners. Why would such holy people think they had such serious sin?

Answer: Professional athletes practice the fundamentals of their sport over and over again, reaching for better form, consistency, and better performance. They focus on the basics, review past performances, and visualize greater success. Practice makes better, if not perfect! Spiritual masters such as the saints also looked for perfection. They practiced their faith in the search for holiness, grace, and virtue. Through sacraments, prayer, study, good works, and penance, they raised their level of awareness, their sensitivity to the presence of God, the demands of the Gospel, and the workings of the Holy Spirit. They examined their consciences daily, reviewing the day for moments of failure and times that they could have been more virtuous in one way or another. They resolved to do better, be more attentive and alert!

Therefore, anything that would distract them or interfere with their relationship with God would be like a small black spot on a bright white wall — you can't miss it!

The great saints were aware of sin and the presence of evil because they were so tuned in to the struggle between good and evil that was fought in their own lives, hearts, and souls. We must guard against becoming desensitized to sin in our lives and unaware of the harm it causes us. A goal of any spiritual practice is to become more aware of our sinfulness so that we seek God's forgiving and healing love.

Q: "Why are people afraid of death?" — Nathan T., 15

A: There are probably several reasons: (1) People don't have enough faith if they loved God and served Him on earth that He will embrace them at the time of death. (2) There is a natural fear of the unknown, even if you have faith. (3) Almost every death scene we see in the movies and on television is not a pleasant experience.

If we continually see the joyful faces of the canonized saints at the time of their death, our fear of death would greatly decrease, if not disappear.

Memento Mori

It would be a good practice to meditate on the joy of seeing God at the time of your death.

Scripture says, "As a man thinks, so is he" (Prov. 23:7). If we think and pray about what a joyful experience heaven will be, God may just give us the grace to firmly believe it. You should develop a devotion to St. Joseph, who is the patron of a happy death.

- A consecrated Communion Host becomes living flesh and blood. Is it heart tissue? What does science have to say?
- A scientist (former atheist), an attorney and a famous TV Journalist witness statue of Jesus weeping real tears and shedding real blood. Are these claims true? What does science have to say?

St Peter's Parish and St. Jude Thaddeus Catholic Church are hosting an EVENT for everyone in the area. If you have an "I will believe it when I see it" attitude, don't miss this event!

*Put it this way-this is either the biggest hoax of the 20th Century, in which case it would have to be a fairly huge conspiracy, or the most important moment of the century, if not the whole millennium.*
