Jesus is desperately hungry when the devil tells him to turn stone into bread. But his divine will is stronger than the weakness of his human body, and he resists the devil. In this season of fasting and self-denial, let's remember Jesus' strength.

First Reading: 'We cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and he heard our cry.' (Dt 26:7)

Psalm: Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble. (Ps 91)

Second Reading: For, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. (Rom 10:9)

Gospel: Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. (Lk 4:1-2)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

One of the most fascinating moments in American history is when George Washington could have become the king of the newly liberated United States and didn't. At the height of his power and fame, on Dec. 23, 1783, he resigned his commission as Commander-in-Chief, and went home. The astonished King of England remarked that in doing so, Washington was "the greatest man in the world." Greatness is often defined by what we could do but don't. Greatness is measured by the temptations we overcome.

Jesus' greatness is revealed in his victory over temptations, too. The three offered him by the devil contain, we might say, all potential possible temptations: food, power and fame. They correspond to the triple human needs of body, soul and spirit. In overcoming these three, he says "no" in essence to every and even the greatest temptation. We see that every desire of his humanity — body, soul and spirit — is perfectly united to God, to love. This is a power available to each member of his body. It is the path to true greatness. How can we, who so easily fall into even small temptations, find the power to overcome large ones? By entering into the great dynamics of Jesus' temptations.

Lenten challenge: This first week of Lent, list some concrete ways you can overcome temptations that correspond with your desires. For example, you may give up snacks between meals, choose not to participate in an activity of which you are an expert, and decide to reduce social media posting by 50%. It may not seem like much, but by saying "no" to the tyranny of food, power, and fame (in this example), you'll discover true greatness.

OBSERVANCES THIS WEEK

Sunday: 1st Sunday of Lent; Daylight Saving Time begins

Next Sunday: 2nd Sunday of Lent

Prayer of Identity

Dear God, Claim me as Your own.

When I lose my way, remind me that I am Yours.

When I'm plagued with doubt, fill me with Your love. Amen.

First Sunday of Lent: March 9, 2025

"You shall worship the Lord, your God, and Him alone shall you serve." (Luke 4:8)

Motivate your children to take time during Lent to reflect on their life's direction. Lead them to discern whether God might be calling them to serve Him as a priest or religious brother or sister.

If you would like more information and resources to share with your child, reach out to your priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director.

Bishop McKnight's March Prayer Intention for our Local Church:

Fora spirit of humility and repentance, that we may confess our sins and seek reconciliation in preparation for the Easter feasts. May our hearts be purified and opened to the grace of God. We pray to the Lord.

The Pope's March Prayer Intention for the right families in crisis:

Let us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.

SPIRITUAL HOMEWORK: QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Moses taught the Israelites the importance of remembering the story of their release from Egyptian slavery. This event defined them as a people loved by God. What is a story from your family that has helped define you?

Second Reading: Paul encouraged the Christians in Rome to have a genuine faith in Jesus in both heart and mind. As the season of Lent begins, how might you show others the sincerity of your faith?

Gospel: We hear how Jesus was tempted by the devil as he was preparing to begin his public ministry. What temptation can you confront this Lent?

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained: LENT

Question: After attending our parish retreat and feeling much better and stronger about my faith, I want to make this Lent worthwhile. What can I do to keep the spirit and practice of Lent?

Answer: You've already taken the first step by going on the parish retreat. It is important for us to "tune up" our faith, taking some time to renew ourselves through prayer, meditation and education. By deepening our knowledge and understanding of faith, we are often better attuned to its richness and meaning for our life.

Lent is an intense retreat, a forty-day period of reflection and penance that prepares us to celebrate the passion, death and resurrection of Christ. Our communication with God and our awareness of him is the purpose of prayer. Setting aside extra time each day helps intensify the season. Prayer includes daily Mass, Stations of the Cross, communal penance services and private confession. Making restitution for sin as well as disciplining our hearts and minds to focus on God is the purpose of penance. It helps us restore a sense of balance to our souls, thrown off kilter by sin. Penance includes personal sacrifice, self-denial, fasting, almsgiving and charitable works. Finally, spiritual practices help us sharpen our understanding and insight into the meaning and understanding of our faith. When you take your faith seriously, you do what is necessary to follow Jesus more closely, to integrate your life and your faith more carefully.

How to Lent

Lent is right around the corner. In How To Lent, you will be guided by priests and religious in the disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving so that you can make this your best Lent yet.

Foretold

From the beginning, God had a plan to save man from sin. With Jesus, that plan was fulfilled. But he also has a specific plan for you. Watch Foretold to rediscover God's providential love for you.

Whole 40

Sit down with Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss the purpose of the season of Lent, how to prepare for it, and why it is such a fruitful season in our life of faith.

MEET OUR SPEAKER

Mary Lenaburg

Mary Lenaburg is a best-selling author, speaker, wife and mother sharing her testimony about God's redeeming love. Mary has served her local parish as Liturgy Coordinator, youth ministry, and Confirmation catechist. She travels the country speaking to all age groups, sharing laughs and building faith.

DIOCESE OF Jefferson City

Q: "Can you describe the role Mary plays in Catholicism? I know she was chosen to be the Mother of God, but can you go into more detail?" — Vanessa C., 16

A: Mary said "yes" to God when the angel Gabriel announced to her the divine plan that she would be the Mother of the Savior. She became the human instrument God chose to bring about salvation. It was from her that Christ took His human nature. She is our human link to Him.

Adam and Eve's "no" to God was enough to cast all mankind into darkness and death, until the Savior would come. This is why the Church acknowledges that Mary's "yes" cooperated in some way with the salvation of mankind.

Mary must be special. Out of all the billions of people in history, she was chosen to be the one who would bear God in her womb. She would be the one to nurse, play with and teach the infant Jesus, who is God. This is a big task.

Mary is also an intercessor for us. The first record of her intercession was at the wedding feast of Cana where she asked her Son to assist when the wine ran out (John 2:3-11). Jesus responded by performing His first recorded miracle. Since that day, Mary has interceded continually for us. She does this each time we invoke her in prayer.

ORDINATION BANS

Mr. Brian Lutz of this parish is currently in formation and is in final preparation to be ordained to the Permanent Diaconate in the Cathedral of St. Joseph on Saturday, June 7, 2025 at 10 a.m. by the Most Reverend W. Shawn McKnight, Bishop of Jefferson City.

If you have any questions or comments concerning this, please contact Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki at the Chancery.

The St. Louis Marian Conference will be held May 16-18, 2025.

The theme is "In the end, my immaculate heart will triumph". The conference will be held at the Renaissance St. Louis Airport, 9801 Natural Bridge Rd., St. Louis, Mo., 63134. All information for the conference can be found at www.stlmc.org or on the poster on the right hand bulletin board above the cabinet at the entrance of the church. The are information sheets provided below the poster.

There is so much to be said about the conference for families to increase their faith through speakers, adoration, Mass and vendors selling religious articles and books. It is very inexpensive. It's a memorable experience for our jubilee year.
