May 25, 2025 6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

[Jesus said to his disciples:]
"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."
- Jn 14:26-27a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPA

God makes His dwelling with those who love Him and keep His word. We must all make our lives places where God feels welcome to dwell. Our actions, our words, our decisions must all say in one voice: "Come, Holy Spirit!"

First Reading: If you keep free of these, you will be doing what is right. (Acts 15:29)

Psalm: O God, let all the nations praise you! (Ps 67) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: The city had no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gave it light, and its lamp was the Lamb. (Rv 12:23)

Gospel: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you." (Jn 14:27)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Jonathan Haidt's 2024 book entitled "The Anxious Generation" argues that today's kids are marked by significant increases in anxiety, as the title suggests. Smartphones, social media, economic uncertainty, the chaos of a global pandemic, fear regarding climate change, and the so-called "meaning crisis" all contribute to strikingly high levels of anxiety in young people today. I'm a bit older than this generation, but I feel it, too. The world can be too much to handle.

The Gospel this week offers a stunning solution for troubled souls. To his overwhelmed and anxious disciples, the risen Jesus says, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you" (John 14:27). His peace is that of the one who was overwhelmed on the cross and then conquered death by the power of his divinity, his bond of love with the Father. He offers us this unshakeable peace.

Of course, mental illness does not magically disappear because of the risen Jesus. But he does walk with us and offer us his peace in the midst of our suffering. The peace the world gives is not like his because it is weak, uncertain, and self-generated. Jesus' peace is strong, sure, and given as a gift from God. He gives it to us amid our anxiety. Will you receive it as a gift? I hope so. He wants to fill the hearts of this generation with his peace.

— Father John Muir

Prayer for Peace

Fill us with Your peace, Lord, as you promised in Your word.
Peace in our comings and goings,
Peace that You are working and moving,
Peace for what has happened, the places we find ourselves
today, and in the future to come. Amen.

PROLIFE UPDATES

Ninth Month of Unborn Baby Development: In the ninth month, a baby will gain one half pound per week as it is getting ready for birth. The bones in the head are soft and flexible to help with the journey down the narrow birth canal. Of the 45 generations of cell divisions before adulthood, 41 have already taken place. Only four more come before adolescence. Ninety percent of a person's development happens in the womb.

Our Ss. Peter and Paul Parish Baby Shower will be held Saturday, May 31 and Sunday, June 1 at front entrance of church and cry room. Pick up some literature, ask questions, grab a couple of cookies and a bookmark for the kids.

We will have baskets available at each of the church entrances and in the school office two weeks before the baby shower weekend for anyone who cannot attend and would like to donate a baby shower gift.

Baby shower gifts needed are as follows: baby lotion, head-to-toe body wash and shampoo, nail clippers, pacifiers, diaper rash ointment, newborn diapers to size 5, infant sleepers through size 1, and infant clothing through size 1. Baby thermometers, and white onesies size newborn and 3-6 months are also needed.

Items will be taken to My Life Clinic and a pregnancy resource center. We toured the centers that do so much to support parents of an unplanned pregnancy with no cost: sonograms, counseling, educating parents on caring for their baby, helping mothers get jobs, managing a household, cooking and a place to stay as needed.

For more information call Connie Gerling, 660-621-2787.

A prayer service will be held at the SSPP cemetery Monday, May 26 at 8:30 a.m., weather permitting. Bring a lawn chair. In addition, a prayer service will be held Sunday, May 25, 6 p.m., at St. Martin's Cemetery, weather permitting. Bring a lawn chair.

40 Days for Life will hold a closing rally celebration Saturday, May 31 at St. Andrew Veit Hall, 400 St. Andrew Dr., Holts Summit.

Mass will be celebrated at 5:30 p.m. with a fried chicken dinner to follow in the hall. Doors to the hall will open at 6 p.m. RSVP for the dinner by calling 573-821-5130.

All who prayed on the sidewalk or at home for the end of abortion are invited to enjoy a meal, fellowship, and hear what God has done on the sidewalk in front of Planned Parenthood.

Catholic Life Explained: SUNDAY MASS?

Question: Why do Catholics need to go to Mass every Sunday?

Answer: The heart of the Church's instruction that we are to attend Mass on Sundays goes back to the Third Commandment: "Take care to keep holy the sabbath day as the LORD, your God, has commanded you" (Deuteronomy 5:12).

Although the Jewish People celebrate the Sabbath on Saturday, the first generations of Christians began to observe the sabbath on Sunday, recognizing how important it is for Christians to celebrate the day that Jesus rose from the dead. As the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults observes, "Sunday extends the celebration of Easter throughout the year ... It makes present the new creation brought about by Christ" (364).

The focus of our Sunday should be the celebration of the Eucharist in the Mass. This is our time to be formed by God's Word and nourished at the table of the Lord, becoming prepared to live out and share our faith in the week that follows. In his encyclical, Dies Domini, Pope Saint John Paul II reminded us that Christians "cannot live their faith or share fully in the life of the Christian community unless they take part regularly in the Sunday Eucharistic assembly" (no. 81). This is why the Church teaches us that Sunday Mass is a non-negotiable part of being a Christian (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2192).

Beyond being a time of worship, we should also remember that Sunday is intended to be a day of rest, when we make time for recreation, for sharing meals, and enjoying the company of friends and family. Sunday is given to us as a day to take stock of and enjoy the blessings that God has given us (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2187). Pope Francis reminds us, "The day of rest, centered on the Eucharist, sheds its light on the whole week, and motivates us to greater concern for nature and the poor" (Laudato Si', no. 237).

An offering from the AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE

Many thanks to our Christian Education Commission for the and effort put forth in the planning of our parish mission with Father Ron Hoye!

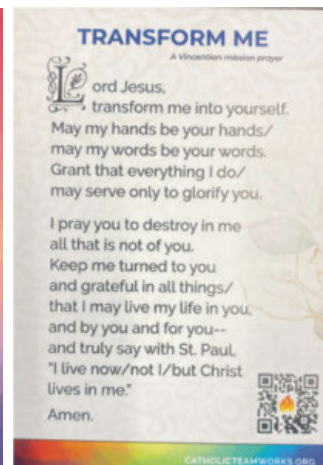

It was a pleasure to have him here for three nights as he shared messages about thankfulness and prayer/Eucharist.

It was wonderful to have not only young and not-as-young parishioners in attendance from SSPP but also from Pilot Grove and other surrounding parishes.

Thank you also to our Social Concerns Commission for offering desserts and the opportunity for fellowship Tuesday night after the last night of the mission.

It was wonderful to have not only parishioners from May we all continue to be blessed by this experience as, like the sunflower, we continue to lean in and follow Christ!

If you missed any of the presentations, the videos are posted on the church's Facebook page.

Roz Gordon is leading a 4-week book study on "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory." The group will meet Tuesdays at 10 a.m. in the church hall beginning May 27. If you're interest in joining the group, please call or text Roz at 660-537-0265.

Q: "Don't you think a lot more men would become priests if they were allowed to get married?" — Brian K., 13

A: A married priesthood might increase the number of priests in the short-run, but the real issue is, "Does God really want a married priesthood?" I have already explained the advantages of a celibate priesthood. And furthermore, it is not at all clear that allowing a married priesthood would necessarily substantially increase the number of priests.

Just because a man, married or unmarried, thinks he's called to priestly ministry doesn't mean he is — or that he has the qualifications to serve effectively as a priest. That has to be discerned.

The real problem with priestly vocations today is that many men have lost the spiritual awareness necessary to hear and answer God's call to priestly ministry. They are unwilling to make the personal sacrifices necessary to serve as priests. Ordaining married men would only mean that one less sacrifice would be required of men already disinclined to live a completely sacrificial life, which is the essence of priestly ministry. That doesn't seem to be a recipe for good priests.
